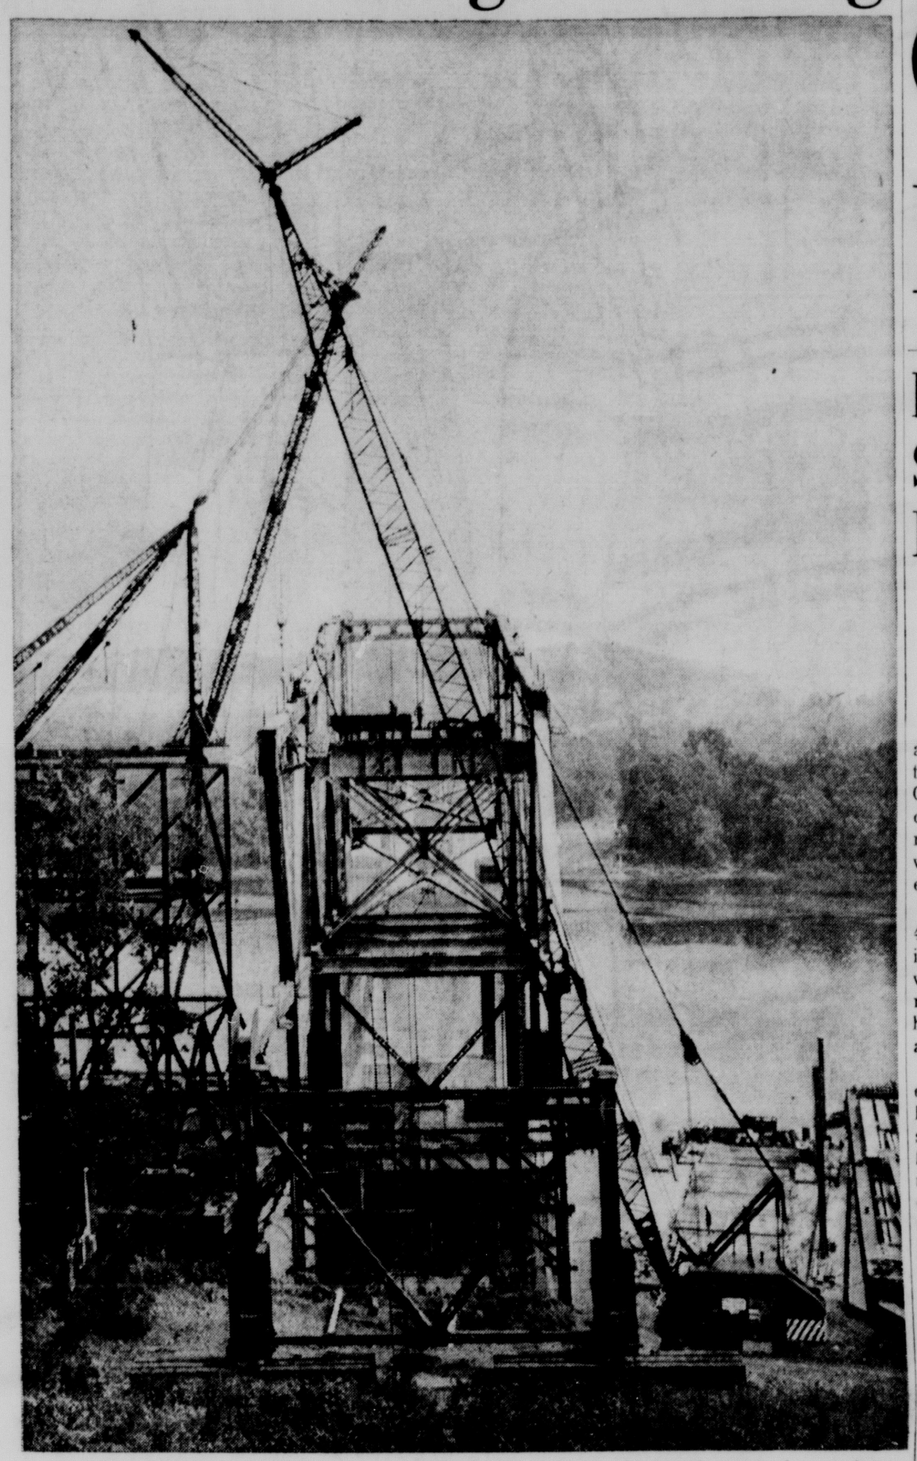
Superstructure Going Up

Midland Bridge Is Rising



About six more weeks will be required to complete the superstructure for the new Midland-Shippingport Bridge on Route 68 just east of Midland.

The photo was taken from the shoreline. If you have sharp eyes, you can detect six riggers headed by Ray Pappas, foreman, on the superstructure.

The American Bridge division of the U.S. Steel Corp., which has the subcontract for the steel erection from the Ben Construction Co. of Pittsburgh, general contractor, started work about two weeks ago and now has placed about 500 tons of the more than 2,900 tons to be erected.

American Bridge expects to complete the steel framework by Aug. 14 after which the Ben firm will deck the bridge so that its earth moving equipment can haul "borrow" dirt from the Midland side to Shippingport for fill.

James Czech, formerly of East Liverpool, general superintendent for Ben, said work on the $3.8 million project is running ahead of schedule with the job expected to be completed by the fall of 1964. The actual completion date is the spring of 1965.

The company expects to complete paving of the eastbound lane before winter so that Route 68 traffic toward Industry and Beaver can use the new roadway while the firm continues work on the westbound lane and ramps for the bridge.

Probation Sought For Miss Smith

Woman In Larceny Case To Know Fate After Investigation

Atty. Frank W. Springer today asked probation for Miss Roberta C. Smith in Common Pleas Court in Lisbon, where she was convicted by a jury Tuesday morning of larceny in connection with a shortage in the East Liverpool water department.

Springer, who represented the 40-year-old Fairmont St., resident in both her trials in connection with a $23,841 shortage in department funds, had said Wednesday he was "skeptical" about seeking a new trial.

A panel of five women and seven men convicted Miss Smith of larceny of $14,189.22 when her second trial ended Tuesday after five days of testimony. She was under indictment on charges of embezzlement and larceny, and the jurors convicted her on the lesser charge. She was chief clerk until dismissed.

Atty. Springer asked probation this morning for Miss Smith and Judge Raymond S. Buzzard ordered an investigation by Richard Rose, probation officer, while advising that he was "not committed" to award it.

Prosecutor G. William Brokaw said he would not oppose the probation investigation by Rose, but hinted he would oppose granting of probation for Miss Smith" because of the type of offense for which she was convicted."

Miss Smith, who claimed in both trials that she "covered up" shortages in acting on the advise of Frank Robinson, former water department superintendent, appeared in court this morning attired in a blue and white polka dot dress.

The probation investigation will probably take at least a month, and a hearing on Rose's report will follow.

The date which the investigation will begin by Rose was apparently not set, and probably will depend on the number of cases on which he is now working.

Miss Smith's $1,500 bond was ordered continued. She faces a penalty of 1-7 years in prison on the larceny conviction.

Miss Smith denied in both trials theft of any of the missing funds. She contended that part of the loss stemmed from an unreported burglary in which almost $11,000 in receipts was stolen from the water department safe. She said she told Mr. Robinson of the missing funds, and he advised her to " 'keep the matter quiet, and that he would take care of it'." Mr. Robinson died in 1961 after 44 years with the department.

The shortages were bared in an audit of the water and sewer department records covering the period from May 1, 1959 to Nov. 30, 1961 by Robert Lippincott of Poland, a state examiner.

President's Tour

Hailed By Democrats, Republicans Cautious

WASHINGTON (AP)—The acclaim given President Kennedy in Europe was welcomed by congressional leaders today, but Republicans cautioned against weighing the lasting success of the trip until all the results are in —particularly from France.

House Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass, voiced the general Democratic feeling that the President's tour has made "a profound impression conducive to furthering the national interests of our country and those of Europe."

The assistant Democratic leader of the Senate, Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, said the President's reception in Germany had "completely vindicated the President's decision to proceed despite all the doubts and dire predictions that assailed him before his departure."

Humphrey said he considered the Kennedy restatements of U.S. policy "direct answers to the most damaging arguments" of President Charles de Gaulle of France.

Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen of Illinois agreed that the President had been "welcomed with open arms and listened to in Germany as the President of the United States should have been."

Dirksen said he hoped that "good results will flow" from the trip, but warned against speculating on the President's success in "trying to patch up certain situations."

House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana said he had no quarrel with the trip, was happy about the acclaim and wished the President "every possible success that is in the cards."

Rep. Frances P. Bolton of Ohio, the ranking Republican on the Foreign Affairs Committee, said she considered the President's statements about France and DeGaulle "the poorest politics I have seen played by a man who is supposed to know his politics."

Mrs. Bolton said such public criticism "was no way to re-win a friend, and we certainly don't need any more enemies."

Cork Makes President 'Freeman'

Slated To Address Irish Parliament At Dublin Today

CORK, Ireland (AP)—President Kennedy was made a freeman of Cork today. He told a cheering crowd when he retires he will take great satisfaction "in not only being president of my own country but a freeman of this city."

Cork, Ireland's chief port and second city, staged a rousing welcome for the President. Packed into a hectic 75-minute schedule was a parade through the city, the ceremony making him a freeman and a reception by the city fathers.

It seemed as if all of Cork's 80,000 inhabitants had turned out to see and cheer the President.

A helicopter stood by to whisk Kennedy to Dublin for his address to the two houses of parliament. After this there were ceremonies awarding the President honorary degrees from the National University and the University of Dublin and honorary freedom of the Irish capital.

The freedom of Wexford, New Ross, Galway and Limerick also have come or are coming Kennedy's way before his three-day Irish tour ends Saturday.

Under medieval custom, this gives the President first claim on a bed in the poorhouse in any of the six towns should he need it. This seems unlikely; his fortune recently was estimated at $10 million.

The President was guest of honor Thursday night at a banquet given by President Eamon de Valera and Prime Minister Sean Lemass in Dublin.

Kennedy flies to Britain Saturday for a 24-hour visit with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

The Macmillan government reportedly has decided against committing Britain for the time being to join the NATO fleet of nuclear-armed surface ships the Americans and the West Germans are proposing.

Informants outlining the Macmillan-Kennedy work program said Saturday evening will be devoted to impending nuclear test ban talks in Moscow and on Sunday morning they will dwell on American-British and NATO defense issues, including the NATO nuclear fleet project.

Legislature Adjournment Slated Today

Senate Defeats Bid To Increase Liquor Prices 7 Per Cent

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 105th General Assembly expects to wind up its formal working session sometime today in the wake of a surprising decision to keep liquor prices steady for another two years.

The Senate defeated 10-16 a proposal which would have authorized a 7 per cent increase in liquor prices—which would have meant that a bottle of whisky which now costs $5 in state monopoly stores could have gone as high as $5.35.

Republicans in the GOP-controlled Senate who opposed the bill said the proposal amounted to a tax increase.

Despite the decisive margin by which the proposal was defeated, there was immediate talk that the vote might be reconsidered by the time the legislature returns to Columbus July 10 for a full working session.

As deliberations of the lawmakers ground slowly to a halt, the Senate acted to spell out authority for state universities to ban Communist speakers from appearing on their campuses. The Senate version of the speaker-ban bill now returns to the House.

Sen. Ross Pepple, R-Allen, called his modification of the speakers' rule bill more workable than the House bill his measure modifies.

The intent of all legislative endeavor in this field during this session has been to clarify the responsibility of trustees and administrators of state - supported universities with respect to subversives who wish to speak on the campuses.

The bill states that university trustees have full power over university administration, can delegate authority, and adds:

"Such power shall include, but not be limited to, the authority to withhold use of facilities of any such college or university for meeting or speaking purposes from persons who are members of the Communist Party."

The legislation goes on to provide that such authority also applies to "persons who advocate or persons who hold membership in or support organizations which advocate the overthrow of the government of the United States and its free institutions by force or violence."

Fired County Worker Wins Back Pay Suit

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury returned a verdict of $3,952.50 Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Jane Case of Columbiana for back pay in her suit against county commissioners in connection with the Courthouse firings that began with the switch from Democrat to Republican control over two years ago. She sued for that amount.

Prosecutor G. William Brokaw said today he is undecided on whether to seek a new trial. Nine members of the jury signed the verdict. The panel of three men and nine women began deliberations Thursday morning before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard and returned the verdict yesterday at 3:05 p. m.

Three other Democratic appointed employes dismissed along with Mrs. Case also have filed for back pay but it is not known when their cases will be coming up.

She claimed she was discharged illegally Feb. 1, 1961, from her $255-per month job as switchboard operator by the Republican controlled county commissioners, who had to reinstate her May 16, 1962. The State Supreme Court ruled she had Civil Service status by merely signing an application form. She never took a competitive examination. She was then fired immediately by commissioners for engaging in political activities and this case is now before the 7th District Court of Appeals.

Commissioner Galen Greenisen of Salem testified that Prosecutor Brokaw first held that Mrs. Case had no Civil Service status and they laid her off. Later, he said, commissioners were advised by Brokaw that she had Civil Service status but commis-

Robber Slugs Bar Employe, Obtains $120

Officers Continue Hunt For Suspect; Woman's Eye Cut

Police are continuing a search today for a strongarm robber who slugged a waitress in a Dresden Ave. tavern Thursday afternoon, then rifled the cash register of $120 to $135.

Mrs. Thelma Hayes, a waitress at Roy's Bar, 755 Dresden Ave., suffered a cut under the left eye when hit by the robber, who posed as a patron, police said.

Capt. Robert H. Pyle, acting police chief, said officers made a widespread search for the suspect yesterday afternoon and last night. He indicated there may be an arrest soon.

Mrs. Hayes said the robber seated himself at the bar, ordering a drink and waiting until other patrons had left. Then he walked around the bar and struck her, knocking her to the floor, she said. The impact broke her glasses and caused the cut on her face, she related.

Then the robber opened the cash register and removed all the currency. She estimated the loss at $120 to $135 in $10's, -20's, $5's and $1's. The tavern is operated by Roy Blinn, officers said.

Patrolman Paul Lemal, desk officer, received the report of the robbery at 12:02 p. m. Capt. Pyle and Patrolmen Charles A. Winters and Orin C. Smith made the investigation.

After rifling the register, the robber walked outside and headed north on Dresden Ave. on foot, the waitress told the officers. Then he got into an auto and drove away, she related.

Mrs. Hayes said the robber is 40 to 45 years old and of short stature.

Industry Man Victim

Auto Mechanic Is Electrocuted

James Francis Maloney, a 56-year-old Industry mechanic, was electrocuted Thursday afternoon while working on his truck at his home on Wolf Run Rd.

A bare wire from a portable battery charger touching the truck frame while Mr. Maloney worked underneath was blamed for his death which Dr. John W. Colavincenzo, Beaver County coroner, ruled accidental.

INDUSTRY Police Chief Guy St. Esprit said Mr. Maloney had attached the portable charger to the truck with the bare wire touching the frame.

His perspiring forehead apparently touched the truck frame, the power killing him instantly.

Dr. Colavincenzo fixed the time of death between 4 and 4:30 p. m. but Chief St. Esprit wasn't notified until nearly 6:30 when a neighbor, Mrs. John Girting, became alarmed at the length of time Mr. Maloney had been under the truck.

CHIEF ST. Esprit investigated and notified the coroner.

Mr. Maloney, a self-employed mechanic, had worked at one time as a welder for the Treadwell Construction Co.

Khrushchev Arrives In East Berlin

Surprise Summit Meeting Set With Red Bloc Leaders

BERLIN (AP)—Premier Khrushchev arrived today in East Berlin for a surprise summit meeting with leaders of Soviet bloc nations.

Khrushchev was accompanied by his wife, Nina, but reports from Moscow made no mention of Soviet spacewoman Valentina Tereshkova. Rumors have been persistent that he would bring her along in an effort to whip up something like the public enthusiasm that greeted President Kennedy in West Berlin.

Following Khrushchev into Berlin were Polish party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka and Czechoslovak President Antonin Novotny.

Other satellite leaders are expected to assemble in East Berlin by Sunday, the 70th birthday of East German Communist party boss Walter Ulbricht.

Ulbricht's birthday is the official pretext for the gathering. But it is the first time Khrushchev has left home to attend a birthday party for a satellite leader, and Western officials in Berlin are convinced there is much more to the trip than that.

The announcement that Gomulka and Novotny also were coming produced a revision of earlier Western speculation that Khrushchev's visit was mainly a propaganda move intended to blunt the impact of President Kennedy's jubilant reception in West Berlin two days ago.

Rains Bring Respite From Over-90 Heat

Continuing showers this morning washed the week's heat wave right out of East Liverpool's hair but the Ohio weatherman insists the respite from over-90 temperatures may be brief.

The forecast was for hot and humid through Saturday with a high of 80 to 95 today and a low range of 65 to 70 tonight.

The downtown had 91 degrees at mid-afternoon Thursday and a mild 71 this morning.

The showers came in while the weatherman was looking the other way as his forecast is for "a chance of a few afternoon or evening showers" today and tomorrow.

The first rain in nearly two weeks was the equivalent of a drencher for Tri-State District farmers. If the high temperatures do persist, then the moist skies will create more muggy humidity.

Bliss Dividend Set

The Board of Directors of the E. W. Bliss Co. at Canton has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 45 cents on the company's $1.80 cumulative convertible preferred stock for payment July 15 as of record July 6. Bliss' Mackintosh-Hemphill Division operates a plant at Midland.

Midland Mayor To Form 'Human Relations' Group

Mayor Eli Corak was authorized by Midland Council Thursday night to set up a "Human Relations Commission" to handle any racial problems that may exist in Midland.

Aaron Golding and Dr. R. M. Higginbotham of the Midland NAACP suggested that such a commission or committee be organized.

Higginbotham said that Negroes in Midland are not faced with "legal problems, but rather, moral problems." He pointed out the commission would help alleviate these problems, because it would give the races a better opportunity to get to know each other and the problems of each.

The goals of the commission will be to analyze race relations as they exist in Midland, stamp out any situations before they have a chance to grow into serious problems and to help counter unfounded rumors, such as those circulating in the area about possible demonstrations at the Midland July 4th celebration.

As Corak pointed out, "the present rumors are exactly that — rumors — and have no basis for truth whatsoever."

"Our racial situation in Midland is good — in fact, much above average but, it isn't perfect," he commented.

Corak will appoint members to the commission from the clergy, business, professional, banking and industry. Makeup of the commission and meeting place and dates will be announced when organization is completed.

Democratic Leaders Hit By Goldwater

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Democratic party leaders are linked in a "cynical alliance" with "corrupt big city machines," Sen. Barry Goldwater has told warring Young Republicans at their national convention.

The Arizona conservative's speech to a cheering crowd of 3,000 Thursday night came after a day of bitter wrangling. More was in store today, the last day, when national officers and resolutions were to be decided.

Goldwater, obviously the favorite of the majority at the convention for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination, got a rousing ovation —complete with trim young girls clad in Goldwater sweat shirts.

Goldwater again insisted that he isn't running for anything except the U.S. Senate. Most of his talk was devoted to castigating modern liberals, whom he called "soft-shelled creatures."

Pope Paul Seeks To Help Catholics In Red Nations

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI is understood to be studying ways of arranging with Communist governments to improve the lot of the 60 million Roman Catholics behind the Iron Curtain.

In his week-old reign, the pontiff has set the stage publicly for re-establishing Vatican ties with Communist nations. He has served notice that he has no intention of involving the Vatican in the internal affairs of nations, but he has indicated that he wants Catholics behind the Iron Curtain to regain the opportunity to practice their faith freely.

His approach, revealed in messages received Thursday in Moscow and Warsaw, is persuasion. The messages, addressed to Premier Khrushchev and Aleksander Sawadzki, titular head of the Polish government, acknowledged congratulations on the Pope's election. They expressed a wish for world peace.

They also reminded the Communist leaders that Christians live in their lands, especially in Poland, which has a 1,000-year history of Catholicism.

The Pope's message to Zawadzki—the first known communication from a Pope to the Communist government of Poland—noted that the Pole's greetings came from "a country with which we have been tied for a long time with old and dear remembrances and for which we desire with all our heart divine care."

Probation Sought For Miss Smith

Woman In Larceny Case To Know Fate After Investigation

Atty. Frank W. Springer today asked probation for Miss Roberta C. Smith in Common Pleas Court in Lisbon, where she was convicted by a jury Tuesday morning of larceny in connection with a shortage in the East Liverpool water department.

Springer, who represented the 40-year-old Fairmont St., resident in both her trials in connection with a $23,841 shortage in department funds, had said Wednesday he was "skeptical" about seeking a new trial.

Miss Smith, who claimed in both trials that she "covered up" shortages in acting on the advise of Frank Robinson, former water department superintendent, appeared in court this morning attired in a blue and white polka dot dress.

The probation investigation will probably take at least a month, and a hearing on Rose's report will follow.

The date which the investigation will begin by Rose was apparently not set, and probably will depend on the number of cases on which he is now working.

CORK, Ireland (AP)—President Kennedy was made a freeman of Cork today. He told a cheering crowd when he retires he will take great satisfaction "in not only being president of my own country but a freeman of this city."

Cork, Ireland's chief port and second city, staged a rousing welcome for the President. Packed into a hectic 75-minute schedule was a parade through the city, the ceremony making him a freeman and a reception by the city fathers.

Following Khrushchev into Berlin were Polish party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka and Czechoslovak President Antonin Novotny.

Other satellite leaders are expected to assemble in East Berlin by Sunday, the 70th birthday of East German Communist party boss Walter Ulbricht.

Ulbricht's birthday is the official pretext for the gathering. But it is the first time Khrushchev has left home to attend a birthday party for a satellite leader, and Western officials in Berlin are convinced there is much more to the trip than that.

The announcement that Gomulka and Novotny also were coming produced a revision of earlier Western speculation that Khrushchev's visit was mainly a propaganda move intended to blunt the impact of President Kennedy's jubilant reception in West Berlin two days ago.

Rains Bring Respite From Over-90 Heat

Continuing showers this morning washed the week's heat wave right out of East Liverpool's hair but the Ohio weatherman insists the respite from over-90 temperatures may be brief.

The forecast was for hot and humid through Saturday with a high of 80 to 95 today and a low range of 65 to 70 tonight.

The downtown had 91 degrees at mid-afternoon Thursday and a mild 71 this morning.

The showers came in while the weatherman was looking the other way as his forecast is for "a chance of a few afternoon or evening showers" today and tomorrow.

The first rain in nearly two weeks was the equivalent of a drencher for Tri-State District farmers. If the high temperatures do persist, then the moist skies will create more muggy humidity.

Pope Paul Seeks To Help Catholics In Red Nations

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI is understood to be studying ways of arranging with Communist governments to improve the lot of the 60 million Roman Catholics behind the Iron Curtain.

In his week-old reign, the pontiff has set the stage publicly for re-establishing Vatican ties with Communist nations. He has served notice that he has no intention of involving the Vatican in the internal affairs of nations, but he has indicated that he wants Catholics behind the Iron Curtain to regain the opportunity to practice their faith freely.

His approach, revealed in messages received Thursday in Moscow and Warsaw, is persuasion. The messages, addressed to Premier Khrushchev and Aleksander Sawadzki, titular head of the Polish government, acknowledged congratulations on the Pope's election. They expressed a wish for world peace.

They also reminded the Communist leaders that Christians live in their lands, especially in Poland, which has a 1,000-year history of Catholicism.

The Pope's message to Zawadzki—the first known communication from a Pope to the Communist government of Poland—noted that the Pole's greetings came from "a country with which we have been tied for a long time with old and dear remembrances and for which we desire with all our heart divine care."

Bliss Dividend Set

The Board of Directors of the E. W. Bliss Co. at Canton has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 45 cents on the company's $1.80 cumulative convertible preferred stock for payment July 15 as of record July 6. Bliss' Mackintosh-Hemphill Division operates a plant at Midland.

Midland Mayor To Form 'Human Relations' Group

Mayor Eli Corak was authorized by Midland Council Thursday night to set up a "Human Relations Commission" to handle any racial problems that may exist in Midland.

Aaron Golding and Dr. R. M. Higginbotham of the Midland NAACP suggested that such a commission or committee be organized.

Higginbotham said that Negroes in Midland are not faced with "legal problems, but rather, moral problems." He pointed out the commission would help alleviate these problems, because it would give the races a better opportunity to get to know each other and the problems of each.

The goals of the commission will be to analyze race relations as they exist in Midland, stamp out any situations before they have a chance to grow into serious problems and to help counter unfounded rumors, such as those circulating in the area about possible demonstrations at the Midland July 4th celebration.

As Corak pointed out, "the present rumors are exactly that — rumors — and have no basis for truth whatsoever."

"Our racial situation in Midland is good — in fact, much above average but, it isn't perfect," he commented.

Corak will appoint members to the commission from the clergy, business, professional, banking and industry. Makeup of the commission and meeting place and dates will be announced when organization is completed.

In other Council action, William

Democratic Leaders Hit By Goldwater

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Democratic party leaders are linked in a "cynical alliance" with "corrupt big city machines," Sen. Barry Goldwater has told warring Young Republicans at their national convention.

The Arizona conservative's speech to a cheering crowd of 3,000 Thursday night came after a day of bitter wrangling. More was in store today, the last day, when national officers and resolutions were to be decided.

Goldwater, obviously the favorite of the majority at the convention for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination, got a rousing ovation —complete with trim young girls clad in Goldwater sweat shirts.

Goldwater again insisted that he isn't running for anything except the U.S. Senate. Most of his talk was devoted to castigating modern liberals, whom he called "soft-shelled creatures."

North Korea Admits Holding 2 U.S. Fliers

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Communist North Korea admitted for the first time today that it is holding two U.S. Army captains whose helicopter made a forced landing in Communist territory May 17.

2 Wellsville Men In Theft Restore Loss

Two Wellsville men picked up for the theft of some $700 worth of plywood from the construction site on the California Hollow Freeway project have made restitution for the lumber, according to Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan.

The John Hill Construction Co., contractor for the bridges in the project, reported the theft the weekend of June 15.

The sheriff said one of the men worked for the firm and the two agreed to pay for the lumber or return it. The company agreed not to prefer charges, the sheriff said.

U.N. Ends Session, Continues Congo Aid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The U.N. General Assembly has ended its six-week special session with the adoption of a stopgap financial plan to continue the Congo and Middle East peace operations for the rest of the year.

The 111-nation assembly also upheld Nationalist China's right to its U.N. seat.

Vinovich, president, said adult night swimming will begin at the Veterans Pool July 9 and will be held every Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 9 to 11. Vinovich pointed that the night swimming is open only to those 18 and over, and is on a trial basis.

He said that the senior life saving class had been completed and that 12 to 15 certificates were given those who completed the class. Junior life saving classes are now underway.

Rudy Presutti, tax collector, asked Council to rule on whether three or four men who work for the Crucible Steel Co., but on barges on the river and not in the plant, should be required to pay the wage tax which covers those who work in the plant.

Presutti said these men contended that since they worked on the river they were not liable for the tax.

Council and Atty. Robert Masters, solicitor, decided the men should be required to pay.

The Municipal Authority wrote Council June 13 about "unauthorized" use of water from the city hydrants and Councilman Ray Presutti, reported that several Midland businesses and a township fire truck had been getting water from a hydrant without obtaining permission. Presutti said both situations had been "straightened out satisfactorily."

Fire Chief Vince D'Itri noted that all fire trucks can get their water in a direct line installed at the water department for this purpose.

Councilman Presutti also reported that trees on the July 4th parade route had been trimmed to provide room for the floats.

Mayor Corak instructed Mat Brozic, street department foreman, to have Midland Ave. cleaned and washed Wednesday night.

Communications were received from the Midland Chamber of Commerce, expressing appreciation to the Council and to the Municipal Authority for their efforts in installing the parking lots in Midland. Another from the Midland Municipal Authority requested a meeting with Council to discuss city parking and metering. Vinovich said the meeting will be arranged.

Bills were ordered paid.

Testimony Continues In Suit On Land Value

LISBON — Testimony is expected to continue into next week in a land appropriation case of the state highways department against Frank and Opal Bosco of East Liverpool; John C. Fultz of East Liverpool R. D. 5, owner of the Blue Top Restaurant, and the Ashland Oil Co. to determine the value of 13.19 acres of land and buildings taken for relocation of Route 30, near the intersection of Route 170.

Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp swore in the jury Monday afternoon and the panel has heard testimony each day. The case is not expected to go to the jury until sometime next week.

Miss Adelia M. Hobbs, 66, of Detroit, a native of Hancock County and a retired school teacher, died Thursday afternoon at her home following an illness of two years.

She was born Sept. 8, 1896, to the late H. F. Hobbs and Dora K. Stewart Hobbs. A teacher in the Detroit area for 40 years, she retired in February 1962. She was a graduate of the University of Michigan and belonged to a Presbyterian Church in Detroit.

A brother, Wilbert F. Hobbs of Chester, is the only survivor.

Services will be held tonight at 7 at the William R. Hamilton Funeral Home in Detroit.

A brief prayer service will be held Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at the Arner Funeral Chapel in Chester, followed with graveside services at the Mill Creek Hill Cemetery, Hookstown. The Rev. William Claghorn, minister of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church of Chester, will officiate.

Friends may call at the chapel after 7 p.m. Saturday and up to the time of service Sunday.

Mrs. Maggie Lawrence

Services for Mrs. Maggie Parsons Lawrence of New Somerset will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. at the Clarke Funeral Home in Toronto.

The Rev. William L. Mautz, pastor of the Empire Methodist Church, will officiate and burial will be in New Somerset Cemetery.

The daughter of the late John Parsons and Susan Hutson Parsons, she died Tuesday night.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and tonight from 7 to 9.

George Esenhuth

George Esenhuth, 72, formerly of East Liverpool and Salem, died Thursday noon at the County Home, where he resided for the past two years.

Born March 27, 1891, in East Liverpool, to George Esenhuth and Eva Green Esenhuth, he spent most of his life in the East Liverpool area and was a potter.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Harry Hull of East Liverpool, Mrs. William Hoppes, of Minter, Calif., and Mrs. Robert Boston of Guam; two sisters, Mrs. William Price of East Liverpool and Mrs. Olive Winfield in California and five grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 1:30 p.m. at the Henry Funeral Home in Lisbon by the Rev. Harold Deitch, pastor of the Christian Church of Salem. Burial will be in the Hope Cemetery, Salem.

Friends may call Sunday evening at the funeral home.

Earn Reduced Fines

62 Attend Traffic School Held By Palestine Judge

Sixty-two attended traffic school held Thursday night by Judge Herbert E. Arfman of Eastern Division County Court at East Palestine.

Forty-five had been ordered in. Their fines on traffic violations were reduced on condition they attend.

State Highway Patrolman Ralph L. Reed of Lisbon was guest speaker. He recommended the use of safety belts in cars and screened a film, "Signal 30."

Eight were fined for various violations at court conducted before the school and two others forfeited bonds.

Ricky G. Hoppel of East Liverpool R.D. 3 was fined $50 and costs for driving with loud mufflers. The judge suspended $25 on condition he attend the next traffic school July 25.

Arlie Davis, 603 E. 3rd St., East Liverpool, was fined $20 and costs, with $10 suspended, for passing on a curve.

Pearl E. Jones, 601½ N. Beaver St., Lisbon was fined $10 and costs for failure to have the headlights of her car turned on in the required time. The fine was suspended.

Donald H. Paulin of Lisbon R. D. 5 was fined $15 and costs, with $10 suspended, for a stop sign violation.

Alva C. Collins of Rogers R.D. 1 was fined $25 and costs for driving left of center. Roger G. Riley Jr., 384 E. Chestnut St., Lisbon, was fined $15 and costs, with $10 suspended, for speeding, while Louella Little of Howell Rd., East Palestine, was fined $15 and costs, with $10 suspended, for improper backing.

James Cheuvront of Lycia Ave., Chester, forfeited a $20 bond for crossing a yellow line and Duane W. Clunk, 232 N. Beaver St., Lisbon, forfeited $20 for driving left of center.

In each case whre there was a suspension of the fine or port of the fine, it was on the condition the driver attend the next traffic school.

In another case, John E. Smith of East Liverpool R.D. 2 was fined $10 and costs each on charges of allowing a dog to run at large and for no license for the animal. The fine was suspended in each charge on condition the dog is kept tied in the future and a license purchased.

2 Wellsville Men In Theft Restore Loss

Two Wellsville men picked up for the theft of some $700 worth of plywood from the construction site on the California Hollow Freeway project have made restitution for the lumber, according to Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan.

The John Hill Construction Co., contractor for the bridges in the project, reported the theft the weekend of June 15.

The sheriff said one of the men worked for the firm and the two agreed to pay for the lumber or return it. The company agreed not to prefer charges, the sheriff said.

U.N. Ends Session, Continues Congo Aid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The U.N. General Assembly has ended its six-week special session with the adoption of a stopgap financial plan to continue the Congo and Middle East peace operations for the rest of the year.

The 111-nation assembly also upheld Nationalist China's right to its U.N. seat.

Vinovich, president, said adult night swimming will begin at the Veterans Pool July 9 and will be held every Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 9 to 11. Vinovich pointed that the night swimming is open only to those 18 and over, and is on a trial basis.

He said that the senior life saving class had been completed and that 12 to 15 certificates were given those who completed the class. Junior life saving classes are now underway.

Rudy Presutti, tax collector, asked Council to rule on whether three or four men who work for the Crucible Steel Co., but on barges on the river and not in the plant, should be required to pay the wage tax which covers those who work in the plant.

Presutti said these men contended that since they worked on the river they were not liable for the tax.

Council and Atty. Robert Masters, solicitor, decided the men should be required to pay.

The Municipal Authority wrote Council June 13 about "unauthorized" use of water from the city hydrants and Councilman Ray Presutti, reported that several Midland businesses and a township fire truck had been getting water from a hydrant without obtaining permission. Presutti said both situations had been "straightened out satisfactorily."

Fire Chief Vince D'Itri noted that all fire trucks can get their water in a direct line installed at the water department for this purpose.

Councilman Presutti also reported that trees on the July 4th parade route had been trimmed to provide room for the floats.

Mayor Corak instructed Mat Brozic, street department foreman, to have Midland Ave. cleaned and washed Wednesday night.

Communications were received from the Midland Chamber of Commerce, expressing appreciation to the Council and to the Municipal Authority for their efforts in installing the parking lots in Midland. Another from the Midland Municipal Authority requested a meeting with Council to discuss city parking and metering. Vinovich said the meeting will be arranged.

Bills were ordered paid.

Testimony Continues In Suit On Land Value

LISBON — Testimony is expected to continue into next week in a land appropriation case of the state highways department against Frank and Opal Bosco of East Liverpool; John C. Fultz of East Liverpool R. D. 5, owner of the Blue Top Restaurant, and the Ashland Oil Co. to determine the value of 13.19 acres of land and buildings taken for relocation of Route 30, near the intersection of Route 170.

Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp swore in the jury Monday afternoon and the panel has heard testimony each day. The case is not expected to go to the jury until sometime next week.

Color All Walls Red

The scene at the Berlin Wall when President Kennedy ascended a special platform to look into East Berlin may have justified the elaborate staging of his trip abroad.

His enthusiastic reception in West Germany and repressive measures taken in East Berlin to keep crowds from assembling to cheer his presence on the other side of the hated wall dramatized the central issue as nothing has dramatized it recently.

Wherever authoritarian rule has been imposed on human beings, there must be a wall to keep them from escaping. There are no converts to a police state. There are only captives.

The only people who voluntarily stay in East Berlin or any other authoritarian compound are the keepers of the captives—the elite and their servants.

The Berlin Wall was built to keep East Germans from escaping to West Berlin and hence to West Germany at a rate that was draining East Germany of nearly all its educated people.

It was a bold confession to the world that oppression under the Russian version of authoritarian was so intolerable the East Germans had to be walled in to keep them from running away.

It was an admission that conditions in East Berlin and East Germany could not stand comparison with conditions in West Berlin, despite the fact West Berlin is an enclave deep inside East German territory.

Wherever there is a wall, color it red, to signify that people are held captive. The wall is the symbol of red rule—the rule no one likes except despots who give orders and minions who obey them.

Sound Approach

The Midland chapter of the NAACP has taken a sensible approach in denying rumors that a demonstration had been planned there during the annual July 4 celebration.

Particularly commendable was the statement by Will T. Leavell, president of the chapter, that the NASCP "seeks peaceful solutions to problems and does not try to solve them by creating situations that would disturb community tranquility".

Such calm thinking should do more to settle whatever racial problems might exist than the shouting, screaming and even violence which has erupted in some communities.

Relations between Negroes and whites in Midland and other area communities have been good over the years. It would be silly if baseless rumors were allowed to mistakenly create ill feeling at a time when progress is being made in the direction of even more friendly relations.

$47 Billion By 401-1

By a vote of 401-1, the U.S. House of Representatives has approved a $47 billion defense authorization for the 12 months starting July 1.

For purposes of comparison, this is half the entire federal budget. It will make the United States the strongest military power on earth, according to the men who proposed it and the congressmen who approved it. Many of these would spend many billions more if they had their way.

Once it has been agreed that cost is no obstacle, there is no point of satiety in militarism. No general or admiral ever said he had more than he needed and woe to any civilian secretary of defense who questions their reuqests.

MILITARY spending becomes a national behaviorism—an untouchable item in the budget—a psychopathic need to buy security with dollars.

Does someone want to save a few billions? Fine—but don't touch the military budget.

Does the White House want to keep the lid on some multi-billion-dollar project for an airplane that will fly sideways and upside down? Override its veto!

There once was a time when doubting Thomases wondered if the nation could afford less than one billion dollars for the relief of its citizens. Today no one is in a mood to wonder if it needs all of $47 billion to pile up more military potential. The arms race must not be questioned.

IF MONEY is going to be saved, it will have to be elsewhere.

When United States Information Agency wanted $3 million more in its new budget to take advantage of new television outlets in Europe, the House of Representatives denied it, then slashed the agency's budget from $157,900,000 to $142,700,000 in a fine gesture of congressional prudence.

The only way to make good with Congress is to bowl it over with a uniform.

Edward R. Murrow and USIA don't have a chance.

70 Million Frenchmen . . .

It is understandable that in France, a country whose King Louis XIV is supposed to have said that he, himself, was the state and whose Emperor Napoleon said the country needed him more than he needed it, President Charles de Gaulle gets to feeling air-borne at times.

But it would not be understandable if there were no dissent to President de Gaulle's high-handedness. A hint of this was found a few days ago in an interview with Gaetano Martino, president of the European Parliament, representing the six European Common Market nations.

The Common Market is only one step toward both the economic and political unification of the six member nations. This is a long-term project that will extend far beyond the lifetimes of any of the men now working at it.

President Martino doubts that President de Gaulle reflects the will of France in his opposition to Britain's membership in the Common Market. He does not share journalistic pessimism about the Common Market's future.

"Ideas and institutions last longer than any one man," he said. "The attitude of the French government definitely has not helped unification [illegible] we must bear in mind that in his own way President de Gaulle is a European — although admittedly a very special kind of European."

This is the long view. Many of us cannot understand the rift that has dislocated so many plans in Europe and set our own government at odds with the government of France. We do not begin to understand the makeup of Charles de Gaulle, who believes that to say No is a sign of strength.

But we can grasp the fact that one man cannot inflict his will on any country forever, especially if it is in opposition to the will of his peers. "Seventy million Frenchmen can't be wrong."

Perception

By Truman Twill

Someone was wondering the other day if people are still interested in spelling. It's a dumb thing to wonder about, perhaps, in view of the National Spelling Bee.

But the bee is for youngsters. Do adults still take an interest in spelling? Whatever happened to adult spelling bees that drew crowds like bingo draws them now?

They would be old-fashioned and square, though don't write them off. Square dancing has come back strong. Everything comes back if you wait long enough — even virtue.

Spelling as a part of learning is no better or worse, as far as teaching it and learning it are concerned. If less is heard about it now, that's only because there are so many other things to hear about than there were when learning to spell was a major academic achievement.

It's still a handy thing to be able to do but not an educational imperative. Many successful men and women are sloppy spellers and need to be helped over rough places. But you'd never know it from hearing them on tape recorders and dictating machines.

IF THEY'RE smart enough to keep their written words concealed until someone with the hang of spelling has corrected them, they can go through life and never know how to spell "eczema."

The hang of spelling — that's the thing.

It's something some people have, like charm in a woman. And also like charm in a woman, if you don't have it, better luck next time. There's no substitute.

Even if you learn routine words by rote, the tough ones will stick you. Your secret never will be safe.

It is connected with sharpness of visual and auditory perception.

There are people who never perceive that "ominous" has the "i" between the "m" and the "n." They always say "omnious," just as there are some who always say "larnyx' instead of "larynx."

Assuredly one of the commonest bloopers must be to spell "develop" with an "e" on the end — "develope." This and hundreds of other words are abused and maltreated by the educated as well as the illiterate. The only conceivable explanation is that some people are unable to see the relationship between the letters of words and to see and hear the proper sequence of syllables.

THE LATE Damon Runyon, who wrote professionally and worked with the written language all his life never learned how to spell "restaurant." He always spelled it "restaurent" in his syndicated newspaper copy.

There is, of course, no such thing as a "chaise lounge," but that's what many people call a "chaise longue" and even the people who sell what originated in France as a "long chair" misspell and mispronounce the name of this popular item.

Then we have "tarpaulin," "reservoir," "harassment," "suite" and "viaduct." Naturally, you know how to pronounce them; everybody does. But chances are, youre not only unable to pronounce them correctly but you couldn't spell them, either.

Odd Facts

According to UN estimates, there are about 500 million people in the world who are "actively hungry", that is, really need something to eat right now. And another half-billion suffer from diet deficiencies or malnutrition.

It is possible to see a rainbow as a complete circle from an airplane. If the sun is near the horizon, then to see the complete circle one must be at least 4,800 feet above the earth's surface.

'Rights' Pressure Applied To Congress

By DAVID LAWRENCE

A legislative process that operates under duress is unprecedented in the halls of Congress. The attorney general of the United States, Robert F. Kennedy, in presenting to the House Judiciary Committee his proposals for civil rights legislation, made several references to recent street demonstrations in various cities and "the violence which has sometimes accompanied them."

David Lawrence

He said these were a direct result of racial discrimination and that the resentments which had arisen due to racial discrimination were "justified."

Nowhere in the statement was it explained why it required the stimulus of demonstrations to bring about consideration by Congress of any of the current legislative proposals.

The attorney general in his statement discussed constitutional doctrines and indicated some of the barriers that have hitherto caused hesitation in dealing with these same racial problems. In recommending to Congress now, for instance, the passage of a law that would forbid racial discrimination in restaurants, lunch counters, places of amusement, stores and hotels, Mr. Kennedy states that, because these facilities are open to the public, they are not at all "like a private home or a private club to which the owner invites only the guests he selects."

This differentiation has never been sanctioned by the courts as a basis for interfering with the individual rights of the owner of a business.

THE THEORY evolved by the Department of Justice, however, is that, because a business concern deals with the public, it may be subject to complete regulation or possibly extermination by the federal government.

This alleged authority is derived from the clause of the Constitution which gives Congress the power to regulate interstate commerce, and Mr. Kennedy cited various laws passed by Congress in this field. Not a single one of these statutes, however, covers the selection of customers of a business.

They deal with employes, or the practices of the employer in his relations with his own workers, or the practices of business owners in relation to other businesses or in shipping goods to other states or other countries.

Never in the history of the United States has the so-called commerce clause of the Constitution been invoked to regulate the customer relationship of a business owner and individual citizens.

The attorney general conceded that the 14th Amendment cannot be invoked for equal rights in this category and he correctly referred to the Supreme Court decision of 1883, which specifically held that the federal government could not on its own constitutionally enact legislation in this class of cases because this is a power held by the several states.

Placing reliance, therefore, on the commerce clause of the federal Constitution, the head of the Department of Justice, in the course of his statement to the House, said:

"I believe a proprietor might refuse to sell to a disorderly or improperly dressed customer, but no American should be discriminated against because of his color, race or religion."

There is nothing in the court decisions based on the commerce clause of the Constitution which denies to any proprietor of a business the right to use his own judgment as to what constitutes a good customer relationship.

The sum and substance of the whole argument seems to be that an owner of a business may always use his own judgment as to whom he may sell his wares but apparently the moment he allows racial discrimination to enter the recesses of his mind, he can be penalized.

What has not been solved is the dilemma of the business owner who finds that lots of white people will not come to his establishment if he permits Negroes to crowd into his restaurant. He will then have to decide whether he will permit a few and yet be able to hold the bulk of his white customers. Under the terms of the proposed laws, numbers will not count. Any single act of discrimination would classify him as a violator of the law.

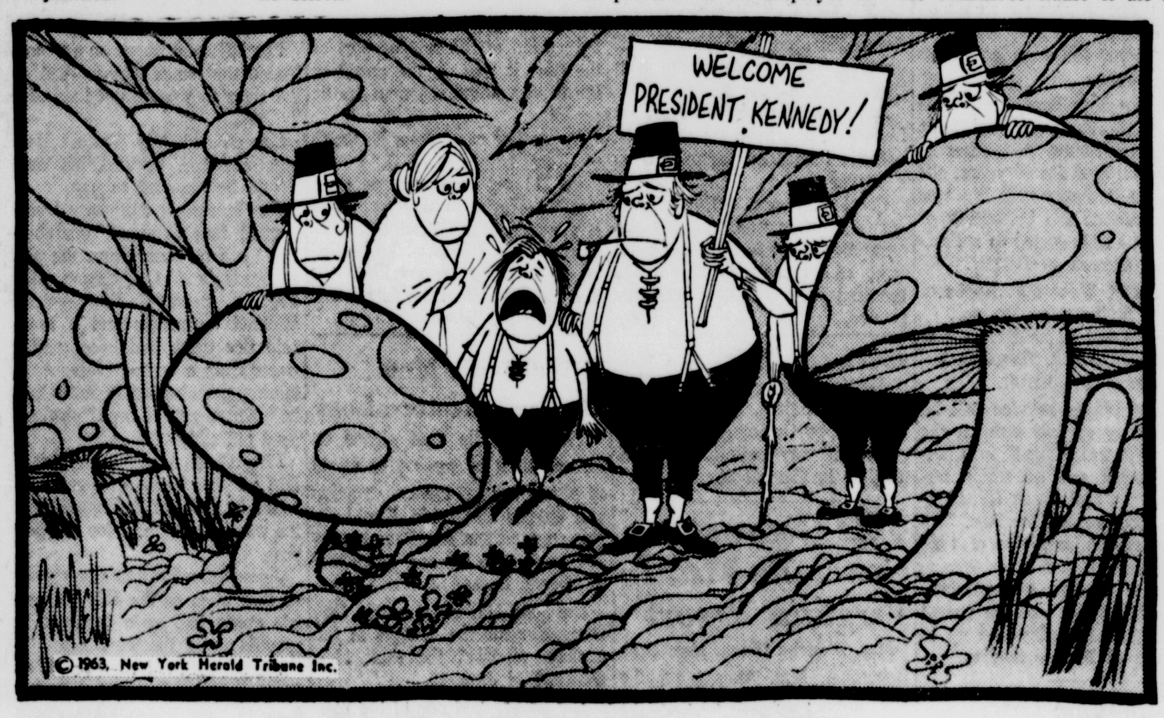
Some of the Democratic leaders who wish to support the proposals by the attorney general are suggesting that local boarding houses and smaller restaurants might have to be excluded from the proposed law in order to get it passed this year. It's not explained just how Congress itself can discriminate as between different sizes of restaurants when the actual test for the legislation is supposed to be racial discrimination, no matter how or where it occurs. What has the size of a business to do with the alleged evil involved?

The attorney general in referring to the recent demonstrations said:

"The events that have occurred since the President's first message—in Birmingham, in Jackson, in nearby Cambridge, in Philadelphia and in many other cities—make it clear that the attack upon these problems must be accelerated."

Some members of Congress are beginning to ask why it was necessary to be influenced by street demonstrations. Racial problems existed a year ago and two years ago, and the inference now is that only the carefully planned parades and "sit-ins" have brought the administration into action.

Legislating under duress is a new experience for Congress. When the debate really begins, it will become evident that Congress does not relish the idea that the new civil rights bills are being considered primarily because coercive demonstrations have occurred or because threats are being circulated that, if Congress doesn't pass the laws, there will be outbreaks of violence.



'It's Himself An' He Didn't Bring Any Of The American Little People—The Republicans.'

Red China Looks To Latin America

By VICTOR RIESEL

There now is evidence that Communist China is attempting to carve itself a slice of Latin America. Mao Tse-tung's newest "leap forward" is to British Guiana on the northeast coast of the southern continent.

Victor Riesel

The Peking leader wants Guiana not only because he seeks to match Chairman Khrushchev's hold on Cuba but as a base for fanning out in Laos style to the new West Indian island nations.

Mao's partner in the Western Hemisphere is the female security and national police chief of Guiana, Mrs. Cheddi Jagan, minister for home affairs. It can be revealed that they made their pact during an undisclosed conference in Peking on the afternoon of Aug. 31, 1962. They met in the almost unvisited private office of Chairman Mao Tse-tung.

With them was Wu Hsiao-ta. He is Mao's Latin American specialist, holding the rank of deputy secretary general of the Chinese People's Institute of Foreign Affairs.

SUCH A VISIT with the all powerful leader of the Chinese Communist party is an unusual accolade in the Sino-Soviet world. Mao sees few visitors.

Apparently Mrs. Jagan, wife of the avowedly Communist Guianian prime minister, was considered of vital importance to the Peking global operation.

She is secretary general of the Marcist People's Progressive party which governs British Guiana. This is usually the position of power in a Communist apparatus. Stalin was secretary of the Soviet party. So is Khrushchev today.

As such Mrs. Jagan could pledge to Mao one objective long sought by Peking — a beachhead in the Western Hemisphere. Observers believe, therefore, she is more powerful than her prime minister husband. Since she was appointed home affairs minister she is in effect also a military commander.

Along with documented reports of her meeting with Mao came details of pledges she made to the Chinese Communist government.

Some leaders of the anti-Communist opposition to the Jagans in Georgetown, British Guiana's capital, also have learned of this secret alliance. It's one of the reasons they have declared violent civil war against the pro-Communist government.

OPPOSITION LEADERS have expressed surprise that the U.S. public is paying so little attention to the war against the Jagan government.

The anti-Communist rebels know that while in mainland China for two weeks, Mrs. Jagan met with Mao's youth leaders. She developed a plan for exchange of "students."

It would mean, if the Jagans keep power, that young Guianians would be dispatched to Peking, as Castro has been sending thousands of Cuban children and teen-agers to Prague and Moscow for three and four-year indoctrination courses.

Similar arrangements have been worked out with the All-China Federation of Youth and the All-China Federation of Students. Mrs. Jagan's contact in Peking is Wang Chao-hua, the youth federation vice chairman.

In private discussions during her visit, according to intelligence reports, Mrs. Jagan sided with the Chinese Communist "chairman" against the policies of the Soviet Communist chairman.

She expressed her approval of Mao Tse-tung's "analysis that victory in the anti-Fascist Second World War will pave the way for victory of the people's post-war struggles."

In Marxist language this means she is lining up with that end of the Sino-Soviet axis which believes in actual warfare against the United States and allied nations.

WHEN SHE ARRIVED in Peking she met with Mao's specialists in infiltrating those areas of the world in which English language nations are influential. Among them was Lin Ping, deputy director of the American and Australasian Affairs Department of the Foreign Ministry. His is a unit almost unknown in the United States.

Later she dined with another Chinese foreign office group. They were joined by Chi Caho-ting, vice president of the China-Latin American Friendship Association.

While replying to a toast from her Chinese Communist friends, Mrs. Jagan said:

"It has been my long awaited dream to see the great country of China and her heroic people. I'm glad to have the opportunity to understand the struggle of the Chinese people in the past and their construction at present. . . .

"The success of the revolution in China is an inspiration for people the world over striving for national independence. It has strengthened their confidence that they had a strong future and a strong friend."

These are the words of the most powerful Communist in the Marxist government of a land just a few hours flight from the United States — and a short speed boat trip to the small island nations which can be turned into political stepping stones between North and South America.

How To Get Into College

By Abraham H. Lass

How important do admissions oficers consider a student's extra-curricular activities?

Practically all colleges give some weight to a student's extra-curricular record. How heavily this record counts with the admissions officer depends on a number of things: the needs and standards of the individual college, the kind of extra-curricular record you present, etc.

Some colleges, seeking a "balance" in their entering classes, may at any particular point lean in the direction of a candidate with strong or unusual achievements in, let us say, music, athletics, dramatics or student government.

FOR EXAMPLE, if you played the French horn well and had a good scholastic record, good recommendations, good board screso etc., you might very well get special consideration because you could, as a member of the orchestra, contribute something special to the life of the college in addition to your personal and scholastic qualities. French horn players aren't easy to come by!

But since you will probably never be absolutely certain which college is looking for students who excel in specific areas, the best thing you can do for yourself and for whatever college you eventually go to is to take part in those extra - curricular activities that you like, that give you an opportunity to develop your talents, to contribute something to your school and community.

Don't worry about which college will like you if you play halfback or the flute. Do what you like. Do it well.

Don't overdo it. Don't spread yourself thin over too many activities. Give top priority to your studies. And don't try to outguess the admissions officers.

Will you make the grade in college?

Very likely, says Dean Congdon, of Lehigh University, if you can honestly answer "Yes" to these questions:

Can I write five consecutive paragraphs on a given topic and express myself coherently, correctly and intelligently?

Can I read an article in the Atlantic Monthly rapidly (400-500 words per minute) and understandingly and retain the main arguments clearly in mind for three days?

Do I know how to prepare successfully for examinations so that I don't become confused, panicked and ineffectual?

CAN I LISTEN to an address or lecture and note briefly the main points so that, when I've gone home, I can reconstruct the essential theme of what the lecturer said?

Can I go to the library and find quickly the reference and source books I need for preparing a paper and take the necessary notes effectively for writing an assignment on the topic?

Can I make up a budget for the daily use of my time to meet all my assignments, have a proper amount of time left for eating, sleeping and recreation and stick to that budget in spite of all the lures of the flesh and the devil?

When I have homework to do, can I settle down to it promptly and concentrate on my work at once without day-dreaming and frittering away my time?

Have I learned how to systematize? Can I put order and system into my thinking, my note taking and my outline before writing a theme, my schedule of study or my schedule of daily reviews?

Youth Injured In Swimming

A city youth injured in a fall from a ladder while swimming was admitted to City Hospital where six other persons, including three injured while working, were treated Thursday and early today.

Jack Havice, 12, son of Jack Havice of Crawford Rd. was in "good" condition today with a fractured left wrist suffered when he fell from a ladder while swimming at Little Rock Lake near Glenmoor. He was admitted yesterday at 3 p.m.

Richard Keesor, 31, of Belpre suffered a severe contusion of the right foot and ankle when caught in a concrete machine while working for the Great Lakes Construction Co. on the California Hollow freeway project.

Robert Parsons, 18, of 1015 Claiborne Ave. was burned on the left hand with hot tar while working at the T-K Roofing Manufacturing Co. at Chester early this morning.

Harold M. Cantwell, 6, son of James Cantwell of Harvard Ave., Glenmoor, cut his left knee when he fell while playing Wednesday night.

Catherine A. Watkins, 8, daughter of Harry Watkins of Homestead Ave., LaCroft, suffered a laceration of the knee in a fall from a bicycle.

Mrs. Rose Black of Maple Dr., Calcutta, cut the palm of her left hand on a tin can.

Suit Seeks $97,183 For Fouled Gasoline

A suit for $97,183.22, claiming personal injuries and damages, was filed in Common Pleas Court Thursday at Lisbon by Clarence Lock of Cleveland, who blames fouled gasoline for disabling his truck and indirectly causing a wreck in which he was hurt.

Jack Jones of Columbiana and Robert T. McDaniels of Broadview Circle, East Liverpool, doing business as Gaughn's Service Station at the junction of Routes 7 and 14, and the Lyden Oil Co. of Youngstown, were named defendants.

Lock claims in his petition that on Oct. 11, 1961, he purchased 36 gallons of gasoline at Gaughn's and his truck engine became fouled and stalled. He asks $4,136.51 for this damage.

On May 22, 1962, he was traveling near Canton, and his truck stalled and drifted backwards off the highway, jack-knifing and pinning him under the dashboard. He asks $90,000 for personal injuries and $3,046.41 damages to the truck. He alleges all this was due to his purchase of the contaminated gasoline.

Motorist Uninjured When Auto Rolls Over

Donald G. Brooks, 25, of Kensington R.D. 1 escaped injury when his car rolled over on Route 30 two and a half miles east of Route 9 Thursday at 1:15 a.m.

The Lisbon State Highway Patrol discovered the wrecked vehicle early yesterday morning but the driver was not present. He came in later and reported the accident, officers said.

Brooks told the patrol he went off the right side of the highway, struck a post, ran up an embankment and then rolled back down into a ditch.

Utah Man, 32, New President Of U.S. Jaycees

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Dick Headlee assumed the presidency of the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce today on the heels of a Jaycee award winner's charge that its leadership was "gutless" on the civil rights question.

Headlee, 32, a quiet-spoken man from Bountiful, Utah, won the presidency early today after a tumultous and wearying election.

A stormy note created by the Rev. Robert Castle Jr., on the rights question, continued in the mood of the convention which went through five ballots before Headlee won.

The election was the windup of the convention. Headlee, his wife and seven children now move to the organization's "White House" at Tulsa, Okla., where he will direct the 200,000-plus member group. Headlee, a Jaycee since 1958, is an account executive with Burroughs Corp.

Castle of Jersey City, N.J., was chosen one of 1962's ten outstanding young men by the Jaycees. He said he came to Louisville to try to have presented to the convention a petition offered by the 10 honorees that urged Jaycees to take specific steps toward better race relations.

Fireman Quells Flames In Auto, His Own, That Is

A meeting of the Tri - State Firemen's Association Thursday night at Wellsville got off to an "appropriate" start with a fire.

Just as the meeting was to convene, fire broke out in an auto at 8th and Main Sts. And it was owned by William Haugh, one of the Wellsville firemen attending the meeting.

The blaze was caused by a short in the wiring in the area of the dashboard and the flames spread to the motor, burning the carburetor.

The car was being driven by Haugh's nephew. Haugh quelled the blaze with an extinguisher from the fire station.

Twenty-five attended the meeting of the firemen's association. Norman Neal of Calcutta, president, was in charge. The group decided to skip the July and August meetings.

Next session will be in September at the Ohioville department, but no definite date has been set. Future meetings will be marked by equipment demonstrations by host departments, the association said.

Postal Staff To Picnic

'Letter Carrier Week' Proclaimed By Mayor

To commemorate the 100th anniversary of the start of city mail delivery service in the United States on July 1, 1863, Mayor Bert H. Goodballet has proclaimed the week starting Monday as "Letter Carrier Week" in East Liverpool.

He urged all residents to recognize the letter carriers for their dedicated service. Twenty - four of the 25 carriers at the East Liverpool office are members of Branch 577, National Association of Letter Carriers.

To help celebrate the occasion, all employes of the East Liverpool office and their families and retired workers and their families will hold a picnic Sunday, July 7, at the lower pavilion in Thompson Park.

The picnic will begin at 1:30 p. m. with swimming, games, contests, sports, a checker tournament and a father-sons softball game. Dinner will be served at 4:30 p. m. with the food being provided. William Anthony is general chairman.

Montgomery Blair, Lincoln's postmaster general, generally is regarded as the "father" of free city delivery but an Ohioan was responsible for the idea.

Joseph W. Briggs, an assistant postmaster in Cleveland, noticed during the winter of 1862-63 how women suffered in the cold for hours while standing in line to receive letters from husbands and sweethearts at Civil War camps. It was at a time when everyone was required to go to the post office to pick up mail at the delivery window or at special boxes.

Briggs suggested the idea of sorting the mail and taking it to grocery stores in various parts of the city where it could be distributed to those living in the immediate vicinity, saving them a long trip downtown and waiting in the cold.

The plan was so successful that Mr. Briggs went a step farther and suggested uniformed postal employes deliver the mail at the homes of the people to whom it was addressed.

However, the delivery suggestion ran into much opposition but finally on March 3, 1863, Congress passed a bill authorizing city free delivery, effective July 1.

Briggs, who designed the first uniform worn by the carriers, was appointed by Postmaster General Blair as a special agent for supervision of the free delivery system. He organized the system in 49 cities with 449 carriers, from Bangor, Maine, to San Francisco.

City delivery service in East Liverpool was inaugurated Oct. 1, 1889.

Kiwanis Told Of Fete

Sham Battle Planners Expect 40,000 Crowd

More than 40,000 people, a figure which he termed "conservative," are expected to witness a sham battle in the vicinity of the Morgan Monument on Route 518 near West Point on July 28 in the centennial commemoration of Gen. John Hunt Morgan's raid and capture, Edwin V. Pugh of Wellsville, chairman of the centennial observance, told the Kiwanis Club Thursday afternoon at the Travelers Hotel.

The sham battle will get under way at 2 p. m. rain or shine, Pugh said, with some 600 troops from Arkansas, Tennessee, Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Kentucky along with the Confederate High Command headed by Gen. Donald Ramsey of Nashville, Tenn., participating.

Both infantry and cavalry units will participate and the Confederate charge will be led by "Jeb" Stuart impersonated by Dr. M. R. Kirkpatrick of Hanover, Pa.

Dr. Kirkpatrick, who will bring his own company with him, has invested a considerable amount of money to portray the dashing Confederate officer. "He would be worth the price of admission alone, but no admission fee will be charged," Pugh commented.

The only fee will be for parking in large designated areas. Route 518 and the roadside park where the Morgan Monument is located will be closed for the day.

The sham battle will be fought over three farms and will be coordinated by the Ohio Boys in Blue sponsored by the Sons of Union Veterans. Over 50 cannons are expected to be used in the battle.

The logistics in connection with the operation have required much planning since refreshments, medical and toilet facilities must be provided for the spectators, he said.

In addition, the 600 soldiers will be camped on one of the farms and food, water, firewood, hospital and toilet facilities must be provided for them.

Preceding the sham battle, Rebecca Griscom Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will present a flag, Pugh said.

Many of the visiting troops also are expected to participate in a horseback ride covering Morgan's route from Salineville to West Point on Saturday, July 27. The ride will cover 20½ miles but only three miles will be on hard-surfaced roads.

The horseback ride will be open to any riders in the area. Uniform are optional but blue or gray is preferred, Pugh said. Twenty - eight participated in a similar trek last year "but we hope to have lots more this year."

Following the ride, the visitors will head for Wellsville where a parade and an outdoor centennial ball will be held on Saturday night, Pugh said.

Local 172, American Federation of Musicians, will present a concert from 7 to 9 p. m. and two orchestras will provide music for round and square dancing from 9 to midnight on Broadway at 5th St.

Pugh reviewed Morgan's raid from its start in Kentucky to Monroeville near Salineville where two members of his band were fatally wounded.

They died on the porch of a nearby farm home which still stands and were buried in West Grove Cemetery. A monument erected by the old Morning Tribune, a predecessor of The Review, marks their grave.

A Confederate flag is available for the grave and Pugh said the committee also hopes to secure a Confederate marker.

Pugh stressed the events will be a commemoration of the raid and not a celebration.

A sham battle and parade are planned in Salem on July 26 and a week-long observance ending on July 27 is scheduled in Lisbon, he said.

Pugh was introduced by John N. Mostoller, program chairman. Merrill Hall, president, presided.

Wellsville Pastor Given Farewell

The Rev. William A. Hewitt was given a farewell party Wednesday night in the Central Methodist Church marking the conclusion of five years' pastoral duties with the Wellsville congregation. He will go to Newcomerstown.

The singing of the hymn, "This Is My Father's World," opened the gathering attended by 100. Mrs. Natalie Lewis gave the welcome and Mrs. Betty Smith led devotions on the theme, "God's World." Earl Speerhas offered prayer and Leroy Geisse presented the honor guest, who was given a chair as a token of appreciation.

The program with Mrs. Natalie Lewis and Mrs. Smith in charge included vocal solo, Mrs. Frances Santimarino; selections, chancel Choir under direction of Karen Malone; vocal solo, Mrs. Carol Partlow; vocal duet, Gary Smith and Pat Mason; poem written by Mrs. Leona Bissman and read by Mrs. Donna Nusser; vocal solo, Mrs. Gladys Lewis; reading, Mrs. Natalie Lewis; remarks, Rev. Hewitt, and closing prayer, Walter Hermand. Refreshments were served in the dining-room by Mrs. Anna Dickey and Mrs. Bernice Newton and committee.

Plunges To Death

WAVERLY, Ohio (AP)—Shirley Slagle, one of the 2-year-old Slagle triplets, plunged to her death Thursday in a well at the family's home near here.

Memorial Rites Set

TIFFIN, Ohio (AP)—Memorial services will be held in Trinity Episcopal Church Saturday for John Harold Thompson, 66, editor of the Tiffin Advertiser-Tribune for the last 30 years. He died Thursday in a hospital at nearby Green Springs where he had been a patient for 10 days.

Mrs. J. E. Hall Given Post In Tri-State Music Group

Mrs. Joseph E. Hall was named executive secretary of the Tri-State Area Civic Music Association at the board meeting Thursday night in the conference room of WOHI.

A resident of Michigan Ave., she has been active in many city campaigns. She serves in various capacities at the Boyce Methodist Church, of which she is a member. She will assume her duties this summer in preparation for the fall campaign beginning Sept. 16 with the kickoff dinner scheduled Sept. 20 at the Travelers Hotel.

Miss Luella Thompson, president, presided. The Rev. Russell Mase, chairman of the bylaws committee, distributed copies of the revised constitution, following which a motion was passed that they be adopted. He was assisted in the project by Joe Coons and Mrs. Herbert Plotts.

The group was advised that two of the scheduled artists were not able to appear on the set dates and one was canceled because the artist would be in Europe, so the board moved that a temporary talent committee be appointed. Given full authority to complete the schedule were Ernest Lowe, chairman, Vincent Maola, Paul Blair, Mrs. Myer Alpern and Mrs. Plotts.

A discussion was held on the selection of a campaign manager and following the submission of several names, Coons, Rev. Mase and Lowe were named to the committee to contact the suggested persons.

Mentioned under the promotion of public relations, was the publishing of a newsletter and an open meeting during intermission of one of the concerts.

Others present were Dr. C. M. Mayberry, Miss Arletta Helfrich, Mrs. William Porter, Mrs. Burchfield Cartwright and Mrs. Lester Hall.

Members will receive notice of the next meeting.

'Letter Carrier Week' Proclaimed By Mayor

To commemorate the 100th anniversary of the start of city mail delivery service in the United States on July 1, 1863, Mayor Bert H. Goodballet has proclaimed the week starting Monday as "Letter Carrier Week" in East Liverpool.

He urged all residents to recognize the letter carriers for their dedicated service. Twenty - four of the 25 carriers at the East Liverpool office are members of Branch 577, National Association of Letter Carriers.

To help celebrate the occasion, all employes of the East Liverpool office and their families and retired workers and their families will hold a picnic Sunday, July 7, at the lower pavilion in Thompson Park.

The picnic will begin at 1:30 p. m. with swimming, games, contests, sports, a checker tournament and a father-sons softball game. Dinner will be served at 4:30 p. m. with the food being provided. William Anthony is general chairman.

Montgomery Blair, Lincoln's postmaster general, generally is regarded as the "father" of free city delivery but an Ohioan was responsible for the idea.

Joseph W. Briggs, an assistant postmaster in Cleveland, noticed during the winter of 1862-63 how women suffered in the cold for hours while standing in line to receive letters from husbands and sweethearts at Civil War camps. It was at a time when everyone was required to go to the post office to pick up mail at the delivery window or at special boxes.

Briggs suggested the idea of sorting the mail and taking it to grocery stores in various parts of the city where it could be distributed to those living in the immediate vicinity, saving them a long trip downtown and waiting in the cold.

The plan was so successful that Mr. Briggs went a step farther and suggested uniformed postal employes deliver the mail at the homes of the people to whom it was addressed.

However, the delivery suggestion ran into much opposition but finally on March 3, 1863, Congress passed a bill authorizing city free delivery, effective July 1.

Briggs, who designed the first uniform worn by the carriers, was appointed by Postmaster General Blair as a special agent for supervision of the free delivery system. He organized the system in 49 cities with 449 carriers, from Bangor, Maine, to San Francisco.

City delivery service in East Liverpool was inaugurated Oct. 1, 1889.

Kiwanis Told Of Fete

Sham Battle Planners Expect 40,000 Crowd

More than 40,000 people, a figure which he termed "conservative," are expected to witness a sham battle in the vicinity of the Morgan Monument on Route 518 near West Point on July 28 in the centennial commemoration of Gen. John Hunt Morgan's raid and capture, Edwin V. Pugh of Wellsville, chairman of the centennial observance, told the Kiwanis Club Thursday afternoon at the Travelers Hotel.

The sham battle will get under way at 2 p. m. rain or shine, Pugh said, with some 600 troops from Arkansas, Tennessee, Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Kentucky along with the Confederate High Command headed by Gen. Donald Ramsey of Nashville, Tenn., participating.

Both infantry and cavalry units will participate and the Confederate charge will be led by "Jeb" Stuart impersonated by Dr. M. R. Kirkpatrick of Hanover, Pa.

Dr. Kirkpatrick, who will bring his own company with him, has invested a considerable amount of money to portray the dashing Confederate officer. "He would be worth the price of admission alone, but no admission fee will be charged," Pugh commented.

The only fee will be for parking in large designated areas. Route 518 and the roadside park where the Morgan Monument is located will be closed for the day.

The sham battle will be fought over three farms and will be coordinated by the Ohio Boys in Blue sponsored by the Sons of Union Veterans. Over 50 cannons are expected to be used in the battle.

The logistics in connection with the operation have required much planning since refreshments, medical and toilet facilities must be provided for the spectators, he said.

In addition, the 600 soldiers will be camped on one of the farms and food, water, firewood, hospital and toilet facilities must be provided for them.

Preceding the sham battle, Rebecca Griscom Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will present a flag, Pugh said.

Many of the visiting troops also are expected to participate in a horseback ride covering Morgan's route from Salineville to West Point on Saturday, July 27. The ride will cover 20½ miles but only three miles will be on hard-surfaced roads.

The horseback ride will be open to any riders in the area. Uniform are optional but blue or gray is preferred, Pugh said. Twenty - eight participated in a similar trek last year "but we hope to have lots more this year."

Following the ride, the visitors will head for Wellsville where a parade and an outdoor centennial ball will be held on Saturday night, Pugh said.

Local 172, American Federation of Musicians, will present a concert from 7 to 9 p. m. and two orchestras will provide music for round and square dancing from 9 to midnight on Broadway at 5th St.

Pugh reviewed Morgan's raid from its start in Kentucky to Monroeville near Salineville where two members of his band were fatally wounded.

They died on the porch of a nearby farm home which still stands and were buried in West Grove Cemetery. A monument erected by the old Morning Tribune, a predecessor of The Review, marks their grave.

A Confederate flag is available for the grave and Pugh said the committee also hopes to secure a Confederate marker.

Pugh stressed the events will be a commemoration of the raid and not a celebration.

A sham battle and parade are planned in Salem on July 26 and a week-long observance ending on July 27 is scheduled in Lisbon, he said.

Pugh was introduced by John N. Mostoller, program chairman. Merrill Hall, president, presided.

Wellsville Pastor Given Farewell

The Rev. William A. Hewitt was given a farewell party Wednesday night in the Central Methodist Church marking the conclusion of five years' pastoral duties with the Wellsville congregation. He will go to Newcomerstown.

The singing of the hymn, "This Is My Father's World," opened the gathering attended by 100. Mrs. Natalie Lewis gave the welcome and Mrs. Betty Smith led devotions on the theme, "God's World." Earl Speerhas offered prayer and Leroy Geisse presented the honor guest, who was given a chair as a token of appreciation.

The program with Mrs. Natalie Lewis and Mrs. Smith in charge included vocal solo, Mrs. Frances Santimarino; selections, chancel Choir under direction of Karen Malone; vocal solo, Mrs. Carol Partlow; vocal duet, Gary Smith and Pat Mason; poem written by Mrs. Leona Bissman and read by Mrs. Donna Nusser; vocal solo, Mrs. Gladys Lewis; reading, Mrs. Natalie Lewis; remarks, Rev. Hewitt, and closing prayer, Walter Hermand. Refreshments were served in the dining-room by Mrs. Anna Dickey and Mrs. Bernice Newton and committee.

Officers Are Installed By Chester Lions Club

Sayre W. Graham of 521 Georgia Ave., a building contractor, was installed as president of the Chester Lions Club to succeed Charles F. Mansfield during the annual installation and Ladies' Night program attended by 67 members and guests Thursday night in the American Legion Post 121 home.

Robert Upton of the Elm Grove club, international counselor, seated the slate that also included Clayton Hobbs Jr., first vice president; Anthony Tridico, second vice president; Robert Cain, third vice president; Edward Loos, secretary; Donald McAvoy, treasurer; Jerry D'Angelo, tail-twister; Lester Smith, lion tamer, and Dr. J. M. Brand and Anthony Tridico, directors.

Dinner was served by the Chester volunteer firemen. Guests included district governor-elect and Mrs. Orien C. Creek of District 29-L, a member of the Grant-Jefferson Club near St. Marys; Mrs. Millie Upton, wife of the installing officer; Zack Springer of Valley Grove club, international counselor, and his wife; George McCullough of East Liverpool, governor of District 13 I; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yonz of East Liverpool, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jordan of Beaver Falls, Mrs. Gae Jordan of Beaver Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Logston and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brenneman of Newell, and Miss Virginia V. Carpenter of Kingston, R.I.

Deputy Rex Cowey of the Hancock County sheriff's office served gag warrants on several of the dignitaries, charging them with various violations of the Lions' constitution and by-laws.

Entertainment featured a style show and "shot gun wedding" presented by 12 members of the Valley Grove club. Mrs. Upton provided special music. Souvenir gifts were provided everyone by several Chester business establishments.

Walter L. Jordan was program chairman.

In his final remarks to the club as president, Mansfield summed up the major activities during the year.

They included a light bulb sale, Christmas tree sale, broom sale, carnival and home show, providing Christmas baskets for the needy, erecting a nativity scene, providing benches for the community sidewalks and street markers, donating eyeglasses for many needy school children, entering the winning float in the fireman's parade and improving the building in Chester Community Park.

Graham, in accepting the president's gavel, pledged his "best efforts" to continue the club's broad program of community service. There are 37 members.

Table decorations of potted plants were provided by Mrs. Jordan.

Health Board Airs Reports

Reports from the sanitation officer, dog warden and city and school nurse were heard at a meeting of the Wellsville Board of Health Thursday night at City Hall.

The water drain at the pump at Hammond Park was clogged this week. The pump also was not operating property. The matter was referred to Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare, who had city workmen pull the pump. A hole was found in the piping.

The drain will be opened. Mrs. Jean Tipton, nurse, reported on the polio immunizations pre-school clinics.

There were 103 stray dogs picked up the past month, according to the report of William Long, dog warden, who is back on the job part-time after suffering a heart attack about two months ago.

John H. Grafton, chairman, presided. Next meeting is July 25.

They Got Together

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Johnnie Adams sent two of his delivery trucks on runs to separate sections of the city recently. An hour later he got a telephone call from police. The trucks collided headon, causing considerable damage to both.

Zone Aide Seats Lions At Lisbon

LISBON — Dr. John M. Snively of Minerva, junior district deputy governor, installed officers of the Lions Club Wednesday evening at the club cottage.

Seated for terms beginning Monday were:

John Varner, president; Charles Bush, vice president; John Eaholtz, second vice president; William Hiscox Jr., third vice president; Kenneth Everett, treasurer; Carroll Joseph, secretary; Raymond Wilson, tail twister; Mervin Stark, Lion Tamer, and Charles Hill, James Horger, Harry Longanecker and Harry Morris, directors.

Varner, in behalf of the club, presented a gift and past president's pin to Dean Senanefes, retiring president.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilson and sons furnished music for the Ladies Night dinner program. Prizes went to Mrs. James Horger, Mrs. John Varner, Mrs. Harry Morris, Mrs. Paul Mitchell, Miss Kathryn Senanefes and Bush.

The Topeka Crawl

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Police cruisers were notified early one morning that two men were crawling across the floor of the Topeka Savings Assn. carrying tools. The officers converged quickly at the building and took stations at all exits. After a quick check, though, they let workmen continue to lay new flooring.

Householders Get Reminder On Rules For Refuse Pickup

Some householders have strayed from long-standing rules of the incinerator department covering the types of refuse that will be hauled free by the city and others have failed to maintin their garbage cans in proper condition, posing a health hazard, Supt. John Melvin said today as he issued a reminder on the regulations.

Although lawn trimmings, tree limbs, brush and other such items of trash were hauled away during the annual two-week spring cleanup, the incinerator department does not pick up such refuse as a general rule, Melvin pointed out.

The list of items the incinerator will haul away as trash still is limited to bottles, cans, ashes and bundled stacks of rags and papers, the superintendent said.

Persons who did not put out lawn trimmings, tree limbs, brush and other such items during the cleanup will have to make their own arrangements for having them hauled away, the superintendent said.

Melvin pointed out the department must adhere to its rules because deviations would mean loss of time that might throw the collection trucks behind schedule.

Turning to the question of garbage cans, he said some of the containers now in use at households "are extremely hazardous" because their bottoms are missing or full of holes.

When an incinerator department employe picks up one of the faulty cans to empty it, he is liable to be covered with disease-laden moisture that spills from inside the container, Melvin said. In addition, there is a possibility the employe will be cut by rusty metal, he added.

"This condition must be corrected, because the men will not continue to pick up garbage stored in improper containers," Melvin said.

He added that Health Commissioner Septimus Cook told him the leaky containers should be replaced. The faulty containers pose a health problem that might lead to investigation by the Health Department, Melvin said.

Melvin also warned that trash and garbage should be kept in separate containers. Trash should be placed at the curb or property line the night before a scheduled collection — a rule that has been in effect many years, he added.

"We will appreciate the public's co-operation in observing these rules, as it will allow the incinerator department to perform its job more rapidly and safely," Melvin said. "Our first aim always is to give prompt, efficient service to the tax-payers."

Departing Minister Honored By 95 At Salineville Program

About 95 attended a farewell dinner honoring the Rev. James McCollam of the Salineville Calvary United Presbyterian Church and his family Wednesday night at the church.

Rev. McCollam, who has been pastor of the Salineville church for four years, has accepted the pastorate of the Oak Ridge and Yellow Creek churches. He will assume his duties July 14, when he will be installed at the Oak Ridge church.

A program followed the dinner, directed by Mrs. Maude Haverfield. Karl Lindner, representing the Session; Martin Adams, the trustees, and Mrs. Martha Boyd, the Women's Association, gave remarks.

Mrs. Boyd, on behalf of the congregation, presented Rev. and Mrs. McCollam with a reclining chair and rocker.

Vocal solos were sung by Mrs. Kaye Lindner Nightingale, Mrs. Barbara Bettis and Miss Diane Adams, accompanied by Miss Lois McCollam and Mrs. Charles Temple. Duets were sung by Mrs. Janice Allmon and Mrs. Jeanne Smith, Mrs. Marilyn Solak and Mrs. Barbara Bettis and Mrs. Lena Hazel and Mrs. Elma Hazel, accompanied by Mrs. Lena Hazel.

The Colonials Male Quartet of East Liverpool, under the direction of James Raffle, presented several selections.

The program also featured an original skit, "Reasons for Excuses." Participants included Mrs. Haverfield, Mrs. Karl Lindner, Mrs. Robert Cole, Mrs. S. C. Daley, Mrs. George Hazlett, Mrs. Gerald Johnson, Mrs. Janice Allmon and Mrs. Jeanne Smith.

Readings and group singing also were featured.

Public Dances Slated By Junior Fair Board

LISBON — Plans for public dances were made when nine members of the Columbiana County Junior Fair Board met Thursday evening in the county extension office. Robert Hippely, president, presided.

The group will hold round and square dances in the Floral Hall at the Fairgrounds July 12 and Aug. 2, with Vince Andrulis calling. The group also will hold a bake sale at the dances, to raise money to provide benches and litter cans at the Fair Grounds.

Next meeting is July 11, a cleanup session at the Fair Grounds for the dance.

The Topeka Crawl

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Police cruisers were notified early one morning that two men were crawling across the floor of the Topeka Savings Assn. carrying tools. The officers converged quickly at the building and took stations at all exits. After a quick check, though, they let workmen continue to lay new flooring.

Householders Get Reminder On Rules For Refuse Pickup

Some householders have strayed from long-standing rules of the incinerator department covering the types of refuse that will be hauled free by the city and others have failed to maintin their garbage cans in proper condition, posing a health hazard, Supt. John Melvin said today as he issued a reminder on the regulations.

Although lawn trimmings, tree limbs, brush and other such items of trash were hauled away during the annual two-week spring cleanup, the incinerator department does not pick up such refuse as a general rule, Melvin pointed out.

The list of items the incinerator will haul away as trash still is limited to bottles, cans, ashes and bundled stacks of rags and papers, the superintendent said.

Persons who did not put out lawn trimmings, tree limbs, brush and other such items during the cleanup will have to make their own arrangements for having them hauled away, the superintendent said.

Melvin pointed out the department must adhere to its rules because deviations would mean loss of time that might throw the collection trucks behind schedule.

Turning to the question of garbage cans, he said some of the containers now in use at households "are extremely hazardous" because their bottoms are missing or full of holes.

When an incinerator department employe picks up one of the faulty cans to empty it, he is liable to be covered with disease-laden moisture that spills from inside the container, Melvin said. In addition, there is a possibility the employe will be cut by rusty metal, he added.

"This condition must be corrected, because the men will not continue to pick up garbage stored in improper containers," Melvin said.

He added that Health Commissioner Septimus Cook told him the leaky containers should be replaced. The faulty containers pose a health problem that might lead to investigation by the Health Department, Melvin said.

Melvin also warned that trash and garbage should be kept in separate containers. Trash should be placed at the curb or property line the night before a scheduled collection — a rule that has been in effect many years, he added.

"We will appreciate the public's co-operation in observing these rules, as it will allow the incinerator department to perform its job more rapidly and safely," Melvin said. "Our first aim always is to give prompt, efficient service to the tax-payers."

Departing Minister Honored By 95 At Salineville Program

About 95 attended a farewell dinner honoring the Rev. James McCollam of the Salineville Calvary United Presbyterian Church and his family Wednesday night at the church.

Rev. McCollam, who has been pastor of the Salineville church for four years, has accepted the pastorate of the Oak Ridge and Yellow Creek churches. He will assume his duties July 14, when he will be installed at the Oak Ridge church.

A program followed the dinner, directed by Mrs. Maude Haverfield. Karl Lindner, representing the Session; Martin Adams, the trustees, and Mrs. Martha Boyd, the Women's Association, gave remarks.

Mrs. Boyd, on behalf of the congregation, presented Rev. and Mrs. McCollam with a reclining chair and rocker.

Vocal solos were sung by Mrs. Kaye Lindner Nightingale, Mrs. Barbara Bettis and Miss Diane Adams, accompanied by Miss Lois McCollam and Mrs. Charles Temple. Duets were sung by Mrs. Janice Allmon and Mrs. Jeanne Smith, Mrs. Marilyn Solak and Mrs. Barbara Bettis and Mrs. Lena Hazel and Mrs. Elma Hazel, accompanied by Mrs. Lena Hazel.

The Colonials Male Quartet of East Liverpool, under the direction of James Raffle, presented several selections.

The program also featured an original skit, "Reasons for Excuses." Participants included Mrs. Haverfield, Mrs. Karl Lindner, Mrs. Robert Cole, Mrs. S. C. Daley, Mrs. George Hazlett, Mrs. Gerald Johnson, Mrs. Janice Allmon and Mrs. Jeanne Smith.

Readings and group singing also were featured.

Public Dances Slated By Junior Fair Board

LISBON — Plans for public dances were made when nine members of the Columbiana County Junior Fair Board met Thursday evening in the county extension office. Robert Hippely, president, presided.

The group will hold round and square dances in the Floral Hall at the Fairgrounds July 12 and Aug. 2, with Vince Andrulis calling. The group also will hold a bake sale at the dances, to raise money to provide benches and litter cans at the Fair Grounds.

Next meeting is July 11, a cleanup session at the Fair Grounds for the dance.

Miss Marilyn P. Sweeney, Ray Slagle Exchange Vows

Miss Marilyn Pauline Sweeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweeney of Salineville, became the bride of Ray Slagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Slagle of Minerva, the morning of June 15 at 11:30 o'clock in St. Patrick's Catholic Church of Salineville.

Fr. Wallace W. Kosin, pastor, officiated for the double - ring ceremony before an altar background of white lilies. Miss Myrtle Strabley presented a half hour of organ music. John Doyle sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" as the bride placed a bouquet before the statue of the Blessed Mother.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and bridal satin. A scalloped neckline and long, pointed sleeves highlighted the fitted bodice, and two tiers formed the bouffant skirt.

Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls and sequins. She wore gold and turquoise earrings and necklace, gifts of the bridegroom. She carried a white prayerbook topped with white carnations and streamers.

Mrs. Mildred Sweeney, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a dress of tearose pink nylon and lace. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ruth Ann Drugan, Mrs. Evaline Madison, Miss Karen Slagle and Miss Paula Slagle. Their dresses were in aqua. All wore matching headpieces and veils and carried Colonial bouquets of carnations, tinted to match their dresses. Necklaces, gifts of the bride, completed their attire.

Paul Slagle served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Don Slagle, Glenn Madison, Jack Sweeney and Ricky Slagle.

Tina Madison, Julie Slagle and Lori Slagle were flower girls and wore aqua dresses with matching floral headpieces. They carried baskets of tinted mums. Kanute Drugan and Dale Slagle, nephews of the bridegroom, were ringbearers.

The bride's mother chose a beige nylon dress and the bridegroom's mother, blue and white. Both had matching accessories and white carnation corsages.

MRS. RAY SLAGLE

Lisbon Couple's Wedding Held At Methodist Church

LISBON — Miss Janice Ann Apple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Apple of Hutton Rd., became the bride of Charles Kent Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidt of N. Market St., Saturday afternoon in the First Methodist Church.

The double-ring ceremony at 4 o'clock, with the Rev. Chalmer Cope officiating, followed a half hour of nuptial music with Mrs. Vernon Duke at the organ.

Two sets of seven-branch candelabra, on either side, lighted the altar, which was banked with palms and baskets of white feather chrysanthemums and gladiolus. Vases of gladiolus and mums added to the setting. White satin bows marked the pews of the bridal aisle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's gown of white brocade satin was fashioned with a Basque bodice, scooped neckline and long, pointed sleeves.

The bell-shaped skirt of street length had a large bustle bow in the back. A crown of pearls with points of aurora crystals held her veil of French illusion and she wore a string of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. She carried a shower bouquet of stephanotis and four white orchids.

Mrs. Mark Arnold of Lisbon, matron of honor, wore a rose silk princess dress. Sleeveless, it was designed with a paneled skirt and jewel neckline. Her bouquet was of pink roses.

Mark Arnold was best man and ushers were Michael Battle of Akron and Robert Cosma of Salem, school friends of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother chose a dress of dusty rose crepe with a matching lace bodice and jacket and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a dress of hot pink silk with a lace and chiffon overskirt and white accessories. Their corsages were of pink roses.

A reception followed in the fellowship room of the church.

The bride's table, covered with a pink cloth, had a pink net overlay caught in swag effect by pink bows. Pink and white daisies and ivy encircled the four-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bridal pair, which centered the table, lighted by tall tapers in crystal.

Miss June Apple, sister of the bride, and Miss Janice Schmidt, sister of the bridegroom, poured. Mrs. Robert Cosma cut the cake.

Miss Linda Jones of Lancester, Ohio, registered 75 guests from Cleveland, Warren, Salem, East Liverpool, Akron, Irondale, Sebring and Lisbon.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of David Anderson High School and is a secretary at the Heim Sheet Metal Co.

The bridegroom, a 1961 graduate, works at the American Vitrified Products Co. in East Liverpool.

For a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and Canada, the bride wore a white linen suit dress with an orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds are staying temporarily with her parents before going to Arizona to reside. Schmidt will begin training as a plumber.

A rehearsal party was held Friday evening at the Holiday Inn of Youngstown, when gifts were presented the attendants.

MISS CAROLE MUENSTER
She'll Be Wed On July 6.

Carole Muenster To Become Bride Of Thomas Geon

Announcement has been made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Carole Jean Muenster, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Muenster of East Liverpool, to Pfc. Thomas Geon, son of Francis T. Geon of McKinnon Ave., and the late Mrs. Laura Crabtree Geon.

The wedding will take place the morning of July 6 at 11 o'clock at St. Aloysius Catholic Church. A reception will be held from 1 to 4 in the afternoon at the K. of C. Hall.

Both are graduates of East Liverpool High School, the bride-elect in 1960 and her fiance in 1957. She is employed with the National Capital Bank at Washington.

Pfc. Geon attended Duquesne University and is stationed with the Army at Ft. McNair in Washington.

Monte-Lockhart Mass Conducted At St. Aloysius

Wedding vows were exchanged by Mrs. Alice Scott Lockhart and John Monte the morning of June 22 at 10 o'clock with Fr. Joseph Bennett, assistant pastor, officiating for the double-ring ceremony at a Nuptial Mass at St. Aloysius Catholic Church. Mrs. James O'Reilly was organist and soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Scott of Northside Ave., and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Monte of Commerce St., Wellsville.

The bride wore a sheath of white lace over pink with matching accessories, and half hat and theater veil. She carried a white prayerbook, topped with carnations and roses, and observed the traditions.

Miss Nancy Beth Musuraca of Alexandria, Va., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a white dress with gold accessories. Her Colonial bouquet featured pastel flowers. A rhinestone pendant necklace was her gift from the bride.

John Prezzia was best man and received a tie pin from the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride wore pink with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother was attired in mint green with black accessories. Both had pink rosebud corsages.

A wedding breakfast was served for the bridal party and immediate families at the Travelers Hotel. A reception for 150 followed in the evening at the K. of C. Hall in Wellsville. A four-tier cake centered the buffet table.

Aides were Mrs. Violet Buracchio, Mrs. Lena DeGreccio, Mrs. Tillie Efrotti, Mrs. Virginia Schultz and Mrs. Dorothy Durbin.

Guests were from Mineral Ridge, Weirton, Negley and Youngstown.

Following a honeymoon at Cedar Point, the newlyweds will reside at 666 Green Ln. The bride is employed at the Homer Laughlin China Co. and her husband at the Crucible Steel Co. at Midland.

4,400 Will Share $1 Million At Kaiser

FONTANA, Calif. (AP)—In the month of May, automation saved $1,080,000 for the Kaiser Steel Corp. Because of this, the firm announced Thursday, 4,400 workers will share $339,000.

Kaiser and the United Steelworkers of America last year worked out a profit-sharing plan designed to offset the problems of automation. Under the scheme union employes get back 32.5 per cent of any savings in steel production costs.

Model Missile Firing Ok 3rd Straight Time

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The third straight successful launching of an early Wing 2 model of the Minuteman missile has opened the way for the first test firing of what the Air Force terms the "all-up" Wing 2 missile.

The early model propelled an instrumented nose cone more than 4,000 miles Thursday night after darting out of an underground launching pit. The intercontinental range missile tested many components designed for the all-up Wing 2, which is being developed for greater range, payload and accuracy than the operational Wing 1 Minuteman.

Twenty of the 33 men who have served as President have been college graduates.

Midland Group Plans Picnic For Sunday School

Plans were outlined for a picnic for the Sunday School children at a meeting of the Mothers Club of the St. George Serbian Orthodox Church of Midland Thursday night at the church lyceum. Mrs. Dorothy Dragovich, president, presided.

The picnic will be held July 26 at Kennywood Park, Pittsburgh. Reservations are to be made by July 15 with Mrs. Nick Vosovic at 774-6214.

Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. Members of the club must have dues paid to attend.

Plans were also completed for summer camp for the children July 28 at Shadyland, Pa.

The club made a donation to the St. Vladimir Seminary at Tuckahoe, N. Y.

A report was given on the annual closing exercise of the Sunday School last Sunday. Mrs. Anna Nadelkov and Mrs. George Smith were in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. Mildred Drakulich won the 125 Club prize and Mrs. Mary Felekey won a special prize.

The secretary's report was given by Mrs. Vosovic in the absence of Mrs. Nick Vranes.

Next meeting is July 25.

WVU Junior Chosen W. Va. Dairy Princess

CHARLESTON (AP) — Miss Donnis Rexroad, a 20-year-old junior at West Virginia University, was chosen Thursday as the 1963 West Virginia Dairy Princess.

Midland Group Plans Picnic For Sunday School

Plans were outlined for a picnic for the Sunday School children at a meeting of the Mothers Club of the St. George Serbian Orthodox Church of Midland Thursday night at the church lyceum. Mrs. Dorothy Dragovich, president, presided.

The picnic will be held July 26 at Kennywood Park, Pittsburgh. Reservations are to be made by July 15 with Mrs. Nick Vosovic at 774-6214.

Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. Members of the club must have dues paid to attend.

Plans were also completed for summer camp for the children July 28 at Shadyland, Pa.

The club made a donation to the St. Vladimir Seminary at Tuckahoe, N. Y.

A report was given on the annual closing exercise of the Sunday School last Sunday. Mrs. Anna Nadelkov and Mrs. George Smith were in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. Mildred Drakulich won the 125 Club prize and Mrs. Mary Felekey won a special prize.

The secretary's report was given by Mrs. Vosovic in the absence of Mrs. Nick Vranes.

Next meeting is July 25.

WVU Junior Chosen W. Va. Dairy Princess

CHARLESTON (AP) — Miss Donnis Rexroad, a 20-year old junior at West Virginia University, was chosen Thursday as the 1963 West Virginia Dairy Princess.

Miss Rexroad, from Lumberport, won a trip to Miami, Fla., to participate in national competition Sept. 14-17. She also collected $500.

First runnerup was Grace Hinkle, 19, of Frankford. Other finalists were Elseda Selover of Martinsburg, Zara Alice Williamson of Southside, Mason County and Betty Louise Cale of Elizabeth in Wirt County.

Monte-Lockhart Mass Conducted At St. Aloysius

Wedding vows were exchanged by Mrs. Alice Scott Lockhart and John Monte the morning of June 22 at 10 o'clock with Fr. Joseph Bennett, assistant pastor, officiating for the double-ring ceremony at a Nuptial Mass at St. Aloysius Catholic Church. Mrs. James O'Reilly was organist and soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Scott of Northside Ave., and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Monte of Commerce St., Wellsville.

The bride wore a sheath of white lace over pink with matching accessories, and half hat and theater veil. She carried a white prayerbook, topped with carnations and roses, and observed the traditions.

Miss Nancy Beth Musuraca of Alexandria, Va., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a white dress with gold accessories. Her Colonial bouquet featured pastel flowers. A rhinestone pendant necklace was her gift from the bride.

John Prezzia was best man and received a tie pin from the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride wore pink with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother was attired in mint green with black accessories. Both had pink rosebud corsages.

A wedding breakfast was served for the bridal party and immediate families at the Travelers Hotel. A reception for 150 followed in the evening at the K. of C. Hall in Wellsville. A four-tier cake centered the buffet table.

Aides were Mrs. Violet Buracchio, Mrs. Lena DeGreccio, Mrs. Tillie Efrotti, Mrs. Virginia Schultz and Mrs. Dorothy Durbin.

Guests were from Mineral Ridge, Weirton, Negley and Youngstown.

Following a honeymoon at Cedar Point, the newlyweds will reside at 666 Green Ln. The bride is employed at the Homer Laughlin China Co. and her husband at the Crucible Steel Co. at Midland.

Former Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion, who retired two weeks ago, has written to the secretary of Sdeh Boker collective village, of which he is a permanent member, to put him on the daily work list.

Ben-Gurion, 76, but healthy and strong, is expected to be assigned to looking after the settlement's sheep. This was his job 10 years ago, when he retired from politics for 14 months.

Mrs. John F. Kennedy is spending a long weekend in Newport, R.I., at the home of her mother, Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss. Also at Hammersmith Farm are the Kennedy children, Caroline, 5½, and John F. Jr., 2½.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Kennedy and the children will move to a rented house on Squaw Island near Hyannis Port, Mass. The President is expected to join them for the July 4 weekend.

Bandleader Ted Fio Rito is retiring after nearly 40 years in show business. But, he said in Tucson, Ariz., he plans to continue writing songs.

Fio Rito, who says he's "pushing 60," intends to settle in Scottsdale, Ariz., with his wife and three children.

4,400 Will Share $1 Million At Kaiser

FONTANA, Calif. (AP)—In the month of May, automation saved $1,080,000 for the Kaiser Steel Corp. Because of this, the firm announced Thursday, 4,400 workers will share $339,000.

Kaiser and the United Steelworkers of America last year worked out a profit-sharing plan designed to offset the problems of automation. Under the scheme union employes get back 32.5 per cent of any savings in steel production costs.

Mr., Mrs. Sam D'Angelo On Eastern Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Sam D'Angelo are honeymooning in the Pocono Mountains, New York and Philadelphia following their marriage Saturday noon at St. Edwards Catholic Church in Youngstown.

The Nuptial High Mass was celebrated by Fr. James K. Cavanaugh.

The bride, the former Miss Rosalie Marsilio, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marsilio of Youngstown and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam D'Angelo, 406 Johnson Pl., Wellsville.

She wore an organza gown trimmed with Alencon lace with an illusion veil crowned with pearls and carried white orchids, roses and carnations.

Miss Judy Giblin was maid-of-honor and Misses Mary Lou Lorenzetti of Niles, Angela Weeda of Wellsville, cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Shirley Marsilio, cousin of the bride, and Angela Fasano served as bridesmaids.

All wore blue pau gowns and matching pearl crowns with three veils. Arlene Sirella was flower girl. They carried baskets of white and orange snapdragons, carnations and pompons.

Mike DiCello of Wellsville was best man. Ushers were John D'Angelo, brother of the bridegroom, Vincent Marsilio, brother of the bride, Joseph Commarata of Wellsville and Theodore Fauceglia of Sharon.

Blue chiffon with matching accessories was worn by the bride's mother, and blue lace with white accessories by the bridegroom's mother. Both wore orchids. The grandmothers were dressed in Navy blue and had carnation corsages.

A reception followed for 400 from 2 to 7 o'clock at the CIO Hall in Youngstown. They will visit the bridegroom's parents for several days prior to going to housekeeping at Youngstown, where they will continue their studies at Dana School of Music. The bride was graduated in May from the Dana School and will take a post-graduate course. Her husband, a 1959 graduate of Wellsville High School, is a senior.

WSCS At Boyce Methodist Hears Congregation Clerk

Mrs. Jean Russell, clerk of the congregation of the Second United Presbyterian Church, was guest speaker for the meeting of the WSCS of the Boyce Methodist Church Tuesday night at the Boyce Auditorium.

She discussed the life of the 12 Apostles and spoke on "God's Use of Abraham," with Scripture reference from Gensis and Luke. Introduced by Mrs. Mary Hughey, program chairman, her vocal solo was "How Great Thou Art."

Mrs. Arvesta Whealdon conducted worship, reading Scripture from Ps. 91 and a story, "Try It Colonel, I Dare You."

Mrs. Ruth Ralston, president, presided for business. Mrs. Barbara Bennett read the minutes and Mrs. Lucille Poole, the financial report. Miss Frances Martin gave the offertory prayer.

The group voted to purchase the ice cream for the annual Sunday School picnic. Visitations included 30 sick and shutin calls. Cards were signed. Notes of thanks were read from June graduates receiving Bibles.

Mrs. Ruth Tice reported on the North-East Ohio Conference sessions held last week at Lakeside, to which she and her husband, Howard Tice, were delegates. She told about the Methodist Christian Overseas Relief program providing milk and used clothing.

The Mary Martha Circle plans to present a program for the Cummings Rest Home in August.

Refreshments were served 19 by the Mary Martha Circle with Mrs. Clara Thorn, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Gladys Lisk, Mrs. Hughey, Mrs. Tice and Mrs. Della Montgomery. A centerpiece of tulips decorated the buffet table.

Next meeting is July 23 with Mrs. Clara Armstrong in charge of worship and Mrs. Ella Jackson, the program. The Dorothea Memorial Circle is hostess unit.

10 Petitions Ask Slash For Speed Limits In Newell

The Newell Civic Council is circulating petitions in an attempt to persuade the State Road Commission to lower speed limits through the town.

Ten petitions, prepared by Miss Callie Tsapis, member of the House of Delegates from Hancock County, are in circulation. Miss Tsapis signed the first petition.

The council asks that Burl Sawyers, head of the State Road Commission, take action to return the speed limit through Newell to 25 miles an hour.

A few months ago, the State Road Commission erected new signs raising the speed limit through the community to 30 and increasing it to 40 at either end.

Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny promised two weeks ago to deliver the signed petitions personally to Sawyers in Charleston.

The petitions may be turned over to council officers by July 10. Mrs. Sadye Nally is president.

Salineville Group Offers Gas Firm 5 Per Cent Boost

SALINEVILLE — Village Council, at a special meeting Thursday night with a citizen's committee on the proposed gas rate increase, reached agreement on an offer to be made to the Ohio Fuel & Gas Co.

The special session was called during the regular meeting Monday night, when the members were not able to reach agreement on a counter-offer to be made the utility.

The firm is seeking an 11.9 per cent increase. The committee, comprised of three councilmen and three citizens; had discussed either 5 or 7 per cent, but Council did not take any formal action.

At the meeting last night, Council and the committee agreed to offer the firm 5 per cent.

Councilman Don Lewis, who objected Monday night to granting any increase, again opposed the move last night.

No representative of the utility was present.

Officers Given Alert On Reservist Convoy

sioners decided not to change appointments they had made.

Arthur Johnson, manager of Ohio State Employment Service office in Salem, testified for Mrs. Case, claiming the employment picture was poor during the time she requested back pay. Cross examined by Brokaw, he said he didn't know if Mrs. Case had applied to the OSES office for job placement during this time.

She testified that due to her age, 62, she was unable to obtain another job and asked back pay for 15½ months.

Commissioners were represented by Prosecutor Brokaw and assistant Howard Cole.

Mrs. Case was represented by Lawrence Stacey of Columbiana, Guy Mauro of Salem and Paul Tobin of East Liverpool.

Patrick Henry (1736-99) was admitted to the legal bar after only six months of study.

Salineville Group Offers Gas Firm 5 Per Cent Boost

SALINEVILLE — Village Council, at a special meeting Thursday night with a citizen's committee on the proposed gas rate increase, reached agreement on an offer to be made to the Ohio Fuel & Gas Co.

The special session was called during the regular meeting Monday night, when the members were not able to reach agreement on a counter-offer to be made the utility.

The firm is seeking an 11.9 per cent increase. The committee, comprised of three councilmen and three citizens, had discussed either 5 or 7 per cent, but Council did not take any formal action.

At the meeting last night, Council and the committee agreed to offer the firm 5 per cent.

Councilman Don Lewis, who objected Monday night to granting any increase, again opposed the move last night.

No representative of the utility was present.

Officers Given Alert On Reservist Convoy

District law enforcement agencies have been alerted that a 150-vehicle convoy of the 83rd Infantry Division, an Army Reserve unit with headquarters in Cleveland, will pass through the East Liverpool area in several sections today and Saturday.

En route to summer training at Camp A. P. Hill and Camp Pickett, both in Virginia, the convoy will travel Route 45 from Salem to Lisbon, then take Route 30 through East Liverpool and Chester, headed into Pennsylvania.

East Liverpool police said one section of the convey passed through the county late this morning. East Liverpool's Reserve unit, Co. A, 7th Tank Battalion, is part of the 83rd. Its members will train at Camp Pickett. An advance guard left Tuesday. Forty-five will depart by air Saturday at 4:30 a.m. from Youngstown Air Base.

Woman Bound Over

LISBON — A woman identified as Mrs. Patricia Delquadri of the Lisbon Hotel was bound over to the September Grand Jury under $25 bond Thursday by County Judge James L. MacDonald on a charge she assaulted Mrs. Doris Duncan Monday night in an E. Lincoln Way Tavern. The office of Prosecutor G. William Brokaw filed the charge on behalf of Mrs. Duncan. The defendant posted bond and was released.

Pay

sioners decided not to change appointments they had made.

Arthur Johnson, manager of Ohio State Employment Service office in Salem, testified for Mrs. Case, claiming the employment picture was poor during the time she requested back pay. Cross examined by Brokaw, he said he didn't know if Mrs. Case had applied to the OSES office for job placement during this time.

She testified that due to her age, 62, she was unable to obtain another job and asked back pay for 15½ months.

Commissioners were represented by Prosecutor Brokaw and assistant Howard Cole.

Mrs. Case was represented by Lawrence Stacey of Columbiana, Guy Mauro of Salem and Paul Tobin of East Liverpool.

Patrick Henry (1736-99) was admitted to the legal bar after only six months of study.

WELLSVILLE GIRL RECOGNIZED. Miss Faye Pickens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pickens, 727 Broadway, Wellsville, has been listed in the 13th annual library edition of the book "Who's Who In Baton Twirling," issued by the National Baton Twirling Association in conjunction with Drum Major Magazine. She is entered in various NBTA contests this summer. Faye, who started her career when about 4 or 5, has won first place trophies and medals for twirling and fancy strutting. She has appeared on various television programs and plays the piano and saxophone, tap dances and is a drum major and twirler with the Wellsville High School Band. She is a junior.

Federal Jury Cites Seven In Mahoning

CLEVELAND (AP) — A federal grand jury indicted a former Youngstown city law director on extortion charges Thursday and accused six Youngstown men and the wife of one of them on tax law violations in reporting gambling operations income.

Merle M. McCurdy, U.S. attorney, said the grand jury sessions, which began June 10, were continuing. The indictments capped an 18-month federal investigation of racket conditions in Youngstown. Three Justice Department attorneys were here from Washington to present the cases to the grand jury.

Announcement of the indictments was made in Washington while a release was being prepared at the Federal Building here.

S. Fekett, 42, a former Youngstown city law director, was accused of attempting to extort some $9,000 from firms trying to do business with the city and of accepting a $750 payment from one of them.

Fekett was law director under former mayor Frank R. Franko and also served as a member of the City Board of Control in 1960-61, passing on city contracts. Franko was called as a witness this week by the grand jury.

The department named those indicted under the tax laws as:

Charles Carabbia, Orland Carabbia and Ronald Carabbia, who are brothers, and Charles' wife Dorothy.

Also Joe Alexander, Elias Alexander and Nicholas Alexander, brothers.

The department said they are gambling machine operators in the Youngstown area.

There are more than 450 species of bats throughout the world. Bats are the most aerial of all animals, even more so than birds or insects, for they have scarcely any other means of locomotion than flying.

Astronaut To Help Make Study Of Sun

WASHINGTON (AP) — An astronaut and a female astronomer will participate in a study of the sun during a total eclipse July 20, streaking across Canada by jet plane in the wake of the moon's shadow.

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said that in addition to the astronaut, as yet unpicked, and the astronomer, Dr. Jocelyn R. Gill, two researchers from the Ames Research Center at Moffett Field, Calif., will be aboard.

Program On 'Guatemala' Given For Long Run Group

A program concerning "Guatemala" featured the meeting of the Women's Association of the Longs Run United Presbyterian Church Tuesday night in the social rooms.

Mrs. Barbara Dray of the Naomi Ruth Circle read a letter from Miss Julia Jo Barnhart, who is attending language school in Costa Rica in preparation for teaching in Guatemala. She also screened a filmstrip about the South American country.

Worship was conducted by Mrs. Ruth Dunn, who read Scripture from Matt. 6 and offered prayer. Group hymns were "Moment by Moment" and "If Jesus Goes With Me." Mrs. Harriet Entriken was accompanist.

Mrs. Lois Myers, president, opened business with prayer. Mrs. Dray read the minutes and Mrs. Mary Skelton, the financial report.

Named to the nominating committee were Mrs. Mildred Wilson, chairman, Mrs. Nellie Echols, Mrs. Ethel Dunn, Mrs. Betty Holden and Mrs. Alice Barnhouse.

Mrs. Dolores Billingsley reported on Bibles presented to 13 high school graduates and about letters of thanks received from college students who were recipients of cookies and candy.

Mrs. JoAnn Fisher and Mrs. Ruth Dunn gave highlights of Synodical sessions held last week at Muskingum College. They were associates delegates.

Refreshments were served by the Esther Circle with Mrs. Jackie Fisher, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Virginia Springer, Mrs. Ethel Dunn, Mrs. Skelton, Mrs. JoAnn Fisher, Mrs. Ethel Black, Mrs. Doris Thompson, Mrs. Marie Shuman and Mrs. Louise Leacse. Mrs. Ina Pugh offered the blessing.

The buffet table was covered with a lace cloth and featured a centerpiece of pink and white asters, flanked by lighted tapers. Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Pugh poured at the silver services.

Next meeting is Sept. 10 with the Priscilla Circle in charge of the program and the Mary Anna, the social hour.

Senior Citizens Hold Picnic At Thompson Park

Sixty-five members of the Senior Citizens Group held a basket picnic Thursday afternoon at Thompson Park.

Following the dinner, the members played games under the supervision of Jack Barrett.

The winners were Mrs. Stella Mackall, Mrs. Sylvia McDonald, Mrs. Margaret Martin, Mrs. Ann Carr and Mrs. Bessie Hassall.

During the recreation hour, an auction sale was held, with Barrett as auctioneer.

Next Thursday's meeting has been canceled because of the Fourth of July holiday. The next session will be July 11 at the Parish Hall of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Boardman, Canton Students Place High

HOUSTON, Tex. AP) — Three high school students placed high in various categories of the National Forensic Speech Tournament which ended Thursday night.

Andy Fichter of Delaware Hayes won first place in dramatic interpretation and Dennis Patella of Youngstown Boardman placed third in that category. Fred Applebaum of Canton Lehman was named outstanding speaker in the House of Representatives of the Student Congress.

Profumo To Appear In Court For Speeding

BRENTWOOD, England (AP)— Former War Minister John D. Profumo, central figure in Britain's political-sex scandal, is to be in court next Wednesday to answer a summons for speeding.

Although speeding summonses can be dealt with without the defendant being present, it is understood Profumo has decided to appear.

Wellsville Club Hears Minister

"Church and State" was the topic of the Rev. James Sanko at a meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon at Piatt's Tea Room.

Rev. Sanko, pastor of the Riverside United Presbyterian Church, discussed the Supreme Court decision against the mandatory use of Bible readings and prayers in schools.

He also raised the question as to what future action will be towards religious activities. Rev. Sanko said the official United Presbyterian Church was on record before the Supreme Court decision against mandatory use of the Bible.

He said the prime purpose of his talk was to arouse the thinking of the Kiwanians as the leaders of the community.

He also raised the question as to what will be done about the chapel program conducted by the Ministerial Association in Wellsville High School.

Seventeen attended.

$80,260 Tax Fund Distribution Detailed

Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate has announced the distribution of $80,260 received Wednesday from County Auditor Kenneth Bell, representing the February settlement on real estate taxes.

Of the $80,260, $44,321 will be assigned to the general fund. The distribution also will include: Garbage fund, $21,580; firemen's pensions, $2,249; police pensions, $2,249; City Hospital, $6,864, and delinquent sewage charges, $1,596, Applegate said.

Of the amount assigned to the general fund, $10,534 will be available for paying operating expenses, Applegate said. Bond retirement will take $23,973, with $9,813 assigned as income from the firemen's 1-mill levy, he said.

"Church and State" was the topic of the Rev. James Sanko at a meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon at Piatt's Tea Room.

Rev. Sanko, pastor of the Riverside United Presbyterian Church, discussed the Supreme Court decision against the mandatory use of Bible readings and prayers in schools.

He also raised the question as to what future action will be towards religious activities. Rev. Sanko said the official United Presbyterian Church was on record before the Supreme Court decision against mandatory use of the Bible.

He said the prime purpose of his talk was to arouse the thinking of the Kiwanians as the leaders of the community.

He also raised the question as to what will be done about the chapel program conducted by the Ministerial Association in Wellsville High School.

Seventeen attended.

$80,260 Tax Fund Distribution Detailed

Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate has announced the distribution of $80,260 received Wednesday from County Auditor Kenneth Bell, representing the February settlement on real estate taxes.

Of the $80,260, $44,321 will be assigned to the general fund. The distribution also will include: Garbage fund, $21,580; firemen's pensions, $2,249; police pensions, $2,249; City Hospital, $6,864, and delinquent sewage charges, $1,596, Applegate said.

Of the amount assigned to the general fund, $10,534 will be available for paying operating expenses, Applegate said. Bond retirement will take $23,973, with $9,813 assigned as income from the firemen's 1-mill levy, he said.

Pine Grove Reunion To Start With Church Service Sunday

The sixth annual Pine Grove School and community reunion will be held Sunday and will feature an afternoon program at 2. Guest speaker will be Scott Sutton, a professor at Ohio State University and former teacher.

The Rev. Dean McElroy, pastor of the Pine Grove Methodist Church, will begin the day's activities with service at 9:15 a. m.

The cafeteria style picnic dinner will be held at 12:30 in the school house. Beverages and table services will be furnished.

Special music will be presented with Manard Walker of Steubenville as leader.

Prizes will be awarded to the oldest and youngest persons present.

A light evening meal will be served by the committee.

The planning committee includes Elva Lawrence of Alliance, president; Alice Householder, vice president; Evelyn Russell, secretary; Grace Twaddle, treasurer; Kathleen Goodwin, program, and Hazel Householder, Dorothy Storkford, Wayne Householder and Stanley Baker, tables.

The Navy did not begin drafting men into its service until World War II when a million and a half men were inducted.

Power Takes Poke At Tiger Pitcher

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

In the fury of the American League pennant chase, the spotlight glares on Al Luplow and Vic Power.

Luplow, Cleveland outfielder, made a spectacular diving catch of Dick Williams' bid for a three-run homer in the eighth inning and preserved a 6-4 triumph over third-place Boston Thursday.

Power, Minnesota first baseman, threw a punch at Detroit pitcher Phil Regan and was ejected from the game during a 10-6 triumph over the Tigers that moved the Twins to within three games of first-place New York.

The Chicago White Sox downed the Yankees 6-0 as Ray Herbert pitched a five-hitter for his sixth shutout and second over New York while pulling the White Sox to within eight percentage points of the front-runners.

In the only other game scheduled, Washington used home runs by Jim King, Don Zimmer and Hobie Landrith to top Kansas City 4-2. Philadelphia walloped Pittsburgh 13-4 in the only National League game scheduled.

Red Sox Manager Johnny Pesky didn't believe the unbelievable catch should have deprived Williams of a homer, because the ball was caught in the bullpen and played the game under protest. Umpire Joe Paparella ruled it a sacrifice fly, scoring Lu Clinton from third base.

Jimmy Hall and Harmon Killebrew cracked homers for the Twins while Killebrew, Rich Rollins and Zoilo Versalles each collected three hits in a 14-hit attack that made it easy for Jim Perry, 8-4. Terry Fox, 3-4, was the loser.

The White Sox jolted Jim Bouton, 10-3, for 10 hits in five innings and breezed behind Herbert, 8-4, to their fifth victory in six games with the Yankees this season.

Home runs by King and Zimmer, his first in the AL, gave Washington a 2-0 lead. Ed Brinkman singled home what turned out to be the decisive run in the sixth and Landrith added insurance with his seventh inning homer. Norm Siebern homered for the A's. Bennie Daniels, 1-4, was the winner, Dave Wickersham, 5-7, the loser.

Upstart, Player, Wininger At 66

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP)—They may not be up there at the finish, but two colorful newcomers to upper bracket golf are creating an early furor in the $110,000 Cleveland Open.

The upstarts are 30-year-old Bill Eggers of Henderson, Nev., and 29-year-old Clyde (Moon) Mullins of Indio, Calif., a transplant from Kentucky's hills. In three years on the tour neither has come close to winning a tournament.

Eggers, a smiling redhead, was married at 16, turned pro at 17, has four children, and rode a long-driving 19-year-old brassie to a rousing 5-under-par 66 in Thursday's opening round.

That tied him with South African Gary Player and Oklahoma City's Bo Wininger for the top spot in the field of 150 shooting for the $22,000 first prize. Player has won $44,000 this year, Wininger more than $13,000 and Eggers a mere $1,612, which hasn't come close to paying his expenses.

Mullins learned to play golf in the mid-50s while in the Marines and never has finished better than eighth. His wife and daughter are tagging along on the tour and for them he fired a 67 in the inaugural. He bogied two of the last three holes or he could have been off by himself.

Tied with Mullins were Dave Hill, the slim 26-year-old ex-caddie from Jackson, Mich., and Lionel Hebert of Lafayette, La., who won the last of the PGA match play titles in 1957.

Much of the highly-touted talent was further back, although it was still a tight race with 42 players breaking par and 27 others matching the card. After today's play, the field will be sliced to the low 75 for the last two rounds ending Sunday over Beechmont Country Club's 6,618-yard layout.

At 68 were such luminaries as Sam Snead, Jim Ferrier, Jack Nicklaus, Tony Lema and Mike Souchak as part of an eight-way tie. National Open champion Julius Boros was in an 11-man deadlock at 69.

Arnold Palmer, who started as the favorite, birdied the last hole for a par 71 after losing four strokes on three consecutive back-nine holes. Dow Finsterwald was among the 26 who tied Palmer.

The leaders:
Gary Player 32-34—66
Bo Winninger 34-32—66
Bill Eggers 33-33—66
Dave Hill 34-33—67
Moon Mullins 33-34—67
Lionel Hebert 33-34—67
Frank Boynton 35-33—68
Mike Souchack 36-32—68
Gordon Jones 34-34—68
Tony Lema 35-33—68
Juan Rodriguez 34-34—68
Jack Nicklaus 33-35—68
Sam Snead 33-35—68
Jim Ferrier 36-32—68

Others (x-Amateur):

18-Hit Attack Sends Buccos To 13-4 Loss

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ray Culp, Philadelphia's $100,000 bonus right-hander who had a losing minor league record, is halfway home in his bid to become the first rookie pitcher since 1947 to enter the 20-victory circle in the National League.

Culp, 21, won No. 10 Thursday night as the Phillies pounded 18 hits and clobbered Pittsburgh 13-4 in the only game on the NL schedule.

In the American League, Chicago's White Sox knocked off the first-place New York Yankees 6-0, Cleveland beat Boston 6-4, Minnesota crushed Detroit 10-6 and Washington downed Kansas City 4-2.

If Culp continues at his present pace, he will have an excellent chance to become the first rookie 20-game winner since Larry Jansen of the New York Giants posted a 21-5 record in 1947.

Against the Pirates, Culp allowed two hits in six innings, but was touched for two runs and three hits in the seventh and was given a rest by Manager Gene Mauch.

The Phillies piled up 18 hits and their biggest run production of the season. The 18 hits tied the NL high for the season.

Johnny Callison took hitting honors for Philadelphia, becoming the first player in either league to complete the single, double, triple, homer cycle this year. He tripled in the first inning and scored the first run, then followed with a three-run homer, a single and a run-producing double.

Cumberland Wins; Stars Net Victory

New Cumberland padded its lead in the Chester City Softball League with an 11-2 victory over the Owls Club Thursday and the League All-Star team came up with a 5-2 exhibition win over Steubenville in a game that followed under the lights Thursday at Chester City Park.

In the regular league game, New Cumberland was paced by the hitting of Jack Thayer, Roccio and Peck with two each while Roccio was the winning hurler.

In the All-Star contest with Steubenville, it was Thayer again with a triple and single, which produced two RBI's, leading the way. P. Glover also drove in two runs with a double and Bob Boston blasted a two bagger.

Steubenville's two runs came on a home run with one on by Smith.

Chink McCauley was the winning hurler for the Chester City League stars.

AFL's Weak Sisters Get First Chance

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — New York and Oakland, the American Football League's weak sisters, will have the first chances in the AFL to sign players cut by any professional teams.

Commissioner Joe Foss reported Thursday that AFL club officials, in a further effort to bolster the two teams, reaffirmed a proposal initially approved last month.

Under the plan, New York and Oakland would have 30-day periods, after players were cut, in which to try to sign the ones in which they were interested. After the 30 days, all eight AFL teams could go after individual players.

The program will only be in effect this year, Foss said.

Foss spoke to newsmen following a non-stop 9½-hour meeting Thursday that wound up a two-day gathering of AFL team officials.

Fans Trot To 'The Meadows' . . .

A spanking new harness track, the Meadows, is ready to be unveiled tonight, bringing legalized betting into Western Pennsylvania for the first time.

The 5/8-mile oval built near Washington, Pa., for something in the neighborhood of $5 million will open with a nine-race card featured by the $15,000 Arden Stakes.

The track is easy to reach from our neck of the woods, with a drive of about an hour and 15 minutes on Route 18 to Washington, Pa. The plant is located off Route 19, four miles north of Washington, or 20 miles south of Pittsburgh.

It was our pleasure to be a guest of the management last Saturday night as members of the press and radio were invited to take a look about the Meadows.

It offers the world's first synthetic race track surface. The track is made of compound synthetic resin designed to provide a durable, all weather surface for standard racing conditions.

This means there will be no such thing as a slow, sloppy or muddy track at the Meadows and the many persons involved in the sport are high in their expectations for the synthetic track.

Some believe the new surface could help set new time records over the 5/8-mile distance.

Top Drivers To Appear . . .

SOME of the top harness drivers will appear at the Meadows. Stanley Dancer and Bill Haughton, two of the best, are scheduled to compete in the first stake race . . . The Arden Downs . . . tonight.

Del Miller, president of the Meadows, is to harness racing what Eddie Arcaro was to flat racing. The widely-known, owner, trainer and driver will compete in some of the races during the 50-night meeting.

Ground was broken for the new track in September of 1962. The grandstand and clubhouse will seat 3,000, but facilities will be available to handle a crowd of 10,000. Free parking is available for more than 4,000 cars.

Don't be looking for free passes to see the trotters. State law prohibits the distribution of free passes. Ticket prices are $1.25 in the grandstand and $2.25 in the clubhouse.

The meeting will run through Aug. 24 and post time nightly will be 8:30.

Jay Mathews, former Mutuel manager at Waterford Park, an old hand in this department, is filling the same capacity at the Meadows.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

THE reconditioned field in lower Thompson Park (Dixonville) is open to everyone's use. It is the home field for the Pony League and Slow-Pitch League, but when not being used by these leagues anyone may play on that diamond.

Since the field is open to the public, we were very disgusted to hear from the park supervisors that someone had stolen the pitching rubber at the field.

Before that incident, someone had attempted to steal the rubber home plate, but didn't succeed. We have heard many complaints that our city didn't have enough facilities to play baseball or softball.

We have them now, but won't have them for long if certain people continue these childish acts.

HOW'S this for a close bowling match? The other night at the Terrace Lanes, where everything seems to be happening, two teams rolled three games and when all the pins stopped falling they were deadlocked with 1,736 pins each.

It happened in the Terrace Lanes Mixed League between the B & J's and the King Pins. The first game was tied at 577 each, the second game saw the B & J's roll a 600 to the King Pins' 600 and the third game was won by the King Pins, 559 to 558.

Bressler, Craft Added To Reds Hall Of Fame

CINCINNATI (AP) — Two former Cincinnati Reds stars, Rube Bressler and Harry Craft, were elected to the Reds' Hall of Fame this year.

Both will join the 14 ex-Reds previously inducted to the Hall of Fame at a special Crosley Field ceremony July 10.

Bressler led the 1963 ballot with 8,128 votes. Craft, present manager of the Houston Colts, was second with 4,261. A total of 45,918 fans cast ballots clipped from newspapers.

Bressler, 68, is now a patient in a veterans hospital. He was on the Reds' roster from 1917 to 1927, playing outfield and first base and pitching.

Craft, 48, played center field for Cincinnai from 1937 through 1942, including the 1939 and 1940 World Series.

BASEBALL HEROES

PITCHING—Ray Herbert, White Sox, posted his sixth shutout and second against first-place New York by downing the Yankees 6-0 on five hits and pulling Chicago to within eight percentage points of the American League leaders.

BATTING — Johnny Callison, Phillies, hit for the cycle by collecting a single, double, triple and homer in 13-4 victory over Pittsburgh.

Rogers, T.S.&T, Pusateri's Cop Minor Loop Play

Two Minor League teams won handily while another had to squeak out a one-run victory in Thursday night's action.

Rogers Drive-In came up with a 22-7 victory over Potters Bank and Trust breaking the game wide open in the fifth inning with 13 runs. Mike Lockhart was the winning pitcher and Ron Thomas and Dutch Wright had two hits each for the winners.

T.S.&T. paced by Craig Means' three hits, topped Tri-State Appliance, 15-6. Ed Haudren was the winning hurler.

Pusateri's came up with two runs in the sixth inning to edge M & A Motors, 11-10. Norn McHenry fanned 10 batters and Fred Kirchner smacked a double and two singles while Rich Sheppard tripled.

2 Americans Remain In Wimbledon Tennis

By JOHN GALE

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—One of the more interesting matches of the tournament is shaping up in the round of 16 when the soft-serving Indian, Ramanathan Krishnan, strives to reach the Wimbledon semifinals for the third time in a long international tennis career.

The luck of the draw has put him in the same half of the bracket with top-seeded Roy Emerson, generally considered the world's best amateur player and an old, old foe of Krisinnan.

Krishnan, 26, is playing his 12th year at Wimbledon and long has been a favorite of the crowds.

"I'm getting to be quite a veteran around here," he grinned after a 6-4, 6-0, 6-4 victory over Ronald Barnes of Brazil Thursday.

Only two American men, Chuck McKinley and Frank Froehling, made it past the third round and only McKinley is scheduled for singles action today, when most of the play is devoted to men's women's and mixed doubles.

McKinley, top-ranked in the United States and fourth seeded at Wimbledon, will take on Krishnan's countryman, 21-year-old Jaidip Mukerjea, probably the most promising player in Asia.

Froehling, from Coral Gables, Fla., will play Roger Taylor of Great Britain in the round of 16.

In women's singles, Darlene Hard, Long Beach, Calif., whipped Helga Shultze of Germany 6-3, 6-0, but Carol Hanks, St. Louis, was eliminated. Tory Ann Fretz of Harrisburg, Pa., and Mrs. Donna Floyd Fales of New York won second round matches.

Power Takes Poke At Tiger Pitcher

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

In the fury of the American League pennant chase, the spotlight glares on Al Luplow and Vic Power.

Luplow, Cleveland outfielder, made a spectacular diving catch of Dick Williams' bid for a three-run homer in the eighth inning and preserved a 6-4 triumph over third-place Boston Thursday.

Power, Minnesota first baseman, threw a punch at Detroit pitcher Phil Regan and was ejected from the game during a 10-6 triumph over the Tigers that moved the Twins to within three games of first-place New York.

The Chicago White Sox downed the Yankees 6-0 as Ray Herbert pitched a five-hitter for his sixth shutout and second over New York while pulling the White Sox to within eight percentage points of the front-runners.

In the only other game scheduled, Washington used home runs by Jim King, Don Zimmer and Hobie Landrith to top Kansas City 4-2. Philadelphia walloped Pittsburgh 13-4 in the only National League game scheduled.

Red Sox Manager Johnny Pesky didn't believe the unbelievable catch should have deprived Williams of a homer, because the ball was caught in the bullpen and played the game under protest. Umpire Joe Paparella ruled it a sacrifice fly, scoring Lu Clinton from third base.

Jimmy Hall and Harmon Killebrew cracked homers for the Twins while Killebrew, Rich Rollins and Zoilo Versalles each collected three hits in a 14-hit attack that made it easy for Jim Perry, 8-4. Terry Fox, 3-4, was the loser.

The White Sox jolted Jim Bouton, 10-3, for 10 hits in five innings and breezed behind Herbert, 8-4, to their fifth victory in six games with the Yankees this season.

Home runs by King and Zimmer, his first in the AL, gave Washington a 2-0 lead. Ed Brinkman singled home what turned out to be the decisive run in the sixth and Landrith added insurance with his seventh inning homer. Norm Siebern homered for the A's. Bennie Daniels, 1-4, was the winner, Dave Wickersham, 5-7, the loser.

Upstart, Player, Wininger At 66

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP)—They may not be up there at the finish, but two colorful newcomers to upper bracket golf are creating an early furor in the $110,000 Cleveland Open.

The upstarts are 30-year-old Bill Eggers of Henderson, Nev., and 29-year-old Clyde (Moon) Mullins of Indio, Calif., a transplant from Kentucky's hills. In three years on the tour neither has come close to winning a tournament.

Eggers, a smiling redhead, was married at 16, turned pro at 17, has four children, and rode a long-driving 19-year-old brassie to a rousing 5-under-par 66 in Thursday's opening round.

That tied him with South African Gary Player and Oklahoma City's Bo Wininger for the top spot in the field of 150 shooting for the $22,000 first prize. Player has won $44,000 this year, Wininger more than $13,000 and Eggers a mere $1,612, which hasn't come close to paying his expenses.

Mullins learned to play golf in the mid-50s while in the Marines and never has finished better than eighth. His wife and daughter are tagging along on the tour and for them he fired a 67 in the inaugural. He bogied two of the last three holes or he could have been off by himself.

Tied with Mullins were Dave Hill, the slim 26-year-old ex-caddie from Jackson, Mich., and Lionel Hebert of Lafayette, La., who won the last of the PGA match play titles in 1957.

Much of the highly-touted talent was further back, although it was still a tight race with 42 players breaking par and 27 others matching the card. After today's play, the field will be sliced to the low 75 for the last two rounds ending Sunday over Beechmont Country Club's 6,618-yard layout.

At 68 were such luminaries as Sam Snead, Jim Ferrier, Jack Nicklaus, Tony Lema and Mike Souchak as part of an eight-way tie. National Open champion Julius Boros was in an 11-man deadlock at 69.

Arnold Palmer, who started as the favorite, birdied the last hole for a par 71 after losing four strokes on three consecutive back-nine holes. Dow Finsterwald was among the 26 who tied Palmer.

The leaders:

Gary Player 32-34—66
Bo Winninger 34-32—66
Bill Eggers 33-33—66
Dave Hill 34-33—67
Moon Mullins 33-34—67
Lionel Hebert 33-34—67
Frank Boynton 35-33—68
Mike Souchack 36-32—68
Gordon Jones 34-34—68
Tony Lema 35-33—68
Juan Rodriguez 34-34—68
Jack Nicklaus 33-35—68
Sam Snead 33-35—68
Jim Ferrier 36-32—68

Others (x-Amateur):
Dow Finsterwald 34-37—71
Bob Shave Jr. 35-36—71
x—Bob Littler Jr. 39-42—81

Phillies' Culp Posts 10th

18-Hit Attack Sends Buccos To 13-4 Loss

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ray Culp, Philadelphia's $100,000 bonus right-hander who had a losing minor league record, is halfway home in his bid to become the first rookie pitcher since 1947 to enter the 20-victory circle in the National League.

Culp, 21, won No. 10 Thursday night as the Phillies pounded 18 hits and clobbered Pittsburgh 13-4 in the only game on the NL schedule.

In the American League, Chicago's White Sox knocked off the first-place New York Yankees 6-0, Cleveland beat Boston 6-4, Minnesota crushed Detroit 10-6 and Washington downed Kansas City 4-2.

If Culp continues at his present pace, he will have an excellent chance to become the first rookie 20-game winner since Larry Jansen of the New York Giants posted a 21-5 record in 1947.

Against the Pirates, Culp allowed two hits in six innings, but was touched for two runs and three hits in the seventh and was given a rest by Manager Gene Mauch.

The Phillies piled up 18 hits and their biggest run production of the season. The 18 hits tied the NL high for the season.

Johnny Callison took hitting honors for Philadelphia, becoming the first player in either league to complete the single, double, triple, homer cycle this year. He tripled in the first inning and scored the first run, then followed with a three-run homer, a single and a run-producing double.

Rogers, T.S.&T, Pusateri's Cop Minor Loop Play

Two Minor League teams won handily while another had to squeak out a one-run victory in Thursday night's action.

Rogers Drive-In came up with a 22-7 victory over Potters Bank and Trust breaking the game wide open in the fifth inning with 13 runs. Mike Lockhart was the winning pitcher and Ron Thomas and Dutch Wright had two hits each for the winners.

T.S.&T. paced by Craig Means' three hits, topped Tri-State Appliance, 15-6. Ed Haudren was the winning hurler.

Pusateri's came up with two runs in the sixth inning to edge M & A Motors, 11-10. Norm McHenry fanned 10 batters and Fred Kirchner smacked a double and two singles while Rich Sheppard tripled.

Boy Killed By Car

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP)—A car struck and killed 3-year-old Joel Mauk in front of his home Thursday. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mauk of Alliance.

The driver was not held.

By JOHN GALE

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—One of the more interesting matches of the tournament is shaping up in the round of 16 when the soft-serving Indian, Ramanathan Krishnan, strives to reach the Wimbledon semifinals for the third time in a long international tennis career.

The luck of the draw has put him in the same half of the bracket with top-seeded Roy Emerson, generally considered the world's best amateur player and an old, old foe of Krishnan.

Krishnan, 26, is playing his 12th year at Wimbledon and long has been a favorite of the crowds.

"I'm getting to be quite a veteran around here," he grinned after a 6-4, 6-0, 6-4 victory over Ronald Barnes of Brazil Thursday.

Only two American men, Chuck McKinley and Frank Froehling, made it past the third round and only McKinley is scheduled for singles action today, when most of the play is devoted to men's women's and mixed doubles.

McKinley, top-ranked in the United States and fourth seeded at Wimbledon, will take on Krishnan's countryman, 21-year-old Jaidip Mukerjea, probably the most promising player in Asia.

Froehling, from Coral Gables, Fla., will play Roger Taylor of Great Britain in the round of 16.

In women's singles, Darlene Hard, Long Beach, Calif., whipped Helga Shultze of Germany 6-3, 6-0, but Carol Hanks, St. Louis, was eliminated. Tory Ann Fretz of Harrisburg, Pa., and Mrs. Donna Floyd Fales of New York won second round matches.

Cumberland Wins; Stars Net Victory

New Cumberland padded its lead in the Chester City Softball League with an 11-2 victory over the Owls Club Thursday and the League All-Star team came up with a 5-2 exhibition win over Steubenville in a game that followed under the lights Thursday at Chester City Park.

In the regular league game, New Cumberland was paced by the hitting of Jack Thayer, Roccio and Peck with two each while Roccio was the winning hurler.

In the All-Star contest with Steubenville, it was Thayer again with a triple and single, which produced two RBI's, leading the way. P. Glover also drove in two runs with a double and Bob Boston blasted a two bagger.

Steubenville's two runs came on a home run with one on by Smith.

Chink McCauley was the winning hurler for the Chester City League stars.

AFL's Weak Sisters Get First Chance

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — New York and Oakland, the American Football League's weak sisters, will have the first chances in the AFL to sign players cut by any professional teams.

Commissioner Joe Foss reported Thursday that AFL club officials, in a further effort to bolster the two teams, reaffirmed a proposal initially approved last month.

Under the plan, New York and Oakland would have 30-day periods, after players were cut, in which to try to sign the ones in which they were interested. After the 30 days, all eight AFL teams could go after individual players.

The program will only be in effect this year, Foss said.

Foss spoke to newsmen following a non-stop 9½-hour meeting Thursday that wound up a two-day gathering of AFL team officials.

Fans Trot To 'The Meadows' . . .

A spanking new harness track, the Meadows, is ready to be unveiled tonight, bringing legalized betting into Western Pennsylvania for the first time.

The 5/8-mile oval built near Washington, Pa., for something in the neighborhood of $5 million will open with a nine-race card featured by the $15,000 Arden Stakes.

The track is easy to reach from our neck of the woods, with a drive of about an hour and 15 minutes on Route 18 to Washington, Pa. The plant is located off Route 19, four miles north of Washington, or 20 miles south of Pittsburgh.

It was our pleasure to be a guest of the management last Saturday night as members of the press and radio were invited to take a look about the Meadows.

It offers the world's first synthetic race track surface. The track is made of compound synthetic resin designed to provide a durable, all weather surface for standard racing conditions.

This means there will be no such thing as a slow, sloppy or muddy track at the Meadows and the many persons involved in the sport are high in their expectations for the synthetic track.

Some believe the new surface could help set new time records over the 5/8-mile distance.

Top Drivers To Appear . . .

SOME of the top harness drivers will appear at the Meadows. Stanley Dancer and Bill Haughton, two of the best, are scheduled to compete in the first stake race . . . The Arden Downs . . . tonight.

Del Miller, president of the Meadows, is to harness racing what Eddie Arcaro was to flat racing. The widely-known, owner, trainer and driver will compete in some of the races during the 50-night meeting.

Ground was broken for the new track in September of 1962. The grandstand and clubhouse will seat 3,000, but facilities will be available to handle a crowd of 10,000. Free parking is available for more than 4,000 cars.

Don't be looking for free passes to see the trotters. State law prohibits the distribution of free passes. Ticket prices are $1.25 in the grandstand and $2.25 in the clubhouse.

The meeting will run through Aug. 24 and post time nightly will be 8:30.

Jay Mathews, former Mutuel manager at Waterford Park, an old hand in this department, is filling the same capacity at the Meadows.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

THE reconditioned field in lower Thompson Park (Dixonville) is open to everyone's use. It is the home field for the Pony League and Slow-Pitch League, but when not being used by these leagues anyone may play on that diamond.

Since the field is open to the public, we were very disgusted to hear from the park supervisors that someone had stolen the pitching rubber at the field.

Before that incident, someone had attempted to steal the rubber home plate, but didn't succeed. We have heard many complaints that our city didn't have enough facilities to play baseball or softball.

We have them now, but won't have them for long if certain people continue these childish acts.

HOW'S this for a close bowling match? The other night at the Terrace Lanes, where everything seems to be happening, two teams rolled three games and when all the pins stopped falling they were deadlocked with 1,736 pins each.

It happened in the Terrace Lanes Mixed League between the B & J's and the King Pins. The first game was tied at 577 each, the second game saw the B & J's roll a 600 to the King Pins' 600 and the third game was won by the King Pins, 559 to 558.

Bressler, Craft Added To Reds Hall Of Fame

CINCINNATI (AP) — Two former Cincinnati Reds stars, Rube Bressler and Harry Craft, were elected to the Reds' Hall of Fame this year.

Both will join the 14 ex-Reds previously inducted to the Hall of Fame at a special Crosley Field ceremony July 10.

Bressler led the 1963 ballot with 8,128 votes. Craft, present manager of the Houston Colts, was second with 4,461. A total of 45,918 fans cast ballots clipped from newspapers.

Bressler, 68, is now a patient in a veterans hospital. He was on the Reds' roster from 1917 to 1927, playing outfield and first base and pitching.

Craft, 48, played center field for Cincinnai from 1937 through 1942, including the 1939 and 1940 World Series.

Wynn Goes After 300th At Chicago

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—"I will be the first to congratulate Early Wynn when he pitches his 300th victory, but I hope it will have to be by telephone or telegram."

This was half-jesting, half serious comment by Manager Al Lopez of the sizzling White Sox after learning the 43-year-old Wynn will oppose the Sox here again tonight in the opener of a four-game Cleveland visit.

It was only a week ago that Wynn tried for No. 300 against the Sox at Cleveland, but lost a heartbreaker to his former teammates 2-0 on Ron Hansen's two-run homer in the ninth with two out.

Wynn's opponent at Comiskey Park, where the Sox just finished polishing off the New York Yankees three-out-of-four, will be Dave DeBusschere (0-1), making his second start. In last Friday's frustrating setback, Wynn was opposed by Sox ace Juan Pizarro.

"Wynn may be going for his 300th, but of more importance to me is that I'll be going after my No. 1 victory," said DeBusschere.

DeBusschere is 22, just half the age of the venerable Wynn who was released by the White Sox after the 1962 season and signed with Cleveland eight days ago.

"I had Wynn six years at Cleveland and five years with the White Sox," said Lopez. "You bet I'd like to see him get that 300th victory—but not against his old pals, you understand."

Youth Track, Field Meet Is Scheduled Here July 6

The East Liverpool Jaycees have set July 6 as the date of their third annual Junior Track and Field meet for boys and girls, ages 9-to-15 inclusive.

Thirty-four events have been scheduled for the affair which will be held at Patterson Field.

Several prizes will be available with the first two placing in each event receiving a trip to the state meet scheduled at Mt. Vernon, Ohio on July 27.

Forty three local winners went by chartered bus to compete in the state meet last year.

Other prizes include certificates to all those entering, ribbons to the first three in each event, a trophy to the winner of the pentathlon, a new event this year for boys 14 and 15.

Entry blanks can be secured at the playgrounds in the city or at the YMCA, Frank C. Dawson, chairman, announced. Entries do not have to be in until the day of the meet but it is recommended they are turned in as early as possible.

They events include:

Boys 9 to 11 — 50-yard dash, 200-yard shuttle relay, standing broad jump, running broad jump, softball throw.

Boys 12 and 13 — 75-yard dash, 300-yard shuttle relay, softball throw, running broad jump, standing broad jump, high jump.

Boys 14 and 15 — 100-yard dash, high jump, running broad jump, shot put (8 lb.), pentathlon (running broad jump, shot put, high jump, 100 yard dash, 440 yard dash).

Girls 9 to 11 — 50 yard dash, 200-yard shuttle relay, standing broad jump, running board jump, softball throw.

Girls 12 and 13 — 50-yard dash, 75-yard dash, 200-yard shuttle relay, running broad jump, standing broad jump, softball throw.

Girls 14 and 15 — 100-yard dash, 300-yard shuttle, running broad jump, softball throw, standing broad jump, high jump.

Dentists Pull Near Leaders In Colt Loop

The Dentists moved to within striking distance of league leading Lawyers by edging Johnson's Pontiac, 6-5, Thursday in the Colt League with the help of eight big errors by their opponents.

The victory came the hard way as the Dentists, holding a 6-4 lead had to stave off a last ditch attempt by the Pontiac nine.

Jeff MacLane wound up with the pitching victory and gave up four hits including three to Massey. The Dentists only collected four hits off Roach with Kinsey blasting a double.

All-Star Game Nears, Mays Far Behind Pace Of 1962

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The Willie Mays figures are truly shocking. At the end of June with the All-Star team about to be selected, Willie is running far behind his 1962 pace.

Just look at the figures:

	R	H	2B	3B	HR	RBI	Avg.
1963	44	70	11	1	12	33	.261
1962	61	90	21	3	21	65	.325

"There is nothing basically wrong," a friend advises. "He is just trying too hard. Every day, every inning Willie feels strongly that he must justify that big $100,000 salary the Giants are paying him. He feels he has to show something every day."

When Mays collapsed last year in Cincinnati and was taken to a hospital for rest, his main problem was nervous tension. He bounced back and led San Francisco through the playoffs and into the World Series.

Ask Al Dark, his manager, and you will get the usual answers that Willie is the greatest and he isn't worried. When Harry Jupiter, a San Francisco baseball writer, asked Dark about Mays' chances of playing in the All-Star Game, Dark told him Willie always should be in center field for the National League as long as he is playing ball.

The facts of the matter are that Vada Pinson of Cincinnati is hitting several points higher than Mays and may wind up getting the starting nod in the poll of the players, managers and coaches.

The feeling here is that Mays probably will get the job, regardless of average.

Pitching Steals Show In Little League Play

Pitching stoled part of the show in Little League action Thursday night with Paul Berhar of Burbick's and Marv Shell of Millirons sharing top billing.

Berhard had 17 strikeouts, pitched a two-hitter and slammed a home run in Burbick's 8-1 victoory over the Chester Legion. Clutter had three - for - three to help in Burbick's 12-hit attack. Steve Murray had both hits for Chester.

Shell gave up only three hits and whiffed nine batters in Millironn's 5-3 victory over Golden Star. John Cunningham, Kim Kemple and Dick Sacks all had two hits each in the victory.

McBurney's unleashed a 13-hit attack to send the Medics down to an 11-7 defeat.

Brenard Lovejoy was the winning pitcher as he spaced five hits and fanned eight batters. Cramer, the starting hurler, was the loser.

Bruce Christian smacked a double and two singles, Don Hancock had three hits and Dan Myers blasted a home run and single. Bob Parfitt paced the losers with a double and single.

McBurney's ended the second half play with a 7-2 mark.

It's Another No-Hitter Pitched By Bill Wright

Chalk up another no-hitter for Bill Wright, the clever hurler, who mows 'em down for Lawrenceville in the South Side Senior Hot Stove League.

Wright pitched his second no-hitter in league play this season and made it almost a perfect game. He gave up one walk to miss the perfect contest but faced only 22 batters and fanned 16. Wright also was the hitting star with three hits while Jordan and Brewer smacked two safeties each in a 7-0 victory over Newell.

On June 18, Wright hurled his first no-hitter in the South Side loop and in that one fanned 17 batters and only pitched to 22 batters.

In other games, Ashcroft posted 16 strikeouts as Georgetown defeated Frankfort, 9-2. The winning hurler only gave up two hits and Rogers led Georgetown with two hits.

Hookstown defeated Hanover, 18-8 with Wright going four-for-four while Anderson had two hits for the winners. Anderson was the winning pitcher with Potts the loser.

In a Junior Division make up game, Frankfort defeated Georgetown, 13-8 as Smith gained the pitching victory.

Hitters Have Good Night In Pony League Contests

In a wild and wooly contest, Woodbine pounded out 16 hits and took advantage of five errors for a 16-6 victory over Golden Star in one Pony League contest Thursday night and in another Burbick's defeated George Bright's, 9-6.

Woodbine scored in every inning to top Golden Star. The Dairymen came up with a five-run third inning for their biggest offensive punch of the game.

Tice was the winning pitcher while the batting stars numbered four. Brewer and Tice had four hits each while Smith and Arrington rang the hit bell three times.

Natalina and Talbott led Golden Star's 12-hit attack with three each.

Burbick's stayed a step ahead of Bright's to record a victory. The winners unleashed a 17-hit attack with Cunningham, Goodballet and Klembara coming up with three hits apiece while James and Jones clubbed roundtrippers for the winners.

Welch with a home run and single paced Bright's. Jones was the winning pitcher while Campbell was charged with the loss.

Fight Climaxes 3-Game Sweep By Rising Twins

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—It was debatable whether Vic Power won a brief skirmish of fisticuffs, but there was no doubt the Minnesota Twins won the battle as they bombed Detroit 10-6 Thursday to sweep a three-game series and wind up their longest home stand of 1963.

Power and Tiger starting pitcher Phil Regan enlivened a game of explosive hitting by squaring off at first base in the fifth inning.

The pair had exchanged words when Power was batting in the fourth inning, and it developed into a fight when Regan walked in the fifth. Power took a swing at Regan, but did no damage. Both teams spilled onto the field to restore order, and Power was ejected for being the aggressor.

Power and Regan disputed whether Vic should stand so close to the plate. Regan, in hearing distance of plate umpire Ed Hurley, told Power to get back or he might get hit with a pitch. Power told Regan what he could do with his suggestions.

55 At Dinner For Crucible Bowling Loop

About 55 attended the Crucible banquet Saturday night at Deramo's Restaurant at Midland as various awards were presented.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of a diamond ring and shoulder patch from the American Bowling Congress to Aaron Hall of East Liverpool, member of the LaBelle team, Crucible Shops League, who bowled a 300 game May 6 at Riviera Lanes at Midland.

The presentation was made by J. J. McGovern of Freedom, Pa., ABC representative, who said Hall will also receive a belt buckle or plaque for a 733 series rolled the same date.

N. P. (Dutch) Luster of Ohio View, league president, presented trophies to the champion Engineers team and to the runner-up Bar Mills team. Individual and team cash awards were presented by Reese Henry of Beaver, secretary-treasurer.

The champion team also received shoulder patches. Its members are C. J. Grimm of Midland, captain, Reese Henry of Beaver, W. L. Gleason of Brighton Township, William McComb of Industry, Richard R. Rassbach of Calcutta, Ohio, and Donald L. Luster and Steve Farkas, both of Ohio View.

Verzella of Midland Heights received a Century Award with the ABC gave this year for the first time. He won it for bowling 100 pins in a single game over his average. Verzella also had the high single game scratch, 268, and high single game handicap, 277, for the season.

Al Barrasso of Beaver had the high three game scratch, with 612, and high three game handicap, with 687. The most improved bowler was Joseph Patterson of Clinton who came from 144.6 to 163.1.

Luster, league president and president of the Crucible Management Club, was presented an ABC sponsor award. Al Troiana, manager of Riviera Lanes, attended and congratulated the league on completion of its first year.

New league officers elected were Martin Fridrick of East Liverpool, president, Harold Kazen of Beaver, vice president, succeeding Cahill of East Liverpool, and Henry, re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Tennis Instruction Set Saturday At 9:30

Free tennis instruction will be given at a net clinic sponsored by the East Liverpool Tennis Club Saturday morning at 9:30 at Thompson Park. It was reported that the third court is ready for use at the Park.

First Free Methodist Nets, 12-8, Victory

First Free Methodist posted a 12-8 victory over Orchard Grove Methodist in a Church League Softball game Thursday.

The 14-hit attack by the winners was led by Cunningham with four hits while Bill Wolfe, Jr., the winning pitcher, collected two safeties in helping his own cause.

Garland blasted a triple and single for the losers. Morris was the losing pitcher.

Intermediate, Juniors In Outdoor Play

The Junior Division and Intermediates took over in the YMCA Summer Basketball League Thursday night at the East 4th St. court.

Team 2 set down Team 5, 25-6, as Pete Picklesimer tossed in nine points. Floyd Cranston had four for the losers.

Team 6 came up with a 12-4 win over Team 3 as John Renner poured in nine of his team's 12 points and in one other Junior Division game, Team 1, with Ron Boram netting eight points, scored a 19-13 win over Team 4. Rick Metz and Kirk McCall shared honors for Team 4 with six points each.

Turning to the Intermediate Division, Team 6 scored a 24-18 win over Team 7. George Cook contributed 10 points for the winning combine while John Dalessio wound up with high point honors for the game with 13 in a losing effort.

Team 4 came on stronger in the second half to top Team 5, 24-19. Alfred Pasco hit the nets for nine points to pace the winners while Jerry Vaughn tallied 10 markers for Team 5.

Team 3 pushed past Team 1, 22-15, with Tom Grafton's eight points high for the winning team. Dick Lamborn's seven markers paced Team 1.

Four high school games will be played tonight and the schedule follows:

5:30—Team 8 vs. Team 2
6:15—Team 6 vs. Team 7
7—Team 4 vs. Team 5
7:30—Team 1 vs. Team 3

Olemdo Tops Gonzalez In Net Surprise

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — His old crown knocked askew, his prestige badly shattered and his game slowed to a walk, a badly beaten Pancho Gonzalez insisted today he still can beat any tennis player alive.

"I'll play any one of them any day of the week, and I'll bet on myself," he said after his 10-8, 2-6, 6-0, 6-1, defeat at the hands of Peruvian Alex Olemdo in the first round of the U.S. Pro Tennis championship at Forest Hills Thursday.

"I'm willing to play them any place, any time and for whatever they want—if they dare. And I'll guarantee the gate," he said.

Gonzalez' defiance did not reflect his play against Olmedo, who simply let the 35-year-old former tennis ruler run himself into the ground during the first two sets.

"My legs just gave out on me," said Pancho.

Tony Trabert, director of the player combine that is feuding with Gonzalez, was as happy as if he had been Pancho's conqueror instead of Olmedo.

Gonzalez and the association have been fighting in public and the courts over rival television shows and other matters. The association suspended Gonzalez and he filed suit against it.

"Gonzalez was thoroughly beaten," Trabert gloated. "And I enjoyed it very much. Particularly because of all the threats and the boasts he has made."

Wynn Goes After 300th At Chicago

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—"I will be the first to congratulate Early Wynn when he pitches his 300th victory, but I hope it will have to be by telephone or telegram."

This was half-jesting, half serious comment by Manager Al Lopez of the sizzling White Sox after learning the 43-year-old Wynn will oppose the Sox here again tonight in the opener of a four-game Cleveland visit.

It was only a week ago that Wynn tried for No. 300 against the Sox at Cleveland, but lost a heartbreaker to his former teammates 2-0 on Ron Hansen's two-run homer in the ninth with two out.

Wynn's opponent at Comiskey Park, where the Sox just finished polishing off the New York Yankees three-out-of-four, will be Dave DeBusschere (0-1), making his second start. In last Friday's frustrating setback, Wynn was opposed by Sox ace Juan Pizarro.

"Wynn may be going for his 300th, but of more importance to me is that I'll be going after my No. 1 victory," said DeBusschere.

DeBusschere is 22, just half the age of the venerable Wynn who was released by the White Sox after the 1962 season and signed with Cleveland eight days ago.

"I had Wynn six years at Cleveland and five years with the White Sox," said Lopez. "You bet I'd like to see him get that 300th victory—but not against his old pals, you understand."

Youth Track, Field Meet Is Scheduled Here July 6

The East Liverpool Jaycees have set July 6 as the date of their third annual Junior Track and Field meet for boys and girls, ages 9-to-15 inclusive.

Thirty-four events have been scheduled for the affair which will be held at Patterson Field.

Several prizes will be available with the first two placing in each event receiving a trip to the state meet scheduled at Mt. Vernon, Ohio on July 27.

Forty three local winners went by chartered bus to compete in the state meet last year.

Other prizes include certificates to all those entering, ribbons to the first three in each event, a trophy to the winner of the pentathlon, a new event this year for boys 14 and 15.

Entry blanks can be secured at the playgrounds in the city or at the YMCA, Frank C. Dawson, chairman, announced. Entries do not have to be in until the day of the meet but it is recommended they are turned in as early as possible.

They events include:

Boys 9 to 11 — 50-yard dash, 200-yard shuttle relay, standing broad jump, running broad jump, softball throw.

Dentists Pull Near Leaders In Colt Loop

The Dentists moved to within striking distance of league leading Lawyers by edging Johnson's Pontiac, 6-5, Thursday in the Colt League with the help of eight big errors by their opponents.

The victory came the hard way as the Dentists, holding a 6-4 lead had to stave off a last ditch attempt by the Pontiac nine.

Jeff MacLane wound up with the pitching victory and gave up four hits including three to Massey. The Dentists only collected four hits off Roach with Kinsey blasting a double.

All-Star Game Nears, Mays Far Behind Pace Of 1962

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The Willie Mays figures are truly shocking. At the end of June with the All-Star team about to be selected, Willie is running far behind his 1962 pace.

Just look at the figures:

	R	H	2B	3B	HR	RBI	Avg.
1963	44	70	11	1	12	33	.261
1962	61	90	21	3	21	65	.325

"There is nothing basically wrong," a friend advises. "He is just trying too hard. Every day, every inning Willie feels strongly that he must justify that big $100,000 salary the Giants are paying him. He feels he has to show something every day."

When Mays collapsed last year in Cincinnati and was taken to a hospital for rest, his main problem was nervous tension. He bounced back and led San Francisco through the playoffs and into the World Series.

Ask Al Dark, his manager, and you will get the usual answers that Willie is the greatest and he isn't worried. When Harry Jupiter, a San Francisco baseball writer, asked Dark about Mays' chances of playing in the All-Star Game, Dark told him Willie always should be in center field for the National League as long as he is playing ball.

The facts of the matter are that Vada Pinson of Cincinnati is hitting several points higher than Mays and may wind up getting the starting nod in the poll of the players, managers and coaches.

The feeling here is that Mays probably will get the job, regardless of average.

Pitching Steals Show In Little League Play

Pitching stoled part of the show in Little League action Thursday night with Paul Berhar of Burbick's and Marv Shell of Millirons sharing top billing.

Berhard had 17 strikeouts, pitched a two-hitter and slammed a home run in Burbick's 8-1 victoory over the Chester Legion. Clutter had three - for - three to help in Burbick's 12-hit attack. Steve Murray had both hits for Chester.

Shell gave up only three hits and whiffed nine batters in Millironson's 5-3 victory over Golden Star. John Cunningham, Kim Kemple and Dick Sacks all had two hits each in the victory.

McBurney's unleashed a 13-hit attack to send the Medics down to an 11-7 defeat.

Brenard Lovejoy was the winning pitcher as he spaced five hits and fanned eight batters. Cramer, the starting hurler, was the loser.

Bruce Christian smacked a double and two singles, Don Hancock had three hits and Dan Myers blasted a home run and single. Bob Parfitt paced the losers with a double and single.

McBurney's ended the second half play with a 7-2 mark.

It's Another No-Hitter Pitched By Bill Wright

Chalk up another no-hitter for Bill Wright, the clever hurler, who mows 'em down for Lawrenceville in the South Side Senior Hot Stove League.

Wright pitched his second no-hitter in league play this season and made it almost a perfect game. He gave up one walk to miss the perfect contest but faced only 22 batters and fanned 16. Wright also was the hitting star with three hits while Jordan and Brewer smacked two safeties each in a 7-0 victory over Newell.

On June 18, Wright hurled his first no-hitter in the South Side loop and in that one fanned 17 batters and only pitched to 22 batters.

In other games, Ashcroft posted 16 strikeouts as Georgetown defeated Frankfort, 9-2. The winning hurler only gave up two hits and Rogers led Georgetown with two hits.

Hookstown defeated Hanover, 18-8 with Wright going four-for-four while Anderson had two hits for the winners. Anderson was the winning pitcher with Potts the loser.

In a Junior Division make up game, Frankfort defeated Georgetown, 13-8 as Smith gained the pitching victory.

Hitters Have Good Night In Pony League Contests

In a wild and wooly contest, Woodbine pounded out 16 hits and took advantage of five errors for a 16-6 victory over Golden Star in one Pony League contest Thursday night and in another Burbick's defeated George Bright's, 9-6.

Woodbine scored in every inning to top Golden Star. The Dairymen came up with a five-run third inning for their biggest offensive punch of the game.

Tice was the winning pitcher while the batting stars numbered four. Brewer and Tice had four hits each while Smith and Arrington rang the hit bell three times.

Natalina and Talbott led Golden Star's 12-hit attack with three each.

Burbick's stayed a step ahead of Bright's to record a victory. The winners unleashed a 17-hit attack with Cunningham, Goodballet and Klembara coming up with three hits apiece while James and Jones clubbed roundtrippers for the winners.

Welch with a home run and single paced Bright's. Jones was the winning pitcher while Campbell was charged with the loss.

Fight Climaxes 3-Game Sweep By Rising Twins

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—It was debatable whether Vic Power won a brief skirmish of fisticuffs, but there was no doubt the Minnesota Twins won the battle as they bombed Detroit 10-6 Thursday to sweep a three-game series and wind up their longest home stand of 1963.

Power and Tiger starting pitcher Phil Regan enlivened a game of explosive hitting by squaring off at first base in the fifth inning.

The pair had exchanged words when Power was batting in the fourth inning, and it developed into a fight when Regan walked in the fifth. Power took a swing at Regan, but did no damage. Both teams spilled onto the field to restore order, and Power was ejected for being the aggressor.

Power and Regan disputed whether Vic should stand so close to the plate. Regan, in hearing distance of plate umpire Ed Hurley, told Power to get back or he might get hit with a pitch. Power told Regan what he could do with his suggestions.

55 At Dinner For Crucible Bowling Loop

About 55 attended the Crucible banquet Saturday night at Deramo's Restaurant at Midland as various awards were presented.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of a diamond ring and shoulder patch from the American Bowling Congress to Aaron Hall of East Liverpool, member of the LaBelle team, Crucible Shops League, who bowled a 300 game May 6 at Riviera Lanes at Midland.

The presentation was made by J. J. McGovern of Freedom, Pa., ABC representative, who said Hall will also receive a belt buckle or plaque for a 733 series rolled the same date.

N. P. (Dutch) Luster of Ohio View, league president, presented trophies to the champion Engineers team and to the runner-up Bar Mills team. Individual and team cash awards were presented by Reese Henry of Beaver, secretary-treasurer.

The champion team also received shoulder patches. Its members are C. J. Grimm of Midland, captain, Reese Henry of Beaver, W. L. Gleason of Brighton Township, William McComb of Industry, Richard R. Rassbach of Calcutta, Ohio, and Donald L. Luster and Steve Farkas, both of Ohio View.

Verzella of Midland Heights received a Century Award with the ABC gave this year for the first time. He won it for bowling 100 pins in a single game over his average. Verzella also had the high single game scratch, 268, and high single game handicap, 277, for the season.

Al Barrasso of Beaver had the high three game scratch, with 612, and high three game handicap, with 687. The most improved bowler was Joseph Patterson of Clinton who came from 144.6 to 163.1.

Luster, league president and president of the Crucible Management Club, was presented an ABC sponsor award. Al Troiana, manager of Riviera Lanes, attended and congratulated the league on completion of its first year.

New league officers elected were Martin Fridrick of East Liverpool, president, Harold Kazen of Beaver, vice president, succeeding Cahill of East Liverpool, and Henry, re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Tennis Instruction Set Saturday At 9:30

Free tennis instruction will be given at a net clinic sponsored by the East Liverpool Tennis Club Saturday morning at 9:30 at Thompson Park. It was reported that the third court is ready for use at the Park.

First Free Methodist Nets, 12-8, Victory

First Free Methodist posted a 12-8 victory over Orchard Grove Methodist in a Church League Softball game Thursday.

The 14-hit attack by the winners was led by Cunningham with four hits while Bill Wolfe, Jr., the winning pitcher, collected two safeties in helping his own cause.

Garland blasted a triple and single for the losers. Morris was the losing pitcher.

Intermediate, Juniors In Outdoor Play

The Junior Division and Intermediates took over in the YMCA Summer Basketball League Thursday night at the East 4th St. court.

Team 2 set down Team 5, 25-6, as Pete Picklesimer tossed in nine points. Floyd Cranston had four for the losers.

Team 6 came up with a 12-4 win over Team 3 as John Renner poured in nine of his team's 12 points and in one other Junior Division game, Team 1, with Ron Boram netting eight points, scored a 19-13 win over Team 4. Rick Metz and Kirk McCall shared honors for Team 4 with six points each.

Turning to the Intermediate Division, Team 6 scored a 24-18 win over Team 7. George Cook contributed 10 points for the winning combine while John Dalessio wound up with high point honors for the game with 13 in a losing effort.

Team 4 came on stronger in the second half to top Team 5, 24-19. Alfred Pasco hit the nets for nine points to pace the winners while Jerry Vaughn tallied 10 markers for Team 5.

Team 3 pushed past Team 1, 22-15, with Tom Grafton's eight points high for the winning team. Dick Lamborn's seven markers paced Team 1.

Four high school games will be played tonight and the schedule follows:

5:30—Team 8 vs. Team 2
6:15—Team 6 vs. Team 7
7—Team 4 vs. Team 5
7:30—Team 1 vs. Team 3

Olemdo Tops Gonzalez In Net Surprise

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — His old crown knocked askew, his prestige badly shattered and his game slowed to a walk, a badly beaten Pancho Gonzalez insisted today he still can beat any tennis player alive.

"I'll play any one of them any day of the week, and I'll bet on myself," he said after his 10-8, 2-6, 6-0, 6-1, defeat at the hands of Peruvian Alex Olemdo in the first round of the U.S. Pro Tennis championship at Forest Hills Thursday.

"I'm willing to play them any place, any time and for whatever they want—if they dare. And I'll guarantee the gate," he said.

Gonzalez' defiance did not reflect his play against Olmedo, who simply let the 35-year-old former tennis ruler run himself into the ground during the first two sets.

"My legs just gave out on me," said Pancho.

Tony Trabert, director of the player combine that is feuding with Gonzalez, was as happy as if he had been Pancho's conqueror instead of Olmedo.

Gonzalez and the association have been fighting in public and the courts over rival television shows and other matters. The association suspended Gonzalez and he filed suit against it.

"Gonzalez was thoroughly beaten," Trabert gloated. "And I enjoyed it very much. Particularly because of all the threats and the boasts he has made."

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: At first I just smoldered when my "friend" pretended to be a little high. Liquor is supposed to excuse all those cute passes at my husband. Now I'm in flames.

This has been going on for quite some time but I've hated to let anyone know how it infuriates me. After last Saturday night I think perhaps I should tell the bimbo off.

After a few martinis, this so-called Social Register dame jumped on my husband's lap, fell into his arms and invited him to crawl behind the sofa with her in search of an earring. All this under the guise of being loaded, of course. In the meantime, she could drink any champion soak under the table.

I'm fed up on the whole disgusting business but I need a more level head than mine to decide what to do about it. — FIRE IN WHITE PLAINS.

Dear Fire: This "don't blame me, I'm drunk" routine is as old as the grape.

It's always a mistake to tell another woman to leave your husband alone. It usually encourages the wench. She'll figure you are frightfully insecure and decide that maybe she does have a chance, after all.

Wildly aggressive females who throw themselves at men look cheap. If the wife can handle the situation with dignity this kind of character will look even cheaper.

Keep your head up and your mouth closed.

Community Charge

Dear Ann: I work in an office where all the girls get along pretty well.

Two of these girls told me they did not want to open up charge accounts because they were afraid they'd be tempted to spend more money than they should. So they asked if they could charge on my account. They promised to have the money in my hands by the time the bill came due.

For the first couple of months it worked fine. They paid as promised. But for the past four months I've had nothing but trouble.

One girl "forgets" what she bought and I have to track down sales slips to prove it was her purchase and not mine. The other girl is always broke. Now she owes me for articles she charged in March.

If I tell them they can't use my account any more it will break up our friendship. Please tell me what to do. — SUPER-CHARGED.

Dear Super: Tell both girls you are closing your charge account — and then go ahead and do it.

When you reopen the account it's not necessary to broadcast the information. Should they learn of it and ask again to use your account, tell them it would be less complicated if they saved the money and paid cash.

Hostile To One

Dear Ann: What do you think of a 45-year-old father who addresses his 9-year-old son as "Sweetie Pie"?

I have begged my husband to stop it. If any of the kids in the neighborhood hear him the boy will be teased unmercifully. "Sweetie Pie" is not a nickname of endearment. My husband uses it when he is annoyed with the boy — which is about 90 per cent of the time.

We have two other sons and my husband never has given them any nicknames. I believe he is actually hostile to this particular child and this is his way of teasing him. What can I do about it? UNHAPPY MOTHER.

Dear Mother: Your husband sounds like a kid himself. Tell him to cut it out or his son will grow up to despise him if he doesn't already.

Confidentially

TO SUSPICIOUS WIFE: That makes two of us. There is a difference between good sound reasons, and reasons that sound good.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Wellsville Man Cited In Parked Car Crash

Wellsville police said today Austin Easton, 19, of 18th St. Heights, Wellsville, has been cited as the driver of a car which struck the car of the Rev. Clark Allison, 1822 Lisbon St., while parked in front of a Main St. market Wednesday afternoon.

Easton said he just bumped the car's bumper as he was pulling from a parking spot and did not realize there was any damage. Police said the paint was scraped and the chrome marked slightly on the bumper.

Easton was cited for driving a car with a learner's permit without being accompanied by a licensed operator. He will receive a hearing Monday before Mayor William Daugherty.

Chamber Issues Details On Cruise Planned July 17

The Chamber of Commerce sent letters to all its members today, explaining the details of an Ohio River cruise and picnic arranged for July 17 by its civic and community affairs committee.

The Chamber members and their wives will embark at 3:30 p.m. on small pleasure craft from the East Liverpool Boat Club docks at the foot of Ferry Rd., Chester. The letter explained the dock is reached by turning onto Ferry Rd. from W. Carolina Ave.

The excursionists will be taken on a tour of the riverfront from the mouth of Beaver Creek to Jethro. The Chamber committee said the trip is designed to acquaint them again with the scenic beauty of the riverfront area. The committee suggested guests wear casual clothing and rubber-soled shoes.

The tour was arranged with the co-operation of the Ohio Valley and East Liverpool Boat Clubs, according to H. J. Allison and James Walker, co-chairmen. A catered picnic supper will follow on Babbs Island.

In case of rain, the outing will be held July 24. Reservations should be made by July 12, the Chamber said.

60 In Bible Class To Get Diplomas

Sixty students will be presented diplomas and 25 teachers and assistants will be given appreciation certificates at the closing program of the Daily Vacation Bible School at the Second Baptist Church tonight at 7.

The program will open with salute to the flag and the Bible, followed with group singing and individual participation.

Remarks will be given by Mrs. Essie C. Arkward, superintendent, and the Rev. E. D. Arrington, pastor. Craft displays will follow the program.

Mrs. Dorothy E. Peters is director; Mrs. Ann Pack, music director; Mrs. Bea Henderson, assistant director and supervisor of crafts; Mrs. Louella Jarrett, refreshments, and Mrs. Amelia G. Adams, devotions.

The average daily attendance was 55.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: How do you feel about having a day for everything? Don't you think it is a good idea to establish routine such as Monday for washing, Tuesday for ironing, Wednesday for deep cleaning, etc.?

HOUSEHOLD.

Dear Homemaker: I think this is terrible and it is what makes some of us depressed and the habit is for the birds as far as I am concerned.

But that is only my opinion.

Here's why:

These things are what make fanatics and neurotics out of us and I belive women should do things when they are in the mood. They not only get chores done quicker but better when "in" the mood.

It's a proven fact that body chemistry acts at certain times (and those times vary) and if you aren't feeling well on Mondays. . . why get up and do six loads of laundry? On Mondays do the mending if you don't feel full of energy! Besides I believe in doing laundry on weekends so the family can help.

If you had saved Thursday afternoons to do your mending. Come Thursday you might be loaded with energy and can turn out your ironing twice as fast. Why not take advantage of this?

As for certain days to clean house. A woman should remember that there are seven days in a week (though most women doubt this) and I think it is absolutely foolish to clean an entire house in one day. Clean one room at a time or vacuum the entire house and leave the dusting for tomorrow etc. . . .

Enjoy life so you can enjoy housekeeping. It's really fun if you learn to live along with it.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When I make jam or jelly and have to melt paraffin—I always line my aluminum pan with foil.

The paraffin melts just as quickly and this saves me washing that horrible pan. And those who ever have cleaned a pan in which paraffin has been melted will know what I mean!

All a woman has to do is throw away the foil and the pan is clean.

SADIE.

DEAR HELOISE: When making angel food cake I find it best to set my pan in the sink, and it is much easier to pour the batter in. The mixing bowl is so heavy to lift and this way it is still at elbow level.

Also, if any batter happens to spill, it will get into the sink, not on the drainboard therefore can be washed down the drain by merely turning on the faucet.

MR. R. G. M.

DEAR HELOISE: Did you know you could make instant coffee in an automatic electric percolator?

Just add the water and instant coffee without the coffee basket or stem. Reasons for doing this might be:

To keep instant coffee hot after making it (this is my reason) or to fool someone into thinking he is drinking "real Coffee"! Perhaps a husband who is not supposed to have caffeine or a husband who thinks he does not like instant coffee!

ANNETTE EDWARDS.

DEAR ANNETTE: Now aren't you clever? Now, if you can suggest a way to fool them into thinking that the beds are made and the dishes are done, I'll send you an orchid!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Blankets—woolen—are beautiful when dried in a drier and much softer and fluffier than when dried on a clothes line. The important part to remember when drying blankets is to adjust the drier so that there is VERY little heat or even none at all! (We are in the business.)

I might add that driers are also useful in the cleaning of your draperies. Just turn the heat off and let the air blow through them. This will remove all of the dust. My own living room drapes have a printed background and are 6 years old, but remain as crisp and fresh as new because I use the dry method of cleaning them.

Note: People should not use a dryer if they are adjusted to a high heat and the user cannot turn them down!

MRS. LLOYD LEVIN.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Jim my Wong knows how to campaign for office: appeal to the voters in as many languages as possible.

The Seneca High School sophomore, running for vice president of the Student College, decorated the school halls with posters in English, Spanish, German, French and Latin. No Chinese, though.

The youngster speaks all these languages but is a little weak on Chinese, even though his parents use Chinese fluently.

The multiple-tongue campaign paid off: Jimmy won.

EMPHYSEMA

Q. Please discuss emphysema. Is it a progressive disease and can its progress be stopped?

A. The term emphysema (pronounced em'fi•see'muh) is derived from the Greek word "emphysan," meaning to blow in. Pulmonary emphysema is a condition in which the air sacs of the lungs become dilated or enlarged. The chronic condition may be due to chest deformity, chronic lung infection, chronic asthma, and similar conditions. Much can be done for the relief of symptoms of chronic emphysema but it isn't a condition which lends itself to anything but good medical care. See your physician.

LOW BLOOD PRESSURE BETTER THAN HIGH

Q. I have low blood pressure. What can I take or do to improve it?

A. You are very fortunate! Thousands of persons would give all they own to have low blood pressure. It's true that you may feel under par at times but the chances are good that you will avoid disorders that go with high blood pressure. Everything considered, your chances of a long life may be better than average.

Much can be done for the relief of symptoms of chronic emphysema but it isn't a condition which lends itself to anything but good medical care. See your physician.

LOW BLOOD PRESSURE BETTER THAN HIGH

Q. I have low blood pressure. What can I take or do to improve it?

A. You are very fortunate! Thousands of persons would give all they own to have low blood pressure. It's true that you may feel under par at times but the chances are good that you will avoid disorders that go with high blood pressure. Everything considered, your chances of a long life may be better than average.

Family Rivalry Stored In Attic

Kennedy Appoints Lodge Ambassador To Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Let no one doubt that politics makes strange bedfellows: Henry Cabot Lodge is going to work for John F. Kennedy.

A family rivalry that dates back 47 years has been stored in the attic with announcement by the President Thursday that he has picked Lodge as ambassador to South Viet Nam.

Eleven years ago Kennedy vaulted into national prominence by taking Lodge's Senate seat. Three years ago they were exchanging political pot shots; Kennedy as the Democratic candidate for president, Lodge as the GOP's vice presidential choice.

A year ago, the battling branched farther out on the family tree as the President's youngest brother, Edward, defeated Lodge's son, George, for the same Senate seat from Massachusetts.

The feuding and fussing between the Lodges and the Kennedy clan began in 1916 when Lodge's aristocratic grandfather and namesake, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, beat back the challenge of John F. Fitzgerald, Kennedy's maternal grandfather.

Although he bears the same name and party label as his grandfather, Henry Cabot Lodge is cut from entirely different political cloth. The elder Lodge was an isolationist and a conservative; the younger is international-minded and a member of the GOP's liberal wing.

Lodge has been a general consultant to Time, Inc., and has served as director general of the Atlantic Institute, a private organization dedicated to strengthening democracy in Western Europe.

Lodge will be 61 Wednesday. He and his wife, the former Emily Esther Sears, have two sons, George Cabot and Henry Sears.

Children Entertain Highlandtown Grange

Children presented the program at a meeting of the Highlandtown Grange Thursday night at the Grange Hall near Wellsville.

Kay McKenzie gave a reading and Joyce Shriver told jokes. Becky McPherson and Patty Hays played a clarinet duet.

The lecturer hour opened and closed with songs. A coverdish dinner was served 30 by the home economics committee.

Robert McPherson, master, presided. A group of 4-H boys will present the program at the meeting July 11. The boys also will sell lunches.

Senate OKs Medals

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has passed and sent to the House a bill authorizing the striking of medals to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the Battle of Lake Erie. The medals also would commemorate the building of Perry's fleet of gunboats at Erie, Pa.

Water Main Breaks

WILLOUGHBY, Ohio (AP) — A water main broke on Tall Oaks Drive in nearby Mentor Thursday night, spilling 90,000 gallons and leaving the community without water for six hours.

State Allows Bus Purchase

Rep. Clarence Wetzel Thursday notified the Southern Local Board of Education that the State Controlling Board at Columbus had reversed its decision and granted permission for the district to purchase four new school buses.

The board had applied for permission earlier this year. The purchase was approved by the Transportation Department of the State Board of Education but turned down by the Controlling Board in May.

The board at a meeting June 18 authorized Supt. John Baker to go to Columbus to talk with officials. He called the transportation department and was told nothing could be done.

Robert Skinner, board president, went to Columbus June 20 and conferred with Rep. Wetzel, Atty. Warren Bettis, now with the Public Utilities Commission, and Rep. Robert H. Longsworth of Carroll County.

Two of the 60-passenger buses will be purchased from the O. S. Hill Co. at Lisbon and two from Hart Motor Co. of Salineville.

The state pays 84 per cent of the cost, according to Charles Allison, a board member.

Auto Figure Dies

DETROIT (AP) — George M. Holley Sr., 86, automotive engineer who built his first car in 1898, died Thursday. Holley, born in Bradford, Pa., developed with his brother the historic "iron pot" carburetor which helped launch the early curved-dash Oldsmobile and the first Model T Ford.

Senate Filibuster On Rights Means March On Capital

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A U.S. Senate filibuster on civil rights legislation will bring a giant march on Washington, James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, says.

He has called for "100,000 feet, black and white" in Washington, D.C.

"Never again are we going to witness the tragic, comic opera of a filibuster in the Senate without taking action," he said as applause rang out in the Phillips Temple Church Thursday night.

Farmer delivered the keynote address to the jam-packed opening session of the national CORE convention here.

"I hope we are not going to be confronted with a . . . waltz in the Kennedy administration. That's one step forward, two back, a hesitation, and a side-step," he explained as the audience offered its support in laughter.

"CORE is bringing this action to the threshold of the American dream," he continued.

"Twenty-four years ago there were just a few of us . . ." he said. "Today non-violence is the watch word. Literally, hundreds of thousands of people are now marching and sitting in, using Gandhi's tactics.

"CORE's responsibility is the molding out of this mass of people an effective non - violent revolutionary force."

Ohio Third In 1962 In Building Schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio Ranked third in 1962 in building public schools, School Management magazine reported today.

First in the nation, the magazine said, was California, which built 723 structures costing $372,361,000. Then followed Michigan with 314 structures costing $171,690,000, Ohio with 287 structures costing $179,438,000, and Pennsylvania with 268 structures costing $221,608,000. The figures for structures include both new buildings and additions to existing buildings.

Wellsville Man Fined On Improper Passing

Charles A. Wilson, 30, of 505 10th St., Wellsville, was fined $10 and costs today in Municipal Court when he pleaded guilty before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of improper passing on E. 5th St. between Walnut and College Sts.

Wilson was cited at 9:14 p. m. Thursday by Patrolman Karl Samples, who alleged the defendant passed other vehicles when the left lane was not free of oncoming traffic. Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper told the court Wilson's car nearly forced Officer Samples' cruiser off the street.

Meanwhile, John J. Gilkes, 41, of Crestview Dr. was fined $5 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge he crashed a stop sign at E. 4th and Walnut Sts. He was cited at 5:30 p. m. Thursday, police said.

Family Trips Need Wise Planning

Dr. Garry Meyers

When you plan an extended motor trip with the children, those able to read will like to study maps and help plan the trip with you. On the way, there may be places of interest all of you would like to visit and the children might choose profitably to read about them beforehand. For the safety and comfort of the group, setting a reasonable limit of mileage for each day before the trip begins is usually wise. If there are children under five or six, stopping every 50 miles or so to let them get out and walk around may be very desirable.

If you have a teenager with a driver's license he or she may want to drive all the way. For safety, it's usually well if several persons take turns driving on the trip. It's also a good time to set standards of safe driving for the teenager.

IF HE OR she exceeds speed limits or violates other traffic rules, there's no sense in jawing and riding on with dread and anxiety. When you see such violation, if a first warning does not suffice, have this young driver pull off the road and one of you parents take the wheel. Don't let him or her drive again for a day or two.

If there are several children over four or five, there may be considerable bickering and quarreling among them, even to the degree that they distract the driver. Sometimes having them sit apart from one another will suffice. If it does not, and they are under ten or twelve, driving the car off the road and applying a belt or paddle may be wise. If well done, it can be very effective.

Singing together and playing all sorts of verbal games can be enjoyable to all. If one or two choose to take a nap it might help.

With older and younger children together, an older child may help entertain a younger one, even read to him. Where there are two or more young children, a book for coloring or heavy paper to draw on can provide prlonged, profitable amusement. Children old enough to play simple games of cards, Flinch or the like, may use a suitcase for a table. On the market are inexpensive booklets suggesting all sorts of amusements for children of varying ages on a motor trip.

FOR SAFETY AND comfort, the child under three or four should occupy, for part of the time, a special seat securely attached to the back seat with adequate harness to hold him in securely. It is wise to have along a simple first-aid kit selected with the advice of your physician.

For young children the two-door sedan is preferable. Otherwise, the inside door handles might well be removed. Most young children tend to manipulate door handles and other alluring gadgets.

Take along one or two containers for keeping water and milk cool and keep these containers adequately replenished with safe contents.

Unless you set some rather rigid standards which you hold to, the children will want to consume soft drinks excessively as well as sweets and other snacks. Some parents find it hard to get by a gas station without having to stop for such refreshments.

Wisely you will, for health reasons, choose eating places which are neat and clean. When children drink pop, milk or fruit juices from bottles or other containers, have them use sanitary straws and not drink from bottles, which often are not well cleansed. Especially to be avoided are foods with various mixtures, such as custards and dressings. They tend to deteriorate fast during hot weather and to become contaminated.

Sargus Opposes Group's Report On Amended Bill

Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS — Sen. Edmund A. Sargus, D-St. Clairsville, led Senate Democrats Thursday in opposing acceptance of a conference committee report on the amended workmen's compensation bill.

Sargus, one of two Democrats on the conference committee who refused to sign the report, voiced his opposition in floor debate.

He charged that the bill would not bring the depleted compensation trust fund to a minimum safe level, even though that was its avowed purpose.

"We're keeping our fingers crossed about the next recession," said Sargus. "And gentlemen, as the old Indian would say on the reservation, we got heap big trouble."

The report was accepted 17-14, with two Republicans joining the Democrat opposition.

In other action, the House passed 112-7 Sargus' bill to give juvenile courts jurisdiction to determine the custody of any child. It now goes to the governor for signing.

Charged With Murder

WAVERLY, Ohio (AP)—Robert Jacob Brust, who officials say survived self-inflicted rifle wounds after killing his estranged wife, has been charged with first-degree murder. The Pike County Sheriff's Office filed the charges Thursday against the 53-year-old man.

Auto Sales Show Continued Gains

New car sales in Columbiana County are continuing at levels well ahead of the corresponding period of 1962, according to sales tax figures released today at Columbus by State Treasurer John D. Herbert.

The auto sales produced $31,331 in tax revenue in the two-week period ending June 22, up $5,613 from the $25,718 listed at the same time in 1962. Taxes on auto sales in the county total $618,604 since the current fiscal year opened July 1, 1962, a gain of $62,346 from the $556,258 shown in the corresponding period of the preceding fiscal year.

Sales taxes on other commodities produced $56,080 in the county in the two weeks ending June 22, an increase of $420 from the $55,660 in the corresponding period of 1962. Since the start of the fiscal year, the taxes total $1,174,835, down $3,397 from the $1,178,232 shown at the same time in the preceding fiscal year.

Fireworks Slated For Weirton's 4th

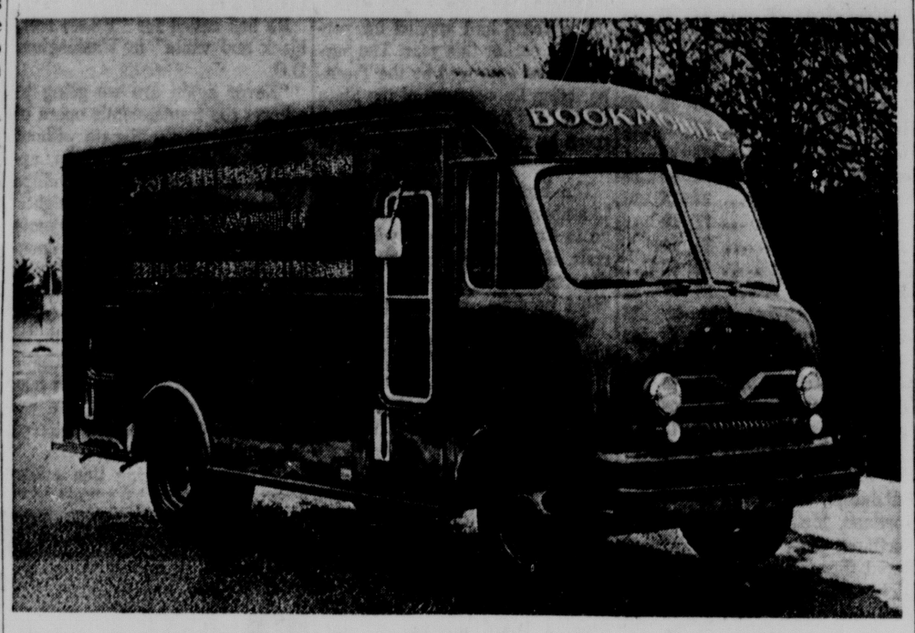
Bookmobile Scheduled In Survey For Hancock



A library survey will be conducted in Hancock County in July to determine if there is enough interest in supporting visits of this bookmobile and to learn of the most favorable spots on a schedule.

The survey is a project of the County Farm Woman's Council, William Myers, librarian of the Mary H. Weir Library in Weirton, and the West Virginia Library Commission.

COUNTY COURT has appointed an advisory committee to collect the information and present it with a report. The committee includes Mrs. Floyd R. Grimes, chairman, and Mrs. Dale E. Hoyt, Mrs. William Oyster, Mrs. Gussie Rice and Oliver Johnson.

First step of the survey calls for a tour of the bookmobile through the county. There will be 10,000 books available free of charge. They will be loaned for a two-week period with distribution on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday next week.

Collection of the books will be made on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday of the third week of July. The West Virginia Library Commission is providing the bookmobile, 10,000 books, and a driver at no cost to the county. The Farm Woman's Council will staff the bookmobile for the two-week period.

—:—

THE BOOKMOBILE will be in Brooke County the second and fourth weeks of July for the same type survey. On Thursday, the bookmobile will be entered in the Weirton July 4th parade in the forenoon and in the Wellsburg parade in the evening.

The advisory committee has prepared the following stops within Hancock County:

Departing Pastor And Wife Honored By Congregation

The Rev. and Mrs. Glenn Brunstetter were honored at two events held this week by the congregation of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church.

About 100 attended the annual picnic Wednesday afternoon at Thompson Park where Rev. Brunstetter led worship.

Mrs. Mahala Watson was in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Anderson, Mrs. Nellie McIlvane and Mrs. Cumi Havens.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Downard, Mrs. Julia Farnsworth and John Everhart conducted games and sports.

The Brunstetter family received a gift from the congregation at a farewell party Monday night in the social rooms.

Miss Lillian Miles arranged a program assisted by Mrs. Gyla Nicely and Wayne Standley.

Mrs. Evelyn Arnold conducted devotions, reading Scripture from Ps. 95. Mrs. Edith Buchheit offered prayer.

Mrs. Kathryn Baldwin and Mrs. Imogene Gilliland sang a duet and Kenneth Nichols played a trumpet solo.

Refreshments were served 98 by Mrs. Mahala Watson, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Charmaine Watson, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Havens and Mrs. McIlvane.

Rev. Brunstetter is leaving to assume the pastorate of the Grace Methodist Church at Uhrichsville.

Den 6 Of Wellsville Cub Pack Wins Award

For the ninth consecutive month Den 6 of Cub Pack 22 of Wellsville captured the attendance banner at the monthly meeting Tuesday night at Hammond Park. Mrs. Natalie Lewis is the den mother.

Don Hutchison, cubmaster, led the group in the pledge of allegiance and introduced Mrs. Eunice Huston, new pack treasurer. Awards were presented to Mike Pelley, Jeff Huston, Charles Lewis, Patrick Doyle and Dwight Brookman.

Contests, under direction of Hutchison and Leroy Geisse, included sack race won by Brian Kessel, and three-legged race, Mark Bush and Charles Lewis, all of Den 6. A sack lunch was served 70.

Wreck Injuries Fatal

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Ellis Pat Snyder, 20, of Clifton died Thursday of injuries suffered Monday when his car crashed into a tree along Ohio 343.

Prosecutor To Set Charges In Slaying

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Clark County Prosecutor James Barry was to say today what charges will be filed against William Gray, 72, jailed Thursday night in the fatal shooting of his Medway neighbor.

Sheriff Elwood D. Thackery said Gray admitted the shooting of Robert Collins, 45, in a quarrel over pigeons the victim raised.

Salem Motorist Fined

LISBON — Donald Ramsier, 28, of Salem R. D. was fined $10 and costs Thursday by County Judge James L. MacDonald on a charge of driving across a freshly-painted highway center line. Edward Cieplinski, 33, of Bayonne, N. J., forfeited a $20 bond on a charge of failing to display warning devices after his truck broke down west of the village on Route 30. Both were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

$15.3 Million Budget Fixed For Miami U.

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Miami University's operating budget for the next school year is a whopping $15,301,549—based on both more students and higher tuition—school officials reported today.

About half the money is expected to come from fees and direct charges to students, 31 per cent from state tax appropriations and the rest from a wide variety of sources.

Kaycee Unit Picks Officers

The Desmond Holding Co. elected officers after the regular meeting of Wellsville Knights of Columbus Council 507 Tuesday night.

Named were James McPeak, president, with John Kozora, Anthony Cataldo and Frank Roberts at trustees.

Robert Graham will be the planning chairman with Andrew Holowaty and John Monte co-chairmen.

Andrew Lynn was elected as recording secretary.

During the regular business meeting of the K. of C., Holowaty was appointed chairman of the annual council picnic in August with George Crews and Monte as co-chairmen.

McPeak, grand knight, thanked the 11 retiring officers and the six point chairmen for their work the past year.

New officers, again headed by McPeak, will assume their duties as of Monday.

An officers and training session will be held at Canton Sunday, July 14.

Lunch was served by Holowaty and committee.

Lisbon Session Slated By Historical Society

LISBON — The Lisbon Historical Society will hold a special meeting Monday night at 8 in Village Hall to work out details of the part it will play in the celebration of the centennial of Gen. John H. Morgan's Confederate raid July 24-27, Ross Fox, president, said today.

Fox urged attendance by all persons who are willing to assist with various antique exhibits or at the Old Stone House, the period home maintained by the society.

Auto Sales Show Continued Gains

New car sales in Columbiana County are continuing at levels well ahead of the corresponding period of 1962, according to sales tax figures released today at Columbus by State Treasurer John D. Herbert.

The auto sales produced $31,331 in tax revenue in the two-week period ending June 22, up $5,613 from the $25,718 listed at the same time in 1962. Taxes on auto sales in the county total $618,604 since the current fiscal year opened July 1, 1962, a gain of $62,346 from the $556,258 shown in the corresponding period of the preceding fiscal year.

Sales taxes on other commodities produced $56,080 in the county in the two weeks ending June 22, an increase of $420 from the $55,660 in the corresponding period of 1962. Since the start of the fiscal year, the taxes total $1,174,835, down $3,397 from the $1,178,232 shown at the same time in the preceding fiscal year.

Fireworks Slated For Weirton's 4th

As a feature of Weirton's observance of the West Virginia Centennial, the annual Independence Day fireworks display sponsored by the Weirton Steel Co. will be held at 10 p.m. Thursday at the Weirton Airport.

This year's colorful fireworks program which promises to be new and different will consist of an opening barrage of 100 special shells in seven changing colors, numerous set pieces including a salute to West Virginia's Centennial Year, over 200 multiple break aerial rockets, and a finale depicting a stagecoach and Indian battle consisting of over 450 aerial rockets and 2,500 flash shells.

In the event of inclement weather on July 4, the fireworks will be held at 10 p.m. July 5.

Bookmobile Scheduled In Survey For Hancock

A library survey will be conducted in Hancock County in July to determine if there is enough interest in supporting visits of this bookmobile and to learn of the most favorable spots on a schedule.

The survey is a project of the County Farm Woman's Council, William Myers, librarian of the Mary H. Weir Library in Weirton, and the West Virginia Library Commission.

COUNTY COURT has appointed an advisory committee to collect the information and present it with a report. The committee includes Mrs. Floyd R. Grimes, chairman, and Mrs. Dale E. Hoyt, Mrs. William Oyster, Mrs. Gussie Rice and Oliver Johnson.

First step of the survey calls for a tour of the bookmobile through the county. There will be 10,000 books available free of charge. They will be loaned for a two-week period with distribution on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday next week.

Collection of the books will be made on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday of the third week of July. The West Virginia Library Commission is providing the bookmobile, 10,000 books, and a driver at no cost to the county. The Farm Woman's Council will staff the bookmobile for the two-week period.

THE BOOKMOBILE will be in Brooke County the second and fourth weeks of July for the same type survey. On Thursday, the bookmobile will be entered in the Weirton July 4th parade in the forenoon and in the Wellsburg parade in the evening.

Kaycee Unit Picks Officers

Named were James McPeak, president, with John Kozora, Anthony Cataldo and Frank Roberts at trustees.

Robert Graham will be the planning chairman with Andrew Holowaty and John Monte co-chairmen.

Andrew Lynn was elected as recording secretary.

During the regular business meeting of the K. of C., Holowaty was appointed chairman of the annual council picnic in August with George Crews and Monte as co-chairmen.

McPeak, grand knight, thanked the 11 retiring officers and the six point chairmen for their work the past year.

New officers, again headed by McPeak, will assume their duties as of Monday.

An officers and training session will be held at Canton Sunday, July 14.

Lunch was served by Holowaty and committee.

With Experience, Pastoral Preparation

Pope Paul VI Has Pledged To Take Path Of Progress

By JAMES M. LONG

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI has pledged himself to follow the path of progress pioneered by Pope John XXIII.

He embarks with administrative experience and important pastoral preparation given him by the more conservative Pope Pius XII.

Pius became Pope after a career in the Vatican Secretariat of State. But Pius had understood the value of the rich human contacts and deep personal satisfactions of the pastoral experience which he never had.

Pius first gave Giovanni Batti Montini a broad outlook on the world from the Vatican's Office of Secretary of State and then sent him to Milan as archbishop in Italy's industrial Red Belt.

It cost Pope Pius his right hand man in church administration. But it gave Archbishop Montini eight rich years of pastoral experience that rounded out his preparation to become Pope Paul VI.

There were paradoxes in his career. One was that he declined the red hat of cardinal just 10 years before he was elected Pope.

But there was the underlying consistency of loyalty, in his devoted service to Pope Pius, and his dedicated support of Pope John's program of progress.

When he moved into the papal apartment of the Apostolic Palace after election last Friday it was almost like coming home. Pope Paul's office and home had been in the Vatican Secretariat of State since 1924, soon after his return from his first diplomatic assignment as secretary to the apostolic nuncio in Warsaw. He was 27.

His rise was steady.

In 1937 he became substitute secretary of state. Pope Pius XII promoted him in 1952 to pro-secretary of state, in which he was the Pope's right-hand man in church administration.

In the consistory of 1953, Pope Pius announced he had asked Archbishop Montini to accept the red hat of cardinal. The Pope said Montini refused "from his high sense of duty," preferring to serve the Pope in his office in the Secretariat of State.

It was a sacrifice of princehood rarely disclosed in the modern history of the Roman Catholic Church. Pius obviously was deeply moved. A year later, in 1954, the Pope sent Montini north to Milan, as archbishop of the most important diocese in Italy outside Rome.

History may record it as an act of destiny. At the time Archbishop Montini wept and said sorrowfully "Today I have become an orphan."

It was a token of his love of Pope Pius, as for a father.

Yet on Epiphany Day of January 1955, when the new archbishop of Milan drove into his diocese, for the first time a pastor, he had dedicated himself to his new duties.

He stepped from his car in sleet and rain. And before the Milanese who braved the bitter weather to greet him, he knelt and kissed the ground of his native North Italy.

He rose and faced them — the people of the bustling, prospering, industrial and Communist-leaning area.

He had come to meet his challenge there in the Red Belt. His first words were those of prayer, of affection of hope.

"Pray," he urged them.

"Pray as I pray—that the vibration of machinery shall become as music, and the fumes of the smokestacks shall become as incense."

Then, with the intensity with which he always plunged into new endeavor, he went to work to make it so.

He rounded up nearly 1,000 priests from all over Italy. He sent them out to the industrial suburbs of the city to carry the message of the church into the strongholds of communism.

And he went out there himself. One of his first visits was to Milan's San Vittore jail to talk with the prisoners, just as Pope John some years later visited Rome's Regina Coeli prison soon after his coronation.

The Archbishop of Milan put on a miner's helmet and went down into the pits. He went to the factories. And he went out to face the Communists in their own Red fortress, the suburb of Sesto San Giovanni, called Italy's Little Stalingrad.

He did not stop at visiting the workers in their plants and at their assembly lines. He went to their wives and their children in humble homes.

He took along a notebook. He was accompanied by two priests. He asked questions and made no promises. But a few days after his visit, poor families found that a doctor showed up for their sick baby. Or a call came saying a job had been found for the unemployed husband.

When he came back to Rome he had eight years of the close personal pastoral relations that a Pope would need in the new age of man.

Destructive Work Of Cereal Leaf Beetle Detected In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The destructive work of the cereal leaf beetle has been detected in Ohio, and 14 northwestern counties have been placed under technical quarantine pending investigation of the infestation.

But Agriculture Director John Stackhouse said Thursday that all but small sections of four of the counties, Allen, Defiance, Fulton and Williams, will be exempted for the present from regulations. The other 10 counties under quarantine are Auglaize, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Lucas, Mercer, Paulding, Putnam, Van Wert and Wood.

Stackhouse said the following areas are now under strict quarantine:

Allen County: Monroe Township, portions of Bath Township north and west of Ohio 25, and Sugar Creek Township, portion east of Ohio 115.

Fulton County: Amboy and Fulton townships.

Defiance County: Milford Township.

Williams County: Northwest, Bridgewater and St. Joseph townships; Jefferson Township, portion north of West Jefferson-Montpelier Road and west of Kunkle-Pulaski Road; Superior Township, portions east of Ohio 576 and north of West Jefferson - Montpelier Road; Madison Township, portion south of Kunkle-Hamer Road and west of Kunkle-Pulaski Road; the town of Montpelier.

In the other 10 counties named, all townships and incorporated municipalities were exempted from regulations of the quarantine for the time being. But Stackhouse said that the possibility exists that as the infestation spreads, parts of those counties also will be placed in strict quarantine.

The quarantine will be enforced by inspectors of the State Agriculture Department. Most of the investigation will be concentrated on grain elevators.

The quarantine became effective today. Stackhouse said it is designed to regulate and restrict movement of grain in certain areas of the 14 northwest counties.

The cereal leaf battle attacks oats, wheat, corn and other grains and grasses.

Stackhouse said the invasion in Ohio apparently came from portions of neighboring Michigan and Indiana, where they have been detected.

Articles affected by the quarantine include oats, corn, and other small grains; uncleaned grass and forage crop seed, hay, straw and fodder; sod, harvesting machinery and other equipment used in transporting products.

Today In History

New Jersey Concern And Potters Sign Pact

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today a new three-year contract has been signed with the Rheem Manufacturing Co. of Metuchen, N.J., covering its members affiliated with Local Union 174.

One of the highlights of the pact is a 9-cent hourly raise for day workers and a 3-cent boost for piece-workers in the second year. In the third year, both classifications will receive a 3-cent boost.

The contract also calls for improved pension and vacation plans, an additional paid holiday, an increase in shift differentials, an additional $1,000 life insurance for employes and elimination of various "inequities," the union said.

Aerospace Concern Has 'Space Scooter'

DOWNEY, Calif. (AP) — An aerospace firm has come up with something it calls a space scooter, a one-man platform with handlebars designed for crater hopping and crag climbing on the moon.

It's steered by balance, like a surfboard. Lean in the direction you want to go, and you do.

Paper Says All Cuban Sugar Crop Menaced

HAVANA (AP)—The newspaper Hoy reports the entire Cuban sugar crop is menaced.

It said Thursday no more than 158,400 acres would be planted by June 30, only 39 per cent of the normal acreage.

Hoy blamed the "slow use of new systems which means difficulties for the plans developed by the party and revolutionary government."

With Experience, Pastoral Preparation

Pope Paul VI Has Pledged To Take Path Of Progress

By JAMES M. LONG

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI has pledged himself to follow the path of progress pioneered by Pope John XXIII.

He embarks with administrative experience and important pastoral preparation given him by the more conservative Pope Pius XII.

Pius became Pope after a career in the Vatican Secretariat of State. But Pius had understood the value of the rich human contacts and deep personal satisfactions of the pastoral experience which he never had.

Pius first gave Giovanni Batti Montini a broad outlook on the world from the Vatican's Office of Secretary of State and then sent him to Milan as archbishop in Italy's industrial Red Belt.

It cost Pope Pius his right hand man in church administration. But it gave Archbishop Montini eight rich years of pastoral experience that rounded out his preparation to become Pope Paul VI.

There were paradoxes in his career. One was that he declined the red hat of cardinal just 10 years before he was elected Pope.

But there was the underlying consistency of loyalty, in his devoted service to Pope Pius, and his dedicated support of Pope John's program of progress.

When he moved into the papal apartment of the Apostolic Palace after election last Friday it was almost like coming home. Pope Paul's office and home had been in the Vatican Secretariat of State since 1924, soon after his return from his first diplomatic assignment as secretary to the apostolic nuncio in Warsaw. He was 27.

His rise was steady.

In 1937 he became substitute secretary of state. Pope Pius XII promoted him in 1952 to pro-secretary of state, in which he was the Pope's right-hand man in church administration.

In the consistory of 1953, Pope Pius announced he had asked Archbishop Montini to accept the red hat of cardinal. The Pope said Montini refused "from his high sense of duty," preferring to serve the Pope in his office in the Secretariat of State.

It was a sacrifice of princehood rarely disclosed in the modern history of the Roman Catholic Church. Pius obviously was deeply moved. A year later, in 1954, the Pope sent Montini north to Milan, as archbishop of the most important diocese in Italy outside Rome.

History may record it as an act of destiny. At the time Archbishop Montini wept and said sorrowfully "Today I have become an orphan."

It was a token of his love of Pope Pius, as for a father.

Yet on Epiphany Day of January 1955, when the new archbishop of Milan drove into his diocese, for the first time a pastor, he had dedicated himself to his new duties.

He stepped from his car in sleet and rain. And before the Milanese who braved the bitter weather to greet him, he knelt and kissed the ground of his native North Italy.

He rose and faced them — the people of the bustling, prospering, industrial and Communist-leaning area.

He had come to meet his challenge there in the Red Belt. His first words were those of prayer, of affection of hope.

"Pray," he urged them.

"Pray as I pray—that the vibration of machinery shall become as music, and the fumes of the smokestacks shall become as incense."

Then, with the intensity with which he always plunged into new endeavor, he went to work to make it so.

He rounded up nearly 1,000 priests from all over Italy. He sent them out to the industrial suburbs of the city to carry the message of the church into the strongholds of communism.

And he went out there himself. One of his first visits was to Milan's San Vittore jail to talk with the prisoners, just as Pope John some years later visited Rome's Regina Coeli prison soon after his coronation.

The Archbishop of Milan put on a miner's helmet and went down into the pits. He went to the factories. And he went out to face the Communists in their own Red fortress, the suburb of Sesto San Giovanni, called Italy's Little Stalingrad.

He did not stop at visiting the workers in their plants and at their assembly lines. He went to their wives and their children in humble homes.

He took along a notebook. He was accompanied by two priests. He asked questions and made no promises. But a few days after his visit, poor families found that a doctor showed up for their sick baby. Or a call came saying a job had been found for the unemployed husband.

When he came back to Rome he had eight years of the close personal pastoral relations that a Pope would need in the new age of man.

Destructive Work Of Cereal Leaf Beetle Detected In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The destructive work of the cereal leaf beetle has been detected in Ohio, and 14 northwestern counties have been placed under technical quarantine pending investigation of the infestation.

But Agriculture Director John Stackhouse said Thursday that all but small sections of four of the counties, Allen, Defiance, Fulton and Williams, will be exempted for the present from regulations. The other 10 counties under quarantine are Auglaize, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Lucas, Mercer, Paulding, Putnam, Van Wert and Wood.

Stackhouse said the following areas are now under strict quarantine:

Allen County: Monroe Township, portions of Bath Township north and west of Ohio 25, and Sugar Creek Township, portion east of Ohio 115.

Fulton County: Amboy and Fulton townships.

Defiance County: Milford Township.

Williams County: Northwest, Bridgewater and St. Joseph townships; Jefferson Township, portion north of West Jefferson-Montpelier Road and west of Kunkle-Pulaski Road; Superior Township, portions east of Ohio 576 and north of West Jefferson - Montpelier Road; Madison Township, portion south of Kunkle-Hamer Road and west of Kunkle-Pulaski Road; the town of Montpelier.

In the other 10 counties named, all townships and incorporated municipalities were exempted from regulations of the quarantine for the time being. But Stackhouse said that the possibility exists that as the infestation spreads, parts of those counties also will be placed in strict quarantine.

The quarantine will be enforced by inspectors of the State Agriculture Department. Most of the investigation will be concentrated on grain elevators.

The quarantine became effective today. Stackhouse said it is designed to regulate and restrict movement of grain in certain areas of the 14 northwest counties.

The cereal leaf battle attacks oats, wheat, corn and other grains and grasses.

Stackhouse said the invasion in Ohio apparently came from portions of neighboring Michigan and Indiana, where they have been detected.

Articles affected by the quarantine include oats, corn, and other small grains; uncleaned grass and forage crop seed, hay, straw and fodder; sod, harvesting machinery and other equipment used in transporting products.

New Jersey Concern And Potters Sign Pact

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today a new three-year contract has been signed with the Rheem Manufacturing Co. of Metuchen, N.J., covering its members affiliated with Local Union 174.

One of the highlights of the pact is a 9-cent hourly raise for day workers and a 3-cent boost for piece-workers in the second year. In the third year, both classifications will receive a 3-cent boost.

The contract also calls for improved pension and vacation plans, an additional paid holiday, an increase in shift differentials, an additional $1,000 life insurance for employes and elimination of various "inequities," the union said.

Aerospace Concern Has 'Space Scooter'

DOWNEY, Calif. (AP) — An aerospace firm has come up with something it calls a space scooter, a one-man platform with handlebars designed for crater hopping and crag climbing on the moon.

It's steered by balance, like a surfboard. Lean in the direction you want to go, and you do.

Paper Says All Cuban Sugar Crop Menaced

HAVANA (AP)—The newspaper Hoy reports the entire Cuban sugar crop is menaced.

It said Thursday no more than 158,400 acres would be planted by June 30, only 39 per cent of the normal acreage.

Hoy blamed the "slow use of new systems which means difficulties for the plans developed by the party and revolutionary government."

LEGAL NOTICE
(RC 3703.17)

ERNEST W. BAXTER and GLORIA JEAN BAXTER, who reside at 3002 W. Camelback Road, Apt. 71, Phoenix, in the State of Arizona, will take notice that on the 31st day of May, 1963, the plaintiff, THE POTTERS SAVINGS & LOAN COMPANY, filed its petition against them in the Court of Common Pleas of Columbiana County, Ohio, the same being Case No. 48648 in said Court, for the foreclosure of a mortgage and sale of certain real estate and in said petition described, to-wit:

Situated in the City of East Liverpool, County of Columbiana and State of Ohio, and known as and being the northerly part of that certain Lot numbered One Thousand Five Hundred Eighty-five (1585), as said Lot is numbered and distinguished upon the recorded plat of Josiah Thompson's Second Addition to the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, and which part of said Lot is more particularly bounded and described by beginning at the Northwest corner of said Lot in the southerly line of Pennsylvania Avenue, and running thence in a southwesterly direction along the dividing line between Lots One Thousand Five Hundred Eighty-four (1584) and One Thousand Five Hundred Eighty - five (1585) for a distance of Seventy-six and seventy hundredths (76.70) feet to a point; thence running in a southeasterly direction on a straight line across said Lot to a point in the dividing line between Lots One Thousand Five Hundred Eighty - five (1585) and One Thousand Five Hundred Eighty - six (1586), which point is Northeast Forty - one (41) feet from the Southeast corner of said Lot One Thousand Five Hundred Eighty - five (1585); thence running in a northeasterly direction along the dividing line between Lots One Thousand Five Hundred Eight-five (1585) and One Thousand Five Hundred Eighty-six (1586) to the Northeast corner of said Lot and the southerly line of Pennsylvania Avenue; thence northwesterly along the southerly line of Pennsylvania Avenue for a distance of Forty (40) feet to the place of beginning.

Said premises are also known as 220 Pennsylvania Avenue, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Defendant, ERNEST W. BAXTER, acquired the foregoing real estate by Certificate of Transfer recorded in Volume 1081, Page 615, Columbiana County, Ohio, Deed Records.

The prayer of said petition is for the foreclosure of a mortgage and sale of said real estate and for other equitable relief. Said defendants are required to answer said petition on or before the 27th day of July, 1963, or judgment will be taken against them.

Junior Editors Quiz on GUNPOWER

QUESTION: Why does gunpowder explode?

ANSWER: When you build a campfire (A) you start it by warming up dry paper or shavings with a match. This allows a chemical change called "combustion" to take place, where substances in the paper and wood unite with the oxygen in the air to make the fire start burning. Gases and heat are produced, plus smoke (B) because there is more fuel than the oxygen in the air can unite with, so the unburned carbon passes off in clouds of smoke. Since there is plenty of open space around, the hot gases, which expand with the fire, pass off without you noting them.

About 1242, Roger Bacon explained in a book that certain chemicals such as charcoal, sulpher and saltpeter, would unite rapidly with oxygen when heated. Soon, cannons were made to take advantage of this explosive force. By putting it inside a tube with a ball in front and igniting it, the hot, suddenly expanding gases would push the ball out with great force. The first guns and cannons made a great deal of smoke (C); but an improved mixture of materials produced smokeless powder in 1884. Nowadays, both gunpowder and bullet are combined in a metal cartridge. These are fired by the hammer of the gun striking a small amount of mercury fulminate or lead azide which explodes if it is tapped sharply. This "primer" is located either at the center or the rim of the cartridge.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: If you've followed what we said about gases from gunpowder suddenly expanding, you'll understand that if you get a bit of dirt in the end of the muzzle and then fire the gun, the barrel will probably blow up. It's best to use gunpowder only under supervision of an older person.

Job Discrimination?

Most Employers, Unions In North Don't Think So

Job discrimination is one of the key targets of Negro demonstrations in the North. Picketing and scuffling already have erupted in Philadelphia and New York. Negro leaders are scheduling demonstrations in other Northern cities soon. The Associated Press asked its correspondents to report on the problems and prospects in their areas. Here is a roundup of the picture in the North, based on these reports.

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negroes have less chance than white to get a high-paying job in the North, but most employers and unions deny this stems from racial discrimination.

Negro leaders generally contend it does. In Chicago, for example, they say that hardly anyone downtown hires Negroes as office workers, store clerks, or skilled craftsmen.

"The Loop of Chicago looks like a snowstorm at 5 o'clock," says Hamp McKinney of the Urban League of Chicago, "with only here and there a little brown speck in it."

But employers and unions say that situations like this are not caused by racial discrimination. They say there aren't enough qualified Negroes to fill the jobs available.

Reports from Associated Press bureaus in New York, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, Detroit, San Francisco and Chicago and from government agencies in Washington indicate a similar pattern.

Negro charges of job discrimination have flamed into one of the most searing racial problems in the North, where almost half of America's 19 million Negroes live.

Statistics show that Negroes in the North have a more difficult time than whites at getting jobs. But there is controversy over the cause.

Many employers and unions have antidiscrimination clauses in their contracts. They say they honor them. They say they would hire qualified Negroes, or take qualified Negroes into apprenticeship.

But Negro leaders insist that job discrimination blocks the way of the Negro in the North.

Pickets and police clashed in Philadelphia and New York a few weeks ago in the Negro struggle for more and better jobs. Herbert Hill, labor secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, has threatened more demonstrations if the doors of personnel offices and union halls stay closed.

The unemployment rate among Negroes is twice as high as the unemployment rate among whites. The Department of Labor reports that one out of every 10 Negro workers is out of a job.

The vast majority of those Negroes who do jobs are working at the bottom of the heap. Their jobs usually are menial, low-paying, and the first eliminated when times get tough.

Employers and unions do not dispute these facts. They simply refuse to accept any responsibility for it. For the record, almost all unions and most businesses in the North say they are against racial discrimination.

"We have no Negroes in our union," says Romeo Jenson, business representative of the AFL-CIO Iron Workers Local 11 in Newark, N.J., "and the reason is, nobody has applied, to my knowledge. I don't believe in any discrimination of any sort."

Leaders of the AFL-CIO admit that the craft unions have discriminated against Negroes. At the same time, the leaders resent the current furore by Negroes over the situation. The resentment stems from three basic beliefs of the AFL-CIO leaders:

1. That the record of the AFL-CIO, on the whole, has favored the Negro.

2. That the AFL-CIO is doing the best it can to change the policies of its craft unions.

3. That the end of discrimination by the small craft unions would hardly improve the general job situation for Negroes.

Nevertheless, the record remains to anger American Negroes: in all America, there are only 300 union-licensed Negro plumbers and electricians, far less than the number of Negroes with doctorate degrees.

In Detroit last year, the Iron Workers Local trained 66 apprentices, none Negro; the Plumbers Local trained 128 apprentices, none Negro; the Sheetmetal Workers trained 159 apprentices, 7 Negro.

The leaders of the craft unions, when pressed, will say that they would allow Negroes into the apprentice programs if Negroes applied.

But Negro youngsters, knowing the record of the craft unions, rarely bother to apply. Often they are too poor and unschooled to become apprentices even if the unions kicked away the barriers.

"What's the reason?" asks Camponeschi. "Close your eyes and stick out 10 fingers, and you'll find 10 reasons. You want me to say all these reasons mean discrimination. Sure, it's discrimination. It's the story of the Negro in America."

And so the cycle goes on. Employers and unions says Negroes aren't qualified. Without union membership and without jobs, Negroes can't get the education and training to become qualified.

The flurry of demonstrations during the last few weeks has spurred some action from unions, employers, and the government.

The AFL-CIO has put pressure on craft unions to make room for Negro apprentices.

President Kennedy has banned racial discrimination on construction projects paid for, in whole or part, by federal funds.

The President also has asked Congress to pass a massive vocational education program to train Negroes for higher paying jobs.

Will these steps soften Northern Negro anger? Some experts fear the problem may not be solved for many years, for it takes time to train skilled workers and it takes time to create incentive among young Negroes.

The bridge being built across the narrows at the entrance to New York City harbor, whose main suspension span will be 4,260 feet from tower to tower, will be the world's longest main suspension span.

Survey To List Home Repairs

Information on expenditures for residential alterations and repairs will be collected in the July quarterly household survey, it was announced today by the Director Hobert A. Yerkey of the Census Bureau regional office at Detroit. The survey will be conducted locally and in the 356 other sample areas of the country during the first 10 days of July.

Items to be covered in the survey include painting, plumbing, roofing, flooring and other related repair and replacement projects, along with repair and replacement of heating and air conditioning systems.

In addition to the questions on alterations and repairs, inquiries will be made regarding travel habits of Americans. These questions will cover destination, type of transport used, major reason for the trip, overnight accommodations used, and related items. The travel questions are part of America's first Census of Transportation.

Mrs. Goldie Steele of Wellsville will conduct the local survey.

The Executive Committee of the U. S. Potters Association has announced the appointment of G. Stewart Thompson of Park Way as acting secretary - treasurer of the manufacturers' organization, filling the vacancy created by the death of W. A. Betz.

The announcement was made by J. M. Wells as chairman of the Executive Committee.

Mr. Betz was serving his 22nd year with the USPA when he died March 17.

Mr. Thompson, long an active member of the USPA, served as its president in 1933. He was vice president of the former C. C. Thompson Co. pottery.

3 Reported Injured In 2 County Crashes

Three were injured in two separate traffic accidents early today in the upper section of the county, according to the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Officers were called on a car-truck crash at 7:57 a. m. today on Route 30 a mile east of Hanoverton. One person was reportedly injured and taken to Salem City Hospital.

Two were reported injured slightly in a crash on Route 17 a half mile east of Route 7, near Columbiana, about 8:45 a. m.

Group To Map Plans In Event Of A-Attack

ATLANTA (AP) — Gov. Carl Sanders has named seven state officials to a planning committee to head a statewide emergency program in event of nuclear attack.

The group, known as the Emergency Resources Planning Committee, has powers to freeze and control prices and rents, administer emergency rationing and establish a program for effective state and local management of essential resources in case of disaster.
